

INDIANAPOLIS NEGRO LEAGUES MAMIE "PEANUT" JOHNSON COLORING PAGE

The Indianapolis Clowns signed Mamie "Peanut" Johnson in 1953. She became the first woman to pitch in the Negro Leagues. In a game against the Kansas City Monarchs, Hank Baylis said she was "no bigger than a peanut." Johnson proceeded to strike out Baylis.

Riley Children's Health
Indiana University Health