INDIANS ORGANIZATION

Bruce SchumacherChairman of the Board & Chief Executive Officer

Bruce Schumacher was named the Indianapolis Indians' chairman of the board and chief executive officer in November 2016 to signal a new era of leadership for the organization. Now in his 42nd year with the team, he enters his 12th on the Indians Board of Directors after his election in February 2012.

Schumacher joined the organization as ticket manager in January 1983 and served in that role until 1986 when he was promoted to director of special projects.

Under Schumacher's leadership as director of special projects, which spanned 25 years, the Indians made the move from Bush Stadium to Victory Field in 1996, hosted the 2001 Triple-A All-Star Game, and established themselves as one of the premier franchises in Minor League Baseball.

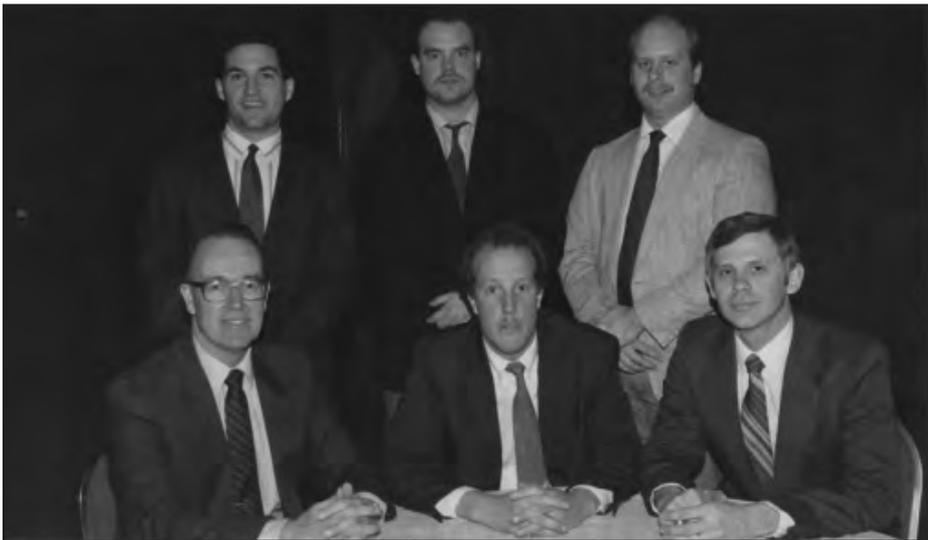

In 2012, Schumacher transitioned to the position of vice president of corporate affairs in addition to being elected to the Indians Board of Directors. Since 2012, the Indians have drawn over 6.4 million fans, including leading Minor League Baseball in attendance in 2013 and establishing Victory Field attendance records in 2014 (660,289) and 2015 (662,536). The Indians led Minor League Baseball in attendance in 2016 and 2017, and in 2022, Victory Field ushered in its 15 millionth fan.

In 2018, the Indians were named Ballpark Digest's Team of the Year. The online publication stated, "few teams achieve success as consistently as the Indianapolis Indians, who deliver a quality product in a competitive market on a continual basis." Ballpark Digest chose the Indians for their focus on fans, their ballpark and their strong support from the Central Indiana community.

Without a minor league season in 2020, Schumacher and his staff pivoted to successfully execute over 20 public and private events at Victory Field, highlighted by two weekends of golf and three movie nights. Indians baseball returned to Victory Field in 2021, and the organization finished eighth out of 120 MiLB teams in total attendance despite playing 20 home games at 25% and 50% capacity. From 1987 to 2009, Schumacher also served as the in-park "Voice of the Tribe" public address announcer.

Schumacher is active in the community, having volunteered at IPS as part of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce Winning Team program and the Washington Township School system. He also served on the Board of the Delaware Trails Neighborhood Association, as a member of Indianapolis' Abandoned Housing Task Force, and on the Indianapolis Neighborhood Housing Partnership Board. He currently serves on the Metropolitan Development Commission, the Mapleton Fall Creek Community Development Corporation Housing Committee, and works with the Stadium Village Business Association.

Born in Indianapolis, Schumacher attended North Central High School and graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Business Management and Administration in 1982. He and his wife, the former Jo Kussmaul, have three daughters, Rachel and twins Grace and Sara.

Randy Lewandowski

President & General Manager

Randy Lewandowski enters his 31st year with the Indianapolis Indians and 10th as the club's general manager in 2024. He is just the team's fourth general manager since the organization was incorporated in 1955. In addition to his duties as GM, he was named president by the Indians Board of Directors in November 2016.

Lewandowski was named the International League's 2016 Executive of the Year, marking the third Executive of the Year Award for the Indians' front office staff since joining the IL in 1998. In 2015, Lewandowski was inducted into the Bishop Dwenger High School Hall of Fame and three years later, he was inducted into the Northeast Indiana Baseball Association Hall of Fame.

After joining the Indians as a ticket office intern in 1994, Lewandowski was hired full-time as assistant ticket manager the following year. He served in that capacity for two seasons and contributed to the team's transition from Bush Stadium to Victory Field in 1996.

Lewandowski took over as director of operations in 1998, helping Victory Field host the 2001 Triple-A All-Star Game. He transitioned to assistant general manager in 2002, serving as one of the team's two assistant GMs before becoming the sole assistant GM in 2005. In this role, his primary responsibilities were overseeing the marketing, operations and ticket departments.

Over the final five seasons of Lewandowski's tenure as assistant GM, the Indians recorded five straight seasons of increased attendance. They led Minor League Baseball in attendance in 2013 while establishing a Victory Field record.

That success would continue following Lewandowski's ascension to general manager in October 2014 as the team eclipsed its top season attendance mark for the second consecutive year. The 2016 and 2017 campaigns saw the Indians again lead Minor League Baseball in attendance, and in 2022, the club welcomed Victory Field's 15 millionth fan through its gates.

Lewandowski's leadership was on full display in 2020 and 2021. With the 2020 minor league season canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Lewandowski managed to keep all full-time staff employed which helped lead to the successful execution of 20-plus public and private events at Victory Field. Then in 2021, Indians baseball returned to Victory Field, and the organization finished eighth out of 120 MiLB teams in total attendance despite playing 20 home games at 25% and 50% capacity.

Lewandowski recently joined the Indianapolis Public Safety Foundation as a board member in December 2022. He also serves on the board of directors for both Indy Chamber and Indianapolis Indians Charities and gives the Indians and other Professional Development League (PDL) teams a voice of reasoning in important year-over-year discussions by serving on the PDL Club Operations and International League Scheduling committees. In addition, Lewandowski spearheaded a partnership between the Indians and Indianapolis RBI in 2015 and now serves as chairman on the organization's board of directors. He was previously active in the Indiana chapter of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society as past president and board member, and past chair of the LLS Light the Night Walk. For a seven-year period, he was active in the youth sports coaching and mentoring ministry at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church and School.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., Lewandowski graduated with a degree in business management from Anderson University in 1993. He was also a four-year starter on the Ravens' baseball team, where he earned academic All-America honors as a first baseman and pitcher. Lewandowski and his wife, Christina, reside in Noblesville, Ind., and have two adult children, Alyssa (Mike) Tallman and Sam, and one granddaughter, Isla.

Max SchumacherChairman Emeritus

Indianapolis Indians baseball and the name of Schumacher are forever linked.

After 60 seasons with the club, Max Schumacher transitioned to chairman emeritus in November 2016. He relinquished his responsibilities as chairman of the board to his son, Bruce, and his title of president to Randy Lewandowski, Indians general manager.

In his altered role, Schumacher has maintained his position on the finance committee, hosted in his suite on game days, and provided mentorship for Indians leadership.

Under Schumacher's more than half century of leadership, the Indians have enjoyed recognition for their ongoing commitment to excellence. The team has been recognized with awards such as the Triple-A Bob Freitas Award in 1996 and 2014, Baseball America's Triple-A Team of the Decade for the 1990s, and, in 2005, At The Yard Magazine's Minor League Team of the Year. The Indians led Minor League Baseball in attendance during the 2016 (636,888) and 2017 seasons (641,141), two of many attendance records set at Victory Field.

Following his service in the United States Army, Schumacher began his Indians career as ticket manager in 1957, before also assuming the duties of publicity director in 1959. Schumacher then took over as general manager just two years later in 1961, serving under then-president Owen J. Bush, who would continue in that capacity for eight more years. Following Bush's retirement in 1969, Schumacher was named president.

During his tenure as the Indians' general manager, Schumacher was named the American Association's Executive of the Year for 1996, and just one year later was voted Minor League Baseball's "King of Baseball" for his long-term dedication and service to the game. Following his November 2016 transition to chairman emeritus, Schumacher was joined by former All-Star closer Lee Gardner in the International League Hall of Fame Class of 2017.

Schumacher played four years of varsity baseball while also serving as editor of The Collegian publication at Butler University from 1950-54. Schumacher has been honored by his alma mater with the Robert Todd Duncan Alumni Achievement award in 2003, induction into Butler's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2021 a Butler Medal, an award introduced in 1959 and the highest honor conferred by the Butler University Alumni Association.

