UPCOMING GAMES AND PROBABLE STARTERS

DATE	OPPONENT	PROBABLE PITCHERS	FIRST PITCH (ET)

Tuesday, April 23	vs. Charleston	TBA vs. TBA	6:05 p.m.
Wednesday, April 24	vs. Charleston	TBA vs. TBA	11:05 a.m.

THIS FEELS GOOD: After three straight victories to earn at least a series split in Fayetteville, the FredNats go for win number four in a row and a series victory on Easter Sunday against the Woodpeckers. LHP Erik Tolman makes his first start of the season after beginning the year in the Fredericksburg bullpen. Tolman has pitched 6.1 innings of one-earned run ball so far this year. In his previous season with Fredericksburg in 2023, Tolman was exclusively a starting pitcher and was drafted as a starter by the Nationals back in 2021. Tolman has overcome three separate season-ending injuries since his senior year of college, including a devastating leg injury in a freak accident hopping over the foul line in Fredericksburg in July 2023. He is just now back pitching from that injury, and has enjoyed a very strong start to the season prior to this Sunday start. He faces Woodpecker righty Ramsey David, who was the piggy-back guy in the series opener on Tuesday. David gave up Jorgelys Mota's game-tying home run in the 8th inning of Tuesday's series opener that was ultimately won by Fayetteville.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: MLB rehabbers Cade Cavalli and Zach Bryzcy pitched the first five innings flawlessly, and the FredNat bullpen fired four shutout innings of their own in a 2-0 win, Fredericksburg's third straight in the series. Jackson Ross and Cristhian Vaquero drove in the runs for the offense, who did not have its best night with runners in scoring position, but had plenty enough in the shutout win.

CARDIAC FREDDIES: The FredNats have had a flair for the dramatic through the first 13 games of the year. Five of the first 13 have been decided by one run, two games have gone to extra innings, and there's been three total walk-offs - one win and two losses. Fredericksburg has yet to win a game by more than three runs, and out of the team's six wins this season in nine inning games (two of the wins came in a 7-inning doubleheader), the Fredies have had the lead after eight innings only twice, including last night's 2-0 victory.

THIS BULLPEN IS LEGIT: The FredNat bullpen continues to be a dominant unit for Fredericksburg. After helping to post the second shutout of the season for the pitching staff, the unit has lowered its season ERA to 2.61, which is best in the Carolina League and the second best in all of Single-A baseball behind Stockton (1.97). Last night it was four scoreless from Erick Mejia, who picked up the win, and Adam Bloebaum, who picked up his first professional save.

CLUTCH MOTA: Jorgelys Mota has shown the clutch gene so far in this series in Fayetteville. The 19-year-old third baseman has a game-tying or go-ahead hit in the 8th inning or later of three out of the five games in this series so far, and in yesterday's game, he scored the game's only run until the 9th inning. He hit a game-tying two-run homer in the 8th inning of Tuesday's game, drove in the eventual winning run in the top of the 9th of Thursday's game, and last night, hit a game-tying two-run double in the 8th inning. In the series, Mota is 8-for-19 with a homer, three doubles, a triple, six RBI, four walks and three stolen bases. Mota is a top candidate to earn Fredericksburg's first Player of the Week nod.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN: While the FredNats don't have a ton of Top-30 prospect talent on this Opening Day roster, the team does have a wealth of experience returning, with 20 players out of 30 on the Opening Day roster having played for the FredNats before, and eight returners who played in the 2024 playoffs. Additionally, nine members of Washington's 2024 draft class appear on the Opening Day roster. Opening Day roster players that participated in the 2024 playoffs include Merritt Beeker, Adam Bloebaum, Robert Cranz, Alexander Meckley, Kevin Bazzell, Jorgelys Mota, Nate Ochoa and Cristhian Vaquero.

