 - Somerset advanced to 34-20 all-time against the Baysox, clinching their sixth series win over Chesapeake in franchise history and their first road series win of the season. The Baysox remain one of two Eastern League teams the Patriots have never lost a series to (Harrisburg).
 - With three extra base hits in the game, Somerset has an extra base hit in all 45 games this season. At the time of the game ending, the franchise record streak is the longest active streak in Double-A and second-longest in MiLB.
 - With Garrett Martin’s homer in the fifth inning, Somerset has homered in 10 of its last 11 games. The Patriots’ 77 home runs this season lead Double-A and rank third in MiLB. Somerset’s 77 home runs in the first 45 games of the season are a Double-A record in the Research Tool Era (since 2005).
 - With 11 hits, Somerset’s offense notched double-digit hits in its third consecutive game. The Patriots have recorded 10-plus hits in 22-of-45 (48.9%) games this season.  - Somerset’s pitching staff allowed just two runs, marking its fourth consecutive game allowing two or fewer runs. The Patriots have surrendered just five runs, striking out 44 batters to walking just 13 in that span. Prior to Griff O’Ferrall’s two-run home run in the seventh inning, Somerset had not allowed a run in 21.0 IP.
- RHP Chase Chaney (6.0 IP, 3 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 2 K) worked his third quality start of the season.