Along with his professional success, Schumacher has also been recognized for his impact in the Indianapolis area after formerly serving as president of the Indianapolis Downtown Kiwanis Club, the American Business Club, and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis. Schumacher was honored for his numerous contributions with the Thomas W. Moses Good Scout Award in April 2006 for his dedication to community service, social responsibility and having a true "scout spirit."

In 1957, Max Schumacher began his career with the Indians as ticket manager.

Joel Zawacki

Assistant General Manager
Corporate Sales and Marketing

Joel Zawacki is the assistant general manager – corporate sales and marketing for the Indianapolis Indians. Each year he is tasked with the implementation of an annual strategic marketing and communications plan.

His primary duties and responsibilities include leading a staff of more than 20 employees in advertising, broadcasting, charities, communications, community relations, corporate sales, game presentation, marketing, media relations, merchandising, promotions and social media.

Zawacki also collaborates with outside advertising and media agencies to develop and implement annual campaigns including messaging, creative execution, promotional partnerships and allocation of an annual budget in excess of $1.5 million.

In 2023, Zawacki spearheaded the first edition of SWING, a signature charity event benefiting Indianapolis Indians Charities and its 2024 grant recipients. Over 2,000 attendees at premium and VIP levels experienced the ballpark like never before, as Victory Field was flipped into an all-inclusive, immersive experience of the 1930s, a bygone era of baseball.

Zawacki joined the organization in 2007 as sponsorship sales coordinator. He was promoted to director of corporate partnerships in 2008 and added marketing to his duties and responsibilities in 2012.

Zawacki graduated magna cum laude from the University of Indianapolis in 2006 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sports Administration. He was a pitcher on the Greyhounds' baseball team and earned Great Lakes Valley Conference All-Academic Team honors.

After college and prior to joining the Indians, Zawacki worked as a sponsorship sales intern with Pacers Sports and Entertainment and interned with the Brevard County Manatees in Melbourne, Fla., the High-A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers at the time.

Zawacki resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Ellen, and their two sons, Jack and Ethan.

Matt Guay

Assistant General Manager
Tickets & Operations

After 25 years with the Indians, Matt Guay has revolutionized goal setting for the team's ticket department.

Guay began with the Indians in 1999 as a ticket intern and has since climbed the ranks. In 2003, Guay was named director of ticket sales and immediately led his team in a 20 percent group sales increase when presented the challenge of boosting ticket sales.

In 2004, Guay was promoted to director of ticket operations and oversaw all ticket service representatives. After serving as the director of tickets for six years (2006-11), Guay now holds the title of assistant general manager - tickets and operations. In his current role, he is responsible for ticket sales and ticket service, along with all stadium operations, business operations, field operations and facility operations.

Through his career with the Indians, Guay has implemented daily sales goals, along with overall attendance and revenue goals, which have allowed the sales team to focus their attention on a tangible outcome. Under his leadership, the Indians surpassed 600,000 fans through the gates six consecutive years (2013-18). The team led Minor League Baseball in attendance three of those six seasons (2013, 2016-17). He helped the Indians rebound from the pandemic-impacted 2021 season to finish third overall out of 120 minor league teams in total attendance in 2022. In 2023, the Indians had the three biggest six-game homestand attendance totals in MiLB for the season while finishing fourth overall in average and total attendance.

Guay is an avid member of his community and has been volunteering in the Fall Creek Place area since 2007.

Guay is a Pittsburgh, Pa., native and graduated from the University of Dayton in 1998 with a degree in sport management. He lives in Indianapolis' Fall Creek Place neighborhood with his wife, Emily, and daughter, Audrey.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis: The Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis provide research based and nationally developed educational programs by Boys & Girls Clubs of America at 12 local Club locations. For the last 130 years, Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis has provided safe havens for Indianapolis youth in neighborhoods where they are needed most, ensuring the health and well-being of each person so they can thrive, grow and reach their full potential.

Brooke's Place: Brooke's Place is central Indiana's only organization that provides ongoing, peer-based, comprehensive grief support services for children and families following the death of a loved one. Indianapolis Indians Charities supported Camp Healing Tree, a weekend overnight camp for youth ages 7 to 17 with an objective to provide a safe environment for grieving children and teens to express their feelings.

50/50 Raffle: In April 2022, the Indianapolis Indians kicked off the organization's in-park 50/50 Raffle. For the 2023 season, nearly $67,000 was raised and allocated to Indy RBI. The 50/50 Raffle allows fans to win big while making a generous contribution to nonprofit efforts at the same time.

Forest Manor Park Renovation: A cherished tradition unlike any other, the Indians' dedicated staff embarked on a journey to Forest Manor Park to transform the ball diamonds and storage space into game-ready mode for Indy RBI ballplayers and staff to enjoy all summer. Park maintenance and cleanup, edged basepaths and repaired fencing, mounds and home plate circles were just a few of many tasks to breathe new life into the inner-city park.

Indiana Sports Corp and the USA Swimming Foundation: Indiana Sports Corp, in partnership with the USA Swimming Foundation, is working with the Local Organizing Committee and leaders of several organizations to continue the Foundation's mission of Saving Lives, Building Champions and Impacting Communities. Jersey auction proceeds benefit Indianapolis Indians Charities, and those funds are then directed to local nonprofits and charitable work in central Indiana.

KultureCity: KultureCity is the nation's leading nonprofit on sensory accessibility and acceptance for those with invisible disabilities. Indianapolis Indians Charities partnered with KultureCity and Damar to provide sensory certification training to all Indians full-time and part-time staff. Little Red Door Cancer Agency: Little Red Door is the oldest local cancer resource in central Indiana and works to reduce the physical, emotional and financial burdens of cancer for medically underserved Hoosiers.

Miami Nation of Indians of Indiana Scholarship Fund: The Miami Nation of Indians of Indiana has a mission to protect, promote, record and share the Miami Nation of Indiana's history, language, culture and heritage. On Aug. 11 during Native American Heritage Night, the Indianapolis Indians recognized the Miami Nation of Indiana with a land acknowledgement plaque dedication, educational opportunities for fans and honoring of Miami veterans. The Miami Nation of Indiana also performed drum and dance ceremonies before and during the game. As part of the partnership, Indianapolis Indians Charities will award $2,000 in scholarships annually to students from the Miami Nation of Indiana.

Nine13sports: Nine13sports was founded by a professional cyclist in 2012 as a nonprofit that uses cycling to encourage health and fitness for children of all ages and abilities. Graduates earned a new bicycle, helmet, lock and tool set as part of the program.

Shepherd Community Center: Since 1985, Shepherd Community has worked to break the cycle of poverty in Indianapolis. Indianapolis Indians Charities helped support programs through Continuum of Care, a full set of projects focused on continuously being engaged in the lives of children, teens and their parents.

Spark for Change: The Indians often recognize families, individuals and organizations who are sparking change in their communities. Indianapolis Indians Charities recognized its partners by giving them the opportunity to ignite the fireworks on select Friday nights at the ballpark.

Special Olympics Indiana: Special Olympics Indiana is a part of the movement to use sport, health, education and leadership programs to end discrimination against and empower people with intellectual disabilities. Softball is Special Olympics Indiana's fourth-most popular sport and promotes personal growth and development among its athletes, encourages active lifestyles and improves self-esteem among children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

SWING: Shortly after the conclusion of the 2023 season, Indianapolis Indians Charities introduced its inaugural signature fundraising event, SWING, to the public on Sept. 29. Traveling back in time to the 1930s, guests walked the red carpet, snapped photos at photo booths and danced on the field to live music under the stadium lights. Nearly 40 local restaurants were on hand serving upscale food and beverages, and VIPs had access to private clubs, a secret speakeasy, gaming hall and cigar lounge. SWING generated almost $370,000, with all proceeds funding Indianapolis Indians Charities' 2024 grant recipients.

TB3 Match Campaign: In partnership with the Indianapolis Indians, Indianapolis Indians Charities took a stand to strike out bullying during the May 16-21 homestand against the Iowa Cubs. The initiative honored 13-year-old Terry Badger III, a young baseball star from Covington, Ind., who tragically took his life because he was bullied at school. Indianapolis Indians Charities matched up to $4,400 of fan donations in recognition of the number 44 Terry III wore on the diamond. The Badger family was presented with a team-signed Indians jersey and anti-bullying pledge banner that included thousands of signatures from staff, fans and players, and was also recognized during a moment of silence, ceremonial first pitch, heroes of the game ceremony and postgame Spark for Change ceremony.

Teachers' Treasures: Teachers' Treasures obtains and distributes school supplies free to Marion County teachers of students living in poverty. Indianapolis Indians Charities helped support the implementation of Rowdie's Reading Corner, which obtained and distributed books representing a global assortment of languages, reading levels and cultures to teachers to provide for students throughout Marion County.

Indianapolis Indians Charities' contribution helped support TeenWorks' Summer and Pro Programs as well as Mock Interviews and Presentation Days, which are designed to offer teens summer employment, work experience and professional development training to prepare them for post-secondary opportunities.

JACKSONVILLE HISTORY

vs. Indianapolis

The Jacksonville Suns and Indianapolis Indians played each other during the 1963 season, the single season prior to 1998 that the Indians were in the International League. The results from that season are below.

