Las Vegas Ballpark continues to be a big hit with Southern Nevada baseball fans. Since opening in April 2019, the home of the Las Vegas Aviators (Triple-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics) has welcomed 1,079,303 fans — the largest two-season total in the 38-year history of the franchise. In fact, Las Vegas Ballpark leads all of Minor League Baseball in total attendance and per-game attendance over the past two seasons (2019, 2021), with an average of nearly 8,000 fans passing through the turnstiles in 135 regular-season games.

Located in Downtown Summerlin, Las Vegas Ballpark offers several seating options, including 22 suites, club seats, party decks, picnic tables, a grass berm in right field and a swimming pool beyond the center-field wall. Also, fan-friendly amenities can be found throughout the venue, including dozens of concession stands featuring a variety of food and beverage options. There's also a suite-level bar, fully stocked team store, state-of-the-art LED scoreboard, kids' splash pad, and even foosball and ping-pong tables.

These amenities combined with additional unique features — including 360-degree access within the park, comfortable mesh seating and perfect sight lines — have helped Las Vegas Ballpark earn multiple prestigious awards:

- 2019 and 2021 MiLB Triple-A Best of the Ballparks fan vote (Ballpark Digest)
- 2019 Team of the Year (Ballpark Digest)
- 2019 Ballpark of the Year (BaseballParks.com)
- 2019 Ballpark of the Year (Baseball Digest)

The Aviators have finished with a winning overall and home record in each of their first two seasons at Las Vegas Ballpark, highlighted by a Pacific Coast League Southern Division championship in 2019.