2024 CHAMPIONS: The 2024 Fredericksburg Nationals won the franchise's sixth total Carolina League championship last September, defeating the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers two games to one to capture the crown. It was the franchise's first since moving to Fredericksburg in 2020, and the first since the Potomac Nationals won the Carolina League in 2014. The FredNats broke the Charleston RiverDogs' run of three titles in a row, and became the first non-Charleston team to win the league since MiLB realigned to its current leagues in 2021.

NEW SKIPPER IN TOWN: After Jake Lowery's third season as Manager of the FredNats ended in a Carolina League championship in 2024, the FredNats welcome Billy McMillon as the third Manager in Fredericksburg franchise history. McMillon, 53, has spent the last three seasons in the Nationals organization as the Development Coach for Triple-A Rochester. Prior to joining the Nationals, he coached for over a decade in the Boston organization, managing at all four full-season levels and also spending three seasons (2016-18) as the organization's base running and outfield coordinator. He also played parts of six seasons in the Major Leagues with Oakland, Detroit, Philadelphia and Florida. He's joined on the staff by returning Pitching Coach Justin Lord, returning Hitting Coach Mike Habas, Development Coach Luis Ordaz, returning Athletic Trainer Jacob Meyer, Strength & Conditioning Coach Mike Reiskind, and Performance Analyst Samantha Unger.

A LASTING LEGACY: The Fredericksburg Nationals adopt the franchise history of their predecessors in the Carolina League dating back to 1978...the Alexandria Dukes (1978, 1980-83) and Alexandria Mariners (1979) played at Four Mile Run Park in Alexandria, Virginia...the Prince William Pirates (1984-1986), Prince William Yankees (1987-1988), Prince William Cannons (1989-1998), Potomac Cannons (1999-2004) and Potomac Nationals (2005-2019) played at G. Richard Pfitzner Stadium in Woodbridge, Virginia...the franchise has won six Carolina League championships, as the Dukes in 1982, as the Yankees in 1989, and as the Nationals in 2008, 2010 and 2014. The franchise won its first league title as the Fredericksburg Nationals in 2024.

McMillon, 53, joined Washington in 2022 and has spent the last three seasons as the Development Coach for Triple-A Rochester. McMillon played parts of six Major League seasons with four different organizations, including the Oakland Athletics (2001-04), Detroit Tigers (2000-01), Philadelphia Phillies (1997), and Florida Marlins (1996-97). The former Clemson Tiger was a three-time International League All-Star and the 1996 IL Rookie of the Year with Charlotte, earning him induction into the IL Hall of Fame in 2019 and Charlotte's Round Table of Honor in 2022. McMillon was initially selected in the eighth round of the 1993 MLB Draft by Florida. He replaces Jake Lowery, who managed the FredNats the last three seasons, culminating in a championship last year. Lowery will manage High-A Wilmington in 2025.

Prior to joining Washington, McMillon coached in the Boston Red Sox organization for over a decade. He managed the Worcester Red Sox (Triple-A) in their inaugural season in 2021 after managing Boston's former Triple-A affiliate Pawtucket in 2019. He was set to lead the PawSox again in 2020 before the cancellation of the MiLB season. Prior to managing at the Triple-A level, McMillon was the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for Boston from 2016-18 after managing for six seasons in the organization with Double-A Portland (2014-15), High-A Salem (2012-13), and Single-A Greenville (2010-11). His coaching career began in 2008 when he was Greenville's Hitting Coach.

This is Lord's fifth total season coaching in the Washington organization after a six-year professional playing career and several seasons coaching in the Baltimore system. The Alabama native and Florida State alum was scheduled to be the Fredericksburg Pitching Coach in the canceled 2020 season, and was the Pitching Coach for one season in Double-A Harrisburg prior to joining the FredNats in 2023.

MIKE HABAS - HITTING COACH

Prior to joining the Nationals, he spent the previous four seasons coaching in the Milwaukee Brewers organization, most recently as the Hitting Coach for the ACL Brewers in 2022 and 2023. Prior to joining Milwaukee, he was an Assistant Coach for the independent Gary SouthShore RailCats. While coaching with Gary, he was also the Head Coach at Prairie State College, a Junior College in the Chicago area.