In the International League

Jacksonville spent seven seasons in the International League from 1962-68, going through affiliations with the Indians, Cardinals and Mets. Future Hall of Famers Phil Niekro, Tom Seaver and Nolan Ryan all appeared with the Suns during this era, and the team took home one league title (1968).

In Double-A

A new Jacksonville team emerged in 1970 after there was no professional baseball in the city in 1969. The team rebranded to the Jacksonville Expos from 1985-90 and featured future Hall of Famers Randy Johnson and Larry Walker.

2023 REVIEW

2023 NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

SEASON IN REVIEW: Behind second-year manager Miguel Perez, the Indianapolis Indians' season was a tale of two halves in the International League's new regular-season format which pitted the first-half champion against the second-half champion in a best-of-three playoff series at the end of September. The Indians finished 70-78 overall, with a 33-41 record during the first half and 37-37 record in the second half. In the full-season standings, they finished tied with Gwinnett and Toledo for 12th in the 20-team International League, 19.5 games behind league-leading Norfolk. Their sub-.500 overall record marks Indy's fourth consecutive and ninth in 18 seasons as Pittsburgh's Triple-A affiliate dating back to 2005. In 74 games at Victory Field, the Indians went 37-37 for their first even .500 record at home since 2010 (36-36) and third since moving to the corner of West and Maryland in 1996.

FIRST HALF: The Indians finished 33-41 in the first half of the International League's split season, tied with Columbus, Syracuse and Toledo for 15th place and 15.0 games back of first-half champion Norfolk. During the first half (March 31-June 25), the Indians went 2-16 in one-run games and failed to record a win in their last at-bat (first last at-bat win came on June 30 at Louisville). After beginning the season on a four-game losing streak, Indy won five straight games at Louisville to climb to above .500 on April 9 for the first and only time during the first half. The first half was highlighted by a star-studded matchup of major league rehabbers in Game 1 of a doubleheader on May 20 vs. Iowa, when Pirates starter Vince Velasquez and Chicago Cubs' right-hander Kyle Hendricks took to the mound.

SECOND HALF: In the second half, the Indians finished an even 37-37 and tied with Toledo for 12th place, 10.5 games back of second-half champion Durham. In a flip from the first half of the season, the Indians went 12-5 in one-run games with 12 last at-bat wins and three walk-offs from June 28-Sept. 24, highlighted by Joshua Palacios' 466-foot walk-off homer on July 26 vs. Louisville for the longest Indians home run of the campaign. The Indians spent 40 days above .500 in the second half from June 30-Aug. 9, but after enduring a six-game losing streak from Aug. 4-11, they dropped to 17-19 and toed the .500 line for the remainder of the second half.

ATTENDANCE: In their 27th season at Victory Field, the Indians welcomed 556,775 fans through the gates, fourth-most among all 120 Minor League Baseball teams and trailing only Lehigh Valley, Columbus and Nashville. The average of 7,842 fans across 71 openings was also fourth in MiLB behind Lehigh Valley, Dayton and Columbus. On July 4, the Indians boasted a sellout attendance of 14,130, the highest single-game attendance in the International League and fourth-highest single-game attendance in the minors.

OH WOW, OFFENSE: The Indians offense boomed for one of its best seasons in team history. Categories in which the Indians matched or surpassed figures are listed below.

795 R - most since 1949 (838)	760 RBI - most since 1949 (770)	678 BB - most since 1949 (738)
1337 H - most since 2005 (1342)	.361 OBP - best since 1969 (.361)	.439 SLG - best since 2005 (.440)
160 HR - most since 1998 (160)	79 HR at Victory Field - most since 2005 (81)	81 HR on road - most since at least 2005

NO TRIPPING ON TRIPLES: For the sixth time in the last 12 seasons, the Indians led the International League with 42 triples. Nick Gonzales led the Indians and tied with Jacksonville's Jake Mangum for the league lead with eight three-baggers. In addition to Gonzales, 20 different Indians batters hit at least one triple over the course of the season.

RUN IT BACK, RUNS BATTED IN: Five Indians combined for nine total five-RBI performances in 2023, setting a Victory Field era record for the most individual performances of at least five RBI in a single season. Team MVP Miguel Andujár led the pack with three five-RBI performances, followed by Canaan Smith-Njigba (2), Joshua Palacios (2), Endy Rodríguez (1) and Nick Gonzales (1). Andujár became the first Indians batter with three five-RBI performances in a single season since Roberto Petagine in 1998. In addition, two pairs of Indians batters recorded five RBI in the same contest for the first time since Petagine and Paul Konerko in Game 1 of a doubleheader on Aug. 6, 1998, at Toledo. Andujár and Rodríguez each drove in five RBI on July 14 at Omaha, followed by Gonzales and Smith-Njigba on Sept. 19 vs. Rochester.

A CYCLE: With an eighth-inning single through the right-side of the infield off a position player pitching on Sept. 19 vs. Rochester, Nick Gonzales became the first Indians batter to hit for the cycle since Kevin Newman and Jacob Stallings did so in the same game on Aug. 7, 2018, vs. Lehigh Valley. The Indians second baseman went yard in the first inning and roped both a double and triple during an eight-run sixth inning before completing his first career cycle in the eighth. In total, he went 4-for-5 with four runs and five RBI. It was the seventh cycle by an Indian since 1996 and sixth to occur at the Vic.

19 RUNS ON SEPT. 19: On Sept. 19, the series opener to Indianapolis' final homestand vs. Rochester, the Indians boomed for a 19-1 win, recording its largest margin of victory ever at Victory Field and second largest since 1996 (20:21-1 on July 6, 2017, at Columbus). The Indians' 19 runs tied for the most scored at Victory Field (also: May 6, 2004, vs. Charlotte) and their 21 hits were the most since April 27, 2018, at Columbus (23) and the most at Victory Field since May 31, 2005, vs. Louisville (22). The offense was led by Nick Gonzales' first career cycle (see above note), Canaan Smith-Njigba's second four-hit, five-RBI game of the season (both in September) and a five-hit, four-RBI performance from Ryan Vilade.

I'M GONNA BE (500 MILES): The Indians offense drew at least one walk in their first 110 games, the longest streak in the International League to begin the season. After not recording a walk on Aug. 12 vs. Nashville, the Indians began a new streak and walked in each of their final 37 contests. In total, the Indians walked 678 times, which ranked 14th-most in the International League.

UP AND DOWN, UP AND DOWN: The Indians saw 79 total players come through the Circle City in 2023, 43 pitchers and 36 position players with utilityman Josh Bissonette taking the mound as Indy's only position player to throw a pitch. There was plenty of up-and-down movement, with 14 major league rehab assignments and a Pirates affiliation-high tying 12 major league debuts (see individual notes below) contributing to a franchise-record 264 total transactions. Sixty-four transactions came in August, the most during a single month all season.

STRIKE 'EM OUT: Forty-two Indianapolis Indians pitchers combined to rack up 1,317 strikeouts over 148 games in 2023, setting a new franchise record for the third time in the past four seasons. The Indians' pitching staff also set a franchise record in average strikeouts per game (8.898). One decade ago, the franchise record stood at 1,153 over 144 games in 2013; the record held until 2019 (140 G, 1,244 K) and was broken again in 2022 (149 G, 1,256 K).

ROLLING IN THE 'PEN: In the age of the opener, three Indians pitchers entered out of the bullpen to strike out at least nine batters and set a new Victory Field era record for strikeouts in relief. On April 16 vs. St. Paul, Osvaldo Bido tossed 5.0 innings in relief with nine strikeouts, the most strikeouts by a reliever at that point since 1996. Kyle Nicolas and Quinn Priester then matched that mark on June 30 at Louisville and Aug. 25 vs. Iowa, respectively. The first double-digit strikeout game by a reliever came on Sept. 7 vs. Toledo, when Priester tossed 5.2 innings with 10 strikeouts to earn the win.

HEY NOW, Q'S AN ALL-STAR: Right-handed pitcher Quinn Priester shut down opposing batters during a career-high winning streak and finished the 2023 season among league leaders in wins (F-3rd, 9) and strikeouts (5th, 116) to be named to the International League postseason All-Star team. In 22 games (20 starts), he went 9-4 with a 4.00 ERA (48er/108.0ip). From May 4-Aug. 25, he logged a career-high seven-game winning streak and ranked among league qualifiers in ERA (2nd, 3.04), batting average against (3rd, .233) and WHIP (6th, 1.25) during the stretch in which he made 15 appearances (14 starts).

CSN IN SEPTEMBER: Canaan Smith-Njigba put together his best month of the season in September to be named the International League's Player of the Month in addition to winning the Indians monthly award. He led the league with a .417 batting average (30-for-72), nine doubles and 24 RBI while also ranking among qualifiers in hits (2nd), total bases (T-3rd, 45), stolen bases (T-3rd, 7), OPS (5th, 1.100), on-base percentage (6th, .475), slugging percentage (T-7th, .625) and extra-base hits (T-7th, 11). He logged a pair of career-high tying four-hit, five-RBI performances on Sept. 5 vs. Toledo and Sept. 19 vs. Rochester. Smith-Njigba is just the fourth Indian to earn an IL Player of the Month honor since Indianapolis re-joined the league in 1998, joining left-hander Zach Duke (May 2005), utilityman Alen Hanson (May 2015) and José Osuna (April 2018). He was a spark for success in the win column, too; the Indians went 24-5 when he had two-plus hits, 16-0 when he recorded two-plus RBI and 13-1 in games in which he homered.

WE GOT HIM: Henry Davis, the Pirates' No. 1 overall selection in the 2021 First-Year Player Draft, was promoted from Double-A Altoona to Indianapolis on June 6 and became the fourth former No. 1 overall pick to play with the Indians in franchise history, following right-handed pitchers Tim Lincecum (1983 No. 1 overall, pitched for Indy in 1995), Bryan Bullington (2002 No. 1 overall, pitched for Indy in 2005, 2007-08) and Gerrit Cole (2011 No. 1 overall, pitched for Indy in 2012-14, 2016). The catcher-turned-right fielder hit .286 (10-for-35) with three doubles, one triple, one home run, three RBI, eight walks and a .946 OPS in 10 games before having his contract selected by Pittsburgh on June 19.

WEEKLY AWARDS: Four Indians received the International League's weekly award over the course of the season, three Players of the Week and one Pitcher of the Week. It is the most league weekly awards for the Indians since 2019 (five, four pitchers and one position player). All four players, stats from their respective outstanding weeks and rankings among International League qualifiers (unless otherwise noted) are listed below:

April 4-9 - Infielder Tucupita Marcano led all professional baseball players with five doubles in five games at Louisville. In the International League, he paced qualifiers with a .526 batting average (10-for-19), 1.053 slugging percentage, 1.603 OPS and seven extra-base hits. He also tied for the league lead in hits, total bases (20) and runs (seven). On April 7, he roped a Victory Field era-tying three doubles for the first time since Josh Bell on June 11, 2016.

April 25-30 - Outfielder Joshua Palacios paced all of professional baseball with 13 RBI, a 1.389 slugging percentage and staggering 2.056 OPS in five games vs. Columbus. He also ranked among minor league leaders in home runs (T-2nd, 4), extra-base hits (T-2nd, 7), batting average (3rd, .556), total bases (3rd, 25) and on-base percentage (T-3rd, .667). His four home runs for the week tied with four others for the most in the International League. His week was highlighted by two career-high five-RBI performances, the first of his career, to bookend the torrid five-game stretch.

May 2-7 - Southpaw Caleb Smith pitched the first complete-game shutout in all of minor league baseball of 2023, a 7.0-inning feat in Game 2 of a doubleheader at Toledo on May 3. In his brilliant outing, he allowed only three baserunners on three hits with five strikeouts. It was the first complete-game shutout thrown by an Indian since James Marvel on July 5, 2019 (2), vs. Toledo.

Sept. 18-24 - Outfielder Ryan Vilade led the IL with 14 hits over the final week of the season, second-most in all of professional baseball behind Sugar Land's Will Wagner (15). He also ranked among league qualifiers in doubles (T-1st, 3), batting average (2nd, .538), total bases (T-2nd, 20), RBI (T-3rd, 9), on-base percentage (T-5th, .571), OPS (8th, 1.340) and extra-base hits (T-8th, 4).

TEAM PLAYERS OF THE MONTH: The Indians selected six players of the month throughout the 2023 season, recognized from April through September. MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUTS: The Indians sent 12 players to Pittsburgh for their major league debuts during the 2023 season, which is tied with 2016 for the most since Indianapolis became a Pirates affiliate in 2005. Seven of the 12 were added to Pittsburgh's active roster in a span of 33 days between June 14 and July 17, an average of one debut every five days. That stretch culminated in the long-awaited MLB debuts of two Pirates top prospects, right-handed pitcher Quinn Priester and catcher Endy Rodríguez, who became the first Pirates starting battery to debut together since 1943 and the first starting pitcher-catcher duo in MLB history to both be born in the year 2000 or later. END OF SECOND HALF -- DURHAM (48-27, .640) CLINCHED SECOND-HALF TITLE

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER: MIGUEL ANDÚJAR

Outfielder and first baseman Miguel Andújar was one of the IL's best hitters during the heart of his 2023 campaign, which led to him having his contract selected by Pittsburgh for the second time on Sept. 1. At the time of his return to the big leagues, he ranked among league qualifiers in RBI (2nd, 86), batting average (3rd, .338), hits (3rd, 140), total bases (4th, 222), OPS (4th, .940), slugging percentage (5th, .536), doubles (T-6th, 30), on-base percentage (8th, .404) and extra-base hits (T-8th, 48) in 103 games with Indy. From May 24-June 18, he logged a career-high 20-game hitting streak, tied with Todd Haney (1991) for the fifth-longest hitting streak in franchise history. He finished the season with the highest league qualifying batting average by an Indian since Junior Noboa hit .340 to lead the American Association in 1989 and highest league qualifying OPS by an Indian since Roberto Petagine (1.053) and Mark P. Johnson (.992) in 1998. His 86 RBI were also the most in a single season by an Indian since Brandon Moss had 96 in 2010.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR: QUINN PRIESTER

Right-handed pitcher Quinn Priester logged a career-high seven-game winning streak from May 4-Aug. 25 to sandwich his major league debut on July 17 and first of two stints with Pittsburgh. His season was highlighted by a pair of double-digit strikeout performances. On June 24 vs. Columbus, he fanned a season-high 11 batters across 6.0 shutout innings, the most by an Indian in a single outing this season.

RELIEVER OF THE YEAR: HUNTER STRATTON

Right-handed pitcher Hunter Stratton appeared in 47 total games (two starts) with Indianapolis and went 4-4 with a 3.99 ERA (25er/56.lip) and 74 strikeouts. He led all Indians relievers in strikeouts and tied with Colin Selby for the team lead with six saves. He had his contract selected by Pittsburgh on Sept. 4 after logging a 13.1-inning streak without allowing an earned run from Aug. 1-Sept. 2. During that streak, he registered a 0.60 WHIP and .070 batting average against (3-for-43).

GOLD GLOVE: RYAN VILADE

Outfielder Ryan Vilade consistently made highlight-reel grabs in the Victory Field outfield this season. He primarily saw time in center field, where he compiled a .984 fielding percentage (two errors in 123 total chances) in 65 games (58 starts). He committed just two errors in 180 total chances (.989) spanning 104 games (93 starts) in the outfield. On June 25 vs. Columbus, Vilade made a leaping over-the-shoulder snag that came in at No. 3 on ESPN SportsCenter Top 10. The catch came nine days after he made a full-extension diving grab in left-center at Iowa, and throughout the season continued to pad his highlight reel with catches to rob batters of base hits.

COMMUNITY CHAMPION: JOSH BISSONETTE

Infielder Josh Bissonette consistently served the Indianapolis community not only during the 2023 season but in his entire tenure as an Indian. While splitting time between Indianapolis' active roster and development list, he volunteered to catch numerous pregame first pitches and participated in two Q&A sessions with students from the Indianapolis area. Bissonette was also part of the first post-pandemic group of Indians players to visit and participate in an Indy Thunder Beep Ball practice for the visually impaired. He learned how the Thunder play baseball with a Beep Ball and engaged with the players by wearing a blindfold while at the plate and running the bases.

UNSUNG HEROES: CHRIS OWINGS & CAM ALLRED

Outfielder Chris Owings and left-handed pitcher Cam Allred were distinct leaders in the Indianapolis clubhouse. Off the field, their veteran presence was second to none, leading their respective groups by example and showing young players what it's like to be a professional each day. They both filled various on-field roles asked of them on a daily basis, with Owings appearing at five defensive positions over the course of the season and Allred splitting the campaign between the starting rotation and bullpen.

Greensboro began the season with a 36-28 first-half record, just 2.0 games back of clinching a postseason berth. The Grasshoppers' roster featured two of Pittsburgh's top 30 prospects (according to Baseball America) for most of the season, with shortstop Tsung-Che Cheng (No. 7) and DH Jase Bowen (No. 27) both being named to the SAL postseason All-Star team.

KINGHAM SILENCES BULLS

Trailing Durham 2-0 in the best-of-five 2017 Governors' Cup semifinals, Indians right-hander Nick Kingham delivered a clutch performance at Victory Field to extend the series one more day. He held the Bulls scoreless over seven innings of four-hit ball, propelling Indy to its first playoff shutout at the Vic, 5-0.

VICTORY FIELD SUITE RECOGNITION

Napoleon Lajoie (1918) - Suite 301

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Philadelphia Phillies (1896-1900), Philadelphia Athletics (1901-02, 1915-16)
Cleveland Bronchos (1902), Cleveland Naps (1903-14)

On the heels of a 21-year major league career, Nap Lajoie (LAJ-way) came to Indianapolis and served as player-manager for the club in 1918. He hit .282 and led the Indians to a 41-34 record, but the season was shortened by the United States' involvement in World War I. Lajoie won the American League Triple Crown in 1901, led the AL in batting average five times (1901-04, 1910) and joined Cap Anson and Honus Wagner as the only MLB players with 3,000 career hits on Sept. 27, 1914. His popularity in Cleveland led to the organization changing its name from the Bronchos to the Naps. He is among MLB's all-time hits leaders and was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1937.

Vern Rapp (1969-75) - Suite 302

MLB TEAMS MANAGED

St. Louis Cardinals (1977-78), Cincinnati Reds (1984)

After spending all or parts of 16 minor league seasons as a catcher in the Cardinals, Yankees, Giants, Tigers and Expos organizations, Vern Rapp became a minor league manager for 15 years, seven of them with Indianapolis. He skipped the Indians to American Association East Division titles in 1971 and 1974. His 1971 club led the AA in ERA (3.01), fewest hits allowed (1,084) and fielding percentage (.976) over 140 contests. His second division-winning squad repeated what made the 1971 team successful, again leading the league in ERA (3.81), fewest hits allowed (1,024) and fielding percentage (.971). He ranks second on Ind's all-time managerial wins list with 513 career victories, and his .532 winning percentage is second to only Dean Treanor's .545 clip among Indians managers with 400-plus wins. Rapp managed his hometown Cardinals to an 83-79 record in 1977 ahead of an early-season dismissal in 1978. He returned to the big leagues as manager of the Reds in 1984 and accumulated 140 total wins at the game's highest level.

Randy Johnson (1988-89) - Suite 303

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Montreal Expos (1988-89), Seattle Mariners (1989-98), Houston Astros (1998)
Arizona Diamondbacks (1999-2004, 2007-08), New York Yankees (2005-06), San Francisco Giants (2009)

Nicknamed "The Big Unit" due to his imposing 6-foot-10 presence on the mound, Randy Johnson's career is undoubtedly the most illustrious among former Indians players. The left-handed fireballer reached triple digits with his fastball early in his career, going a combined 9-8 with a 3.08 ERA in 23 games during Indianapolis' 1988 and 1989 American Association championship seasons. With Seattle, Johnson was a 1990 American League All-Star and took off in 1992 by striking out an AL-high 241 batters. A year later Johnson fanned a league-best 308 batters, the first of a record six 300-plus strikeout campaigns. He earned four more AL All-Star selections (1993-95, 1997) with Seattle and his first Cy Young Award in 1995 after leading the AL in ERA (2.48) and strikeouts (294). In 1997 with the Mariners, he recorded his first of three career 20-win campaigns while helping guide Seattle to the postseason for a second time. Johnson was then traded to Houston at the July deadline in 1998 and went 10-1 down the stretch to lift the Astros into the playoffs. The superstar talent later earned a spot in the desert with the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he won four straight National League Cy Young Awards (1999-2002) and was elected to five NL All-Star Teams (1999-2002, 2004). He led the NL in ERA three times (1999, 2001-02) and strikeouts five times (1999-2002, 2004), including a career-high 372 during Arizona's run to the 2001 World Series championship, of which he was named MVP. Earlier that season, he tossed the fourth 20-strikeout game by an individual in baseball history. He won the NL Triple Crown (24 wins, 2.32 ERA, 334 strikeouts) in 2002 and finished second in the 2004 NL Cy Young race, a season where he tossed the 17th perfect game in baseball history to become the oldest ever to accomplish the feat, doing so at age 40 and breaking a century-old record set by Cy Young himself in 1904. Johnson's last 22 seasons was highlighted by his 300th career win, making him the 24th member of the 300-win club. He ended his career with 303 total victories, a lifetime 3.29 ERA and 4,875 strikeouts, a total that trails only Nolan Ryan. He was inducted into the Mariners Hall of Fame in 2012, and three years later, his No. 51 jersey was retired by the D-backs just months after he became a first-ballot Hall of Famer.

Norman A. Perry Sr. (1929-41) - Suite 304

The mastermind behind the construction of Perry Stadium (later known as Victory Field from 1942-67 and Bush Stadium from 1967-96), Norman Perry Sr. has multiple ties to the rich history of Indianapolis. The Perry family owned and operated the Indianapolis Light & Heat Company, today known as the Indianapolis Power & Light Company. The light towers at Washington Park (located in place of the Indianapolis Zoo) were provided by the Perry family, which were eventually moved to the Indians' new stadium in 1931. Perry Sr. named the ballpark Perry Stadium in honor of his late brother James, who bought the Indians in 1927 but was killed in a plane crash two years later. Following the tragic death, Perry Sr. took the reins as owner of the team up until selling the franchise to Owen "Donie" Bush and Frank E. McKinney in 1941.

Orestes "Minnie" Miñoso (1964) - Suite 305

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Cleveland Indians (1949, 1951, 1958-59), Chicago White Sox (1951-57, 1960-61, 1964, 1976, 1980)
St. Louis Cardinals (1962), Washington Senators (1963)

On the heels of 14 successful major league seasons, 38-year-old Minnie Miñoso hit .264 in 52 games for an 89-win Indianapolis squad. His baseball career began in 1946 with the New York Cubans in the Negro Leagues, and he eventually signed with Cleveland in 1948 after baseball's color barrier began to fade. Miñoso consistently ranked among American League leaders, topping the AL in stolen bases (1951-53) and triples three times (1951, 1954, 1956) each and doubles (1957) and hits (1960) once apiece. The nine-time All-Star (1951-54, 1957, 1959-60 [2x both years]) and three-time Gold Glove Award winner (1957, 1959-60) finished fourth in AL MVP voting four times (1951, 1953-54, 1960) and led the AL in times hit by pitch a record 10 seasons. He was the first black Cuban in major league history and first black player in White Sox history. He joined the South Siders as a coach in the early '70s and made highly publicized game appearances in 1976 and 1980 at ages 50 and 54. Miñoso became the third player in baseball history over the age of 50 to notch a hit in the big leagues and the second ever to play in the majors across five different decades. The White Sox retired his No. 9 jersey in 1983 and unveiled a statue of him at U.S. Cellular Field in 2004. He was inducted into the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996 and became the 13th former Indy Indian elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 14 votes from the 16-member Golden Days Era Committee in December 2021.

Andrew McCutchen (2007-09) - Suite 306

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Pittsburgh Pirates (2009-17), San Francisco Giants (2018), New York Yankees (2018), Philadelphia Phillies (2019-21), Milwaukee Brewers (2022)

Selected by the Pirates 11th overall in the 2005 MLB June Amateur Draft, Andrew McCutchen lived up to the hype on his way through Circle City. Following a brief 17-game showing in 2007, McCutchen paced the 2008 Indians in batting average (.283), hits (145), doubles (26) and OPS (.770) while finishing second in stolen bases (34). He played for Indy again in 2009 and led the club with eight triples, despite only appearing in 49 games. McCutchen broke into the majors with Pittsburgh in 2009 and became a five-time National League All-Star (2011-15), four-time Silver Slugger (2012-15), Gold Glove Award winner (2012) and MVP (2013). He led the NL with 194 hits in 2012 and batted .317 with 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases during his MVP campaign. McCutchen posted 20-plus home runs and 79 or more RBI in each of his final seven years with the Pirates. He was presented with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2015, given annually to an MLB player who "best represents the game of baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field."

Roger Maris (1956) - Suite 307

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Cleveland Indians (1957-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-59), New York Yankees (1960-66), St. Louis Cardinals (1967-68)

Before churning out 12 seasons in the major leagues, Roger Maris helped lead Indianapolis to the American Association pennant, championship and Junior World Series title in 1956. Just 21 years old, Maris batted .293 with 17 home runs, 75 RBI and a team-high 20 doubles in 131 games for the Indians. In Game 2 of Indy's 4-0 sweep of Rochester in the Junior World Series, Maris belted two home runs as part of a record seven-RBI performance. He earned his big league debut with Cleveland in 1957 and made four American League All-Star nods from 1959-62. After being traded from the Kansas City Athletics to the New York Yankees following the 1959 season, Maris won back-to-back AL MVP Awards in 1960 and '61. He led the AL in RBI both years and set the single-season home run record with 61 blasts in 1961, breaking Babe Ruth's record of 60 set in 1927. Maris' record lasted 37 years, until both Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa surpassed the feat in 1998. The left-handed-hitting right fielder appeared in seven World Series, five with the Yankees (1960-64) and two with the Cardinals (1967-68), winning rings in 1961, '62 and '67. Maris' No. 9 was retired by the Yankees on July 21, 1984. A little over a year later, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma took his life in December 1985.

Ken Griffey (1973-74) - Suite 308

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Cincinnati Reds (1973-81, 1988-90), New York Yankees (1982-86), Atlanta Braves (1986-88), Seattle Mariners (1990-91)

Well before making history with his son Ken Griffey Jr., Ken Griffey had a successful 19-year major league career of his own. He was the Indians' Team MVP and American Association Rookie of the Year in 1973 after hitting .327 with 10 home runs, 58 RBI and 43 stolen bases. Griffey then hit .333 in 43 contests with Indy the following year and later won World Series rings in 1975 and 1976 with Cincinnati as part of The Big Red Machine. Griffey was a three-time National League All-Star (1976-77, 1980) and won the game's MVP Award in 1980. A decade later, he closed out his career in Seattle playing alongside his son. On Aug. 31, 1990, they became the first father-son teammates in MLB history. Griffey hit second, followed by his son Griffey Jr., and both singled in their first at-bats of the game. Two weeks later, the duo further etched themselves in baseball history by becoming the first father-son combination — and only to this date — to hit back-to-back home runs. Griffey was inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame in 2004 and is the only player in Reds history to play for three Reds World Champion teams.

Don Zimmer (1968) - Suite 313

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Brooklyn Dodgers (1954-57), Los Angeles Dodgers (1958-59, 1963), Chicago Cubs (1960-61)
New York Mets (1962), Cincinnati Reds (1962), Washington Senators (1963-65)

MLB TEAMS MANAGED

San Diego Padres (1972-73), Boston Red Sox (1976-80), Texas Rangers (1981-82), Chicago Cubs (1988-91)

Don Zimmer spent 66 of his 83 years either playing, coaching or managing professional baseball. One of those 66 years came as skipper of the 1968 Indianapolis Indians, a team that was led by eventual Kansas City Royals All-Star Hal McRae. Zimmer played a combined 12 seasons for six major league organizations, winning two World Series rings with the Dodgers (1955, 1959) before earning a National League All-Star bid with the Chicago Cubs in 1961. His first taste of managing came in 1967 before coming through Indy the following year. He broke into the majors as a manager in 1972 and won 90-plus games with the Boston Red Sox three straight seasons (1977-79). His lone managerial playoff appearance came in 1989 when he guided the Cubs to a 93-69 record and NLCS appearance, eventually receiving the NL Manager of the Year Award. Zimmer was a bench coach for the New York Yankees for four of their World Series titles (1996, 1998-2000) and was later inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2010. Every year, Zimmer increased his jersey number one digit to match his years spent in professional baseball. After working 11 seasons with the Tampa Bay Rays from 2004 to 2014, his last jersey—No. 66—was officially retired by the Rays in 2015.

Michael A. Carroll - Suite 314

On Sept. 11, 1992, four Indianapolis business and civic leaders were killed when two small planes collided. The leaders were en route to Columbus, Ohio, for a flower show with hopes of learning how to beautify White River State Park. Michael A. Carroll, Vice President of Community Affairs for Lilly Endowment Inc. and a former Deputy Mayor and special assistant to Senator Richard Lugar and Dan Quayle when he served in the Senate, was among the four leaders who died. Frank E. McKinney Jr., a former Indiana University swimming champion, Olympic gold medalist and retired CEO of Bank One Indiana, also died in the crash, along with former Indiana lottery director John Weliver and White River State Park Commission Executive Director Bob Welch. Among Carroll's greatest achievements was helping bring the Pan American Games to Indianapolis in 1987, held at the venue named in honor of him. In addition to the 1987 Pan Am Games and 1988 Olympic Team Trials, the Michael A. Carroll Track & Soccer Stadium has hosted IUPLI athletics, the 2006 and 2007 USA Track and Field Championships, the IHSAA Lacrosse and Soccer State Championships and Indy Eleven soccer.

Joe Sparks (1986-88) - Suite 315

A minor league manager for all or parts of 20 seasons, Joe Sparks delivered nothing but championships during his three-year stretch as Indianapolis' skipper. In his first season at the helm the Indians went 80-62 and defeated Denver in a best-of-seven series, 4-3, to claim the first of four straight American Association titles for the club. His squad finished third in the eight-team division the following year but bounced Louisville 3-2 in the opening round of the playoffs before again trouncing Denver for the AA championship, 4-1. Sparks' 1988 campaign featured 89 wins, another AA pennant and championship, and Triple-A Classic title over Rochester. He was named AA Manager of the Year in each of his three seasons with Indy, in addition to 1988 Minor League Manager of the Year honors. Sparks never reached the majors in his 13 seasons as a player, but he did have four separate one-year MLB coaching stints with the Chicago White Sox (1979), Cincinnati Reds (1984), Montreal Expos (1989) and New York Yankees (1990). He closed out his career in baseball as an advance scout for the St. Louis Cardinals (1996-2003) and Oakland Athletics (2005-08).

Rocky Colavito (1954-55) - Suite 316

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Cleveland Indians (1955-59, 1965-67), Detroit Tigers (1960-63), Kansas City Athletics (1964)
Chicago White Sox (1967), Los Angeles Dodgers (1968), New York Yankees (1968)

An eventual Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers slugger, Rocky Colavito first showcased his raw power with the Indians in 1954 and '55. At age 20, he set the Indianapolis single-season home run record with 38 long balls. His power lifted the Indians to an American Association pennant and championship appearance. The young corner outfielder followed that campaign with a 30-home run output in 1955. His 68 career homers for the Indians place him in a tie for third among Indy's all-time home run leaders. Colavito would later crush 374 career home runs over 14 big league seasons, eight spent in Northeast Ohio. He finished second in the 1956 American League Rookie of the Year voting and was third in votes for AL MVP two years later. In 1959, Colavito smacked 42 home runs and finished atop the AL home run chart with another former Indianapolis Indian, Harmon Killebrew of the Washington Senators. A trade to the Tigers just days before Opening Day in 1960 caused an uproar amongst Indians fans, who voiced their displeasure by starting a "Don't Knock the Rock" campaign. Colavito earned a total of six AL All-Star bids (1959, 1961-62, 1964-66) before his playing days ended following the 1968 season. Colavito, alongside former Indianapolis player-manager Al López and pitcher Herb Score, was inducted into the Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame in 2006.

Bob Uecker (1960) - Suite 342

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Milwaukee Braves (1962-63), St. Louis Cardinals (1964-65), Philadelphia Phillies (1966-67), Atlanta Braves (1967)

While Milwaukee native Bob Uecker only appeared in eight games for the Indians in 1960 and was a lifetime .200 hitter over six major league seasons, he did play for his hometown team, won a World Series with the Cardinals in 1964 and hit three of his 14 career home runs off future Hall of Famers Sandy Koufax, Gaylord Perry and Fergie Jenkins. Uecker caught his break when he became a regular guest on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show, on which the famous TV host branded Uecker the nickname "Mr. Baseball." Uecker became a radio broadcaster of the Milwaukee Brewers in 1971 and was part of ABC and NBC Major League Baseball broadcasts in the 1970s and 1990s. In 1989, Uecker's part-time acting career landed him a prominent role as Cleveland broadcaster Harry Doyle in the Major League film trilogy. Uecker was on the call for Robin Yount's 3,000th career hit on Sept. 9, 1992, one of many iconic broadcasting moments in his legendary career. In 2003, he was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award in recognition of his broadcasting career, and his catchphrase home run call "Get up! Get up! Get outta here! Gone!" resonates with Brewers and baseball fans across the country.

Owen J. "Donie" Bush (1908, 1924-26, 1941-52, 1955-69) - Suite 345

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Detroit Tigers (1908-21), Washington Senators (1921-23)

MLB TEAMS MANAGED

Washington Senators (1923), Pittsburgh Pirates (1927-29), Chicago White Sox (1930-31), Cincinnati Reds (1933)

One of the original 16 members inducted into the Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame in 1979, Indianapolis native Donie Bush contributed significantly to Indians baseball, both on and off the field. Prior to being honored as the "King of Baseball" at Major League Baseball's 1963 Winter Meetings, Bush was a player, manager, president and owner of the Indians at various points of his career. He first suited up for the Indians in 1908 and helped lead the team to a 92-61 record and American Association pennant. Bush made his MLB debut that year in Detroit, where he led the American League in walks five times (1909-12, 1914) and finished third in the 1914 AL MVP race. Bush was a nightmare on the basepaths as well, swiping 30-plus bags eight times in his career (1909-15, 1917). At age 35 in 1923, he served as a player-manager for the Washington Senators before returning to Indy in 1924. He managed the Indians to three straight 90-plus win seasons in the American Association and even took the field briefly in both 1924 and 1926. Bush's managerial success earned him the same gig with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1927, and he didn't disappoint in leading the Buccos to a 94-60 record and World Series berth. He skippered another five years in the big leagues before an opportunity arose with his hometown club. In 1941, Bush and Frank E. McKinney bought the Indianapolis Indians from Norman Perry Sr., and Bush became co-owner and president as a result. For the entire 1943 season and part of 1944, Bush maintained his front office roles while returning to the dugout as field manager. In total, he piloted 497 wins in the major leagues and 365 victories for Indy. After Bush stepped down as Indianapolis' president and sold his remaining club ownership rights to the Cleveland Indians, he became a scout for the Boston Red Sox from 1953-55. Bush made a fourth and final return to the Indians in Nov. 1955, becoming president through January 1969. In 1967, old Victory Field was renamed Bush Stadium in honor of Indianapolis' "Mr. Baseball." Bush's baseball career continued as a scout for the Chicago White Sox until he passed at age 84 in March 1972.

Ted Beard (1947-51, 1956-63) - Suite 346

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Pittsburgh Pirates (1948-52), Chicago White Sox (1957-58)

The longest-tenured position player in franchise history, Ted Beard unsurprisingly ranks among all-time Indians leaders in numerous offensive categories. His defense was superb as well; following a two-game stint in 1947, Indianapolis fans nicknamed him "The Arm" after he recorded 31 outfield assists in his first full season. He quickly became a favorite among his teammates and fans with his hustle. At just 5-foot-8 and 165 pounds, Beard led the 1948 American Association in triples (17), walks (128) and runs scored (131), helping guide Indy to the pennant and the franchise's lone 100-win season. One year later, he drew a single-season record 132 walks while propelling the team to its third American Association championship and first Junior World Series title. The scrappy talent spent parts of seven seasons in the big leagues, and one of his six career major league homers is still remembered to this day. What Beard would later describe as "a mistake" because he rarely hit home runs at all, the left-handed hitter became the second of 10 players ever to hit a home run over the 86-foot-high right field roof at Forbes Field in 1950. Fifteen years prior, Babe Ruth was the first to accomplish the feat, doing so on his last of 714 career home runs. Beard is Indy's all-time leader in career walks (707) and ranks in the top five in triples (2nd), runs scored (2nd), doubles (4th) and hits (5th). He also managed the club for half of the 1960 season and admirably served as an Army medic in the Pacific theatre of World War II.

George Foster (1973) - Suite 351

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

San Francisco Giants (1969-71), Cincinnati Reds (1971-81), New York Mets (1982-86), Chicago White Sox (1986)

George Foster was a feared right-handed slugger from the mid-1970s to the mid-80s. At age 23, Foster appeared for the Reds in Games 1 and 5 of the 1972 World Series against Oakland but did not receive an at-bat. He returned to the minors the following year and hit .262 with 15 home runs, 26 doubles and 60 RBI for Indianapolis. Foster finally hit his stride in 1976 with his first of four straight National League All-Star selections, even winning MVP of the All-Star Game. The California native hit 29 home runs and drove in an NL-high 121 RBI that year, helping The Big Red Machine to its second consecutive World Series title while finishing second in the NL MVP race behind Reds teammate Joe Morgan. In 1977 Foster exploded with major league-highs in home runs (52), RBI (149), total bases (388) and slugging percentage (.631) to win NL MVP, and his 1978 season saw him again lead the NL in RBI (120). In his last season with the Reds, Foster earned his fifth and final All-Star bid, won a Silver Slugger Award and finished third in the MVP race. He split his last of 18 MLB seasons between the Mets and White Sox, with New York awarding him a World Series ring following their 1986 Championship. Overall, Foster had 10 seasons with 20-plus home runs and seven with 90 or more RBI. He was inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame in 2003.

During his youth, Mordecai Brown got the nickname "Three Finger" when he lost parts of two fingers on his right hand in a farming accident. Raised 60 miles west of Indianapolis in Nyesville, Ind., Brown used his accident as an advantage when playing baseball. The movement on his pitches was second to none in the early 1900s, including a curveball that Detroit Tigers legend Ty Cobb dubbed as "the most deceiving and most devastating pitch he ever faced." Brown led the majors with a 1.04 ERA in 1906 before leading the Chicago Cubs to back-to-back World Series titles in 1907 and 1908. During his 29-win 1908 campaign, he became the first pitcher in MLB history to toss four consecutive shutouts. Brown pitched for Indianapolis in 1919 at age 42 and was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1949.

Larry Walker (1989) - Suite 353

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Montreal Expos (1989-94), Colorado Rockies (1995-2004), St. Louis Cardinals (2004-05)

Larry Walker was a key contributor to Indianapolis' run at a fourth straight American Association championship and second consecutive Triple-A Classic title in 1989. He batted .270 with 12 home runs, 59 RBI and a team-best 36 stolen bases for the 89-57 squad. The 22-year-old Canadian broke into the majors that season with the Montreal Expos. His 1992 campaign featured a National League All-Star bid, Gold Glove and Silver Slugger Award. Another Gold Glove honor in 1993 preceded an NL-high 44 doubles in 1994 before his career took off in Colorado. He became the first Canadian to win an MVP, doing so in 1997 behind a league-best and career-high 49 homers. Walker added four more All-Star selections (1997-99, 2001), five Gold Gloves (1997-99, 2001-02) and two Silver Sluggers (1997, 1999) with the Rockies. He was a three-time MLB batting champion while in Colorado (1998-99, 2001) and peaked with a .379 average to close out the 20th century, becoming just the fifth player since 1940 to hit .379 or higher in a single season. He finished his playing career with St. Louis, appearing in two postseasons. Walker carried St. Louis to a World Series appearance in 2004 against Boston and set the franchise record for most home runs by a left-handed hitter in postseason play with six. In the series opener, his four-hit performance made him the seventh Cardinals player and first since Lou Brock in 1969 to record four knocks in a World Series game. Following retirement, Walker served as hitting coach of the Canadian national team in multiple World Baseball Classics. On Jan. 21, 2020, and in his 10th and final year on the BBWAA Hall of Fame ballot, Walker was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame alongside first-ballot Hall of Famer Derek Jeter.

Razor Shines (1984-89, 1991-93) - Suite 355

Montreal Expos (1983-85, 1987)

A name synonymous with Indianapolis Indians baseball, Razor Shines played in over 800 games for the Indians across nine seasons. While he only saw major league action in parts of four seasons, Shines played a huge role in guiding Indianapolis to American Association dominance throughout the 1980s. His best season with Indy came in 1984 when he had 26 doubles, 18 home runs and 80 RBI, but the Indians fell short in their AA Championship Series against Louisville. Shines then led the Indians to three AA pennants (1986, 1988-89) and four straight AA championships (1986-89). Overall, his longevity and success placed him among Indy's all-time leaders in home runs (1-3rd), RBI (4th) and doubles (5th), and he contributed to 10 championships won by the Indians, more than any player in franchise history. He was a player-hitting coach for Indy in 1993, a season that culminated with Razor Shines Day on Sept. 4 at Bush Stadium, and later attended the final game played at Bush Stadium on July 3, 1996, along with the first game at Victory Field on July 11, 1996. Shines coached and managed for various minor league teams up through 2015 and held MLB positions in 2007 as third base coach of the White Sox and first base coach for the Mets from 2009-10. The Indians welcomed Shines to Victory Field in 2019 during Fan Appreciation Weekend, and at the end of the 2024 season will retire his No. 3, the first former player in Indians history to have his number retired.

Dave Concepción (1969) - Suite 356

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Cincinnati Reds (1970-88)

Originally drafted by Cincinnati as a pitcher, Dave Concepción became one of the Reds' and National League's greatest all-time shortstops. Before spending each of his 19 major league seasons in Cincy, Concepción played in 42 games and batted .341 for the Indians in 1969. He made his MLB debut the following year at age 22 and earned his first NL All-Star bid in 1973. Despite missing the All-Star cut in 1974, he did manage to steal a career-high 41 bases while winning his first Gold Glove Award. Concepción then reeled off eight consecutive All-Star selections from 1975-82, also winning four additional Gold Glove Awards (1975-77, 1979) and two Silver Slugger Awards (1981-82). He played in five postseasons - four of which the Reds advanced to the World Series (1970, 1972, 1975-76) - winning the last two. He was part of The Big Red Machine's intimidating "Great 8" lineup that featured Pete Rose, Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan and former Indy Indians Ken Griffey Sr. and George Foster. In his last of nine All-Star Games, Concepción was named MVP after hitting a home run for the victorious NL side. The Reds honored the Venezuelan by inducting him into their Hall of Fame in 2000 and later retired his No. 13 jersey on Aug. 25, 2007.

Cleveland Indians (1955-59), Chicago White Sox (1960-62)

On his 19th birthday in 1952, Herb Score signed a contract with the Cleveland Indians and was assigned to Indianapolis where he made 12 appearances (10 starts) with the Indians. Two years later, Score returned to Indy and delivered the most dominant season in franchise history, pacing the American Association with 22 wins, a 2.62 ERA and a league- and franchise-record 330 strikeouts. Score reached the majors the following year and was named an American League All-Star and Rookie of the Year after going 16-10 with a major league-high 245 strikeouts. His strikeout total set a rookie record and lasted until 1984, and it made him one of eight rookie pitchers in the 20th century to tally 200 or more strikeouts in their debut season. He again earned an AL All-Star nod and led all major league pitchers in strikeouts with 263 recorded in 1956. Injuries derailed Score's playing career in the late '50s, but he joined Cleveland's broadcast team in 1964 and continued in that role through the 1997 season. He was inducted into the Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame in 2006 alongside former Indy Indians player-manager Al López and slugger Rocky Colavito.

Eric Davis was a rare five-tool player from the mid-1980s into the late '90s. He played in 19 games for the Indians in 1983, batting .299 with four doubles, seven home runs and 19 RBI. Davis later made his MLB debut as a 21-year-old in May 1984 and quickly became one of baseball's most entertaining players. In 1986, Davis joined Rickey Henderson as the only players in baseball history to hit 20-plus homers and swipe 80 or more bases in the same season. Those numbers tied up National League All-Star bids in 1987 and 1989, in addition to three consecutive Gold Glove Awards (1987-89). He became the first member of the 30/50 club, hitting 37 home runs to go along with 50 stolen bases in 1987. Barry Bonds would later join the 30/50 club in 1990, but Davis' Reds got the best of Bonds' Pirates in the NLCS. Davis went on to contribute a Game 1 home run and five total RBI in Cincinnati's 4-0 World Series sweep of Oakland. Davis was the first former Indianapolis Indian to win the Home Run Derby (1989) and was a recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award after beating a May 1997 colon cancer diagnosis. He was inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame in 2005.

MLB TEAMS MANAGED

Cleveland Indians (1951-56), Chicago White Sox (1957-65, 1968-69)

Al López was a dependable backstop for four organizations over 19 seasons, earning a pair of National League All-Star selections along the way (1934, 1941). He then took the reins as player-manager for Indianapolis in 1948, and in his three-year tenure with the Indians, logged the only 100-win season (1948, 100-54) and third of 10 American Association Championships in franchise history (1949). López's managerial success in the minor leagues eventually earned him opportunities to manage the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox. He averaged 95 wins per season with Cleveland, including an American League record 111 wins and AL pennant in 1954. Lopez later joined the White Sox and delivered the South Siders their fifth AL pennant in 1959. Over a 16-year span (1949-64), the only teams other than the New York Yankees to represent the AL in the World Series were López's 1954 Indians and 1959 White Sox. He was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1977. López lived to the age of 97 and passed just four days after watching the White Sox win the 2005 World Series, their first since 1917.

Chicago Cubs (1938-40)

Viewed as one of the best catchers in baseball history, Charles "Gabby" Hartnett rocked Indianapolis headlines when he was named Indians manager for the 1942 season. At age 41, Hartnett even took the field for Indy in 72 contests, clubbing four home runs while the team finished 76-78 overall. Hartnett first broke into the majors in 1922 and racked up six National League All-Star bids (1933-38) and the 1935 NL MVP. He finished second in the 1937 NL MVP race after posting a .354 batting average for the Cubs, the highest mark recorded by a catcher for the next 60 years. From 1938-40, Hartnett served as both a player and manager for the Cubs. Hartnett became the third Indianapolis Indian elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1955.

Andrés Galarraga (1985) - Skyline 3

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Montreal Expos (1985-91, 2002), St. Louis Cardinals (1992), Colorado Rockies (1993-97), Atlanta Braves (1998, 2000), Texas Rangers (2001), San Francisco Giants (2001, 2003), Anaheim Angels (2004)

In his seventh minor league season, Andrés Galarraga led all Indianapolis players in home runs (25), triples (eight) and RBI (82) en route to Team MVP and American Association Rookie of the Year honors. His prolific power translated to the big leagues, where he recorded three consecutive seasons of 40-plus home runs (1996-98). He was a five-time National League All-Star (1988, 1993, 1997-98, 2000) and garnered two Gold Glove (1989-90) and Silver Slugger Awards (1988, 1996). He was the first Colorado Rockies player to be elected to the All-Star Game and first Venezuelan to win a batting title when he hit a league-best .370 in 1993. His .370 clip was the highest mark by a right-handed batter in the majors since Joe DiMaggio hit .381 in 1939. He then became a run-producer with 150 and 140 RBI back-to-back years (1996-97), both NL highs. Galarraga missed the entire 1999 season when he was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, a form of lymphatic cancer, but he returned to the Braves in 2000 and hit .302 with 28 home runs and 100 RBI. As a result, he was awarded his second career Sporting News National League Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Harmon Killebrew (1958) - Skyline 4

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

Washington Senators (1954-60), Minnesota Twins (1961-74), Kansas City Royals (1975)

On June 23, 1954, 17-year-old Harmon Killebrew made his major league debut with the Washington Senators. Four years later, Killebrew hit two home runs in 38 games for Indianapolis. It wasn't until Killebrew's age-23 season in 1959 that his prodigious power would earn him the nicknames "Hammerin' Harmon" and "Killer." He smashed an American League-leading 42 home runs for the Senators that year, the first of eight career 40-plus homer seasons. Baltimore Orioles manager Paul Richards marveled at Killebrew's titanic blasts, once telling media "Killebrew can knock the ball out of any park, including Yellowstone." Following the 1960 season, the Senators moved to Minneapolis and became the Minnesota Twins. Killebrew's lone World Series appearance came in 1965 under the tutelage of manager and former Indianapolis Indian Sam Mele. The 11-time AL All-Star (1959, 1961, 1963-71) and 1969 AL MVP spent his last of 22 major league seasons with the Kansas City Royals. On May 4, 1975, Killebrew returned to Metropolitan Stadium in Minneapolis, where the Twins retired his No. 3 in a pregame ceremony. With the crowd on its feet during his first at-bat in an opposing uniform, Killebrew fittingly cranked the first pitch he saw into the left-field bleachers for a home run. The Idahoan retired with 573 career homers under his belt and was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

MLB TEAMS PLAYED FOR

MLB TEAMS MANAGED

Kansas City Athletics (1967)

Luke "Old Aches and Pains" Appling managed the Indians during the 1962 season, leading them to the American Association pennant with an 89-58 record. Five years later, Appling's only big league managing experience came during a 40-game stint with the Kansas City Athletics. Appling's entire playing career was spent with the Chicago White Sox, where he primarily played shortstop and often led the team offensively. Appling paced the American League with a .388 batting average in 1936 and a .328 clip in 1943, two of 14 full seasons where the lifetime .310 hitter batted north of .300. World War II interrupted his 1944 season and most of 1945, but the two-time AL MVP runner-up (1936, 1943) and seven-time AL All-Star (1936, 1939-41, 1943, 1946-47) didn't miss a beat. Only 587 of his 2,749 career hits went for extra bases, but he added 1,302 walks and a .399 on-base percentage to his résumé. In 1964, Appling won a winner-take-all runoff election to gain entry into the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In the initial election, he garnered 70.6 percent of the vote as the top vote-getter but still fell nine votes short of the necessary 75 percent needed for induction. The subsequent runoff election saw him earn 94 percent of the vote — five votes ahead of 273-game winner and former Red Sox and Yankees hurler, Red Ruffing.

HISTORY

GENERAL

VICTORY FIELD GROUND RULES

Rule 1: A pitched or thrown ball sticking in the padding is a dead ball; runners advance one base.

Rule 2: A ball thrown into the dugout is a dead ball; runners advance one base.

Rule 3: Balls thrown into dugout screens/extended netting and staying out of the dugouts and stands are live and in play.

Rule 4: Fielders can make a legal catch from the top of the steps to the dugout even with the playing field. Players leaning in from the top of the steps, catching the ball and then going into the dugout results in a legal catch. Players may not step into the dugout and then make a catch.

Rule 5: A fairly batted ball sticking in the wall padding is a dead ball and a ground-rule double.

Rule 6: A batted ball that comes to rest under a bullpen bench is dead and a ground-rule double. A thrown ball that comes to rest under a bullpen bench is a dead ball and runners advance one base. A ball that lodges in the bullpen bench area is a dead ball — a ground-rule double if a batted ball, or runners advance one base if a thrown ball.

Rule 7: A batted or thrown ball that goes under a bullpen bench and bounces out is a live ball.

Rule 8: A batted ball that hits a player in the bullpen area is live and in play. If such touching is intentional, interference will be called.

Howard Kellman

Voice of the Indians

Kellman is in his 48th season as Voice of the Indians. He has watched more than a million pitches and seen more than 300,000 outs recorded during Indians broadcasts. On June 30, 2017, Kellman broadcast his 6,000th game for the Indians. In honor of the feat, Indianapolis Mayor Joe Hogsett made July 1 “Howard Kellman Day” in Indianapolis. In 2018, Kellman received the Spirit of the International League Award, which is designed to recognize the essential role filled by individuals who are dedicated to helping make sure IL fans have the most enjoyable experience possible.

Kellman joined the Indians in 1974 and has been the club’s lead play-by-play announcer each year during that time frame except for the 1975 and 1980 seasons.

Honored as Indiana’s Sportscaster of the Year in 2002, Kellman has called IHSAA football and basketball games on WHMB-TV 40 since 1990. In 2009, he was inducted to the Indiana Sportswriters & Sportscasters Association Hall of Fame. Kellman was inducted into the Indiana Broadcast Pioneers Hall of Fame in 2015 and the Indiana High School Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2018.

Since joining the Indians, Kellman has also been named to the radio broadcast team for three Triple-A All-Star Games, including the 1989 Midsummer Classic in Columbus, Ohio, the 2001 contest at Victory Field, and most recently, the 2013 showcase in Reno, Nev. In addition, he led the broadcast team for ESPN’s coverage of the Triple-A World Series from 2006-08.

Along with covering the Indians, Kellman has worked behind the microphone for the Chicago White Sox (1984) and Cleveland Cavaliers (1988-90), called both IHSAA football and basketball games on WHMB-TV 40 (since 1990-91) and served as a sideline reporter for Yale football on the YES Television Network (2012). He also filled in as a replacement on New York Mets radio broadcasts in 2014 and New York Yankees broadcasts in 2022 and 2023. With his Yankees radio pinch-hit appearance in ‘22, he became the only voice to handle play-by-play duties for both New York-based ballclubs.

Kellman currently manages his own professional speaking service which features life lessons drawn from sports-related stories, and published his book 61 Humorous & Inspiring Lessons I Learned From Baseball in 2010.

A graduate of Brooklyn College, Kellman began his early broadcasting days as an announcer for St. John’s University basketball.

Howard and his wife, Robin, reside in Carmel, Ind.
