Vendor Sign-Up Sheet

The best and safest Halloween Event in the County returns! Boo Bash is scheduled for Monday, October 31st at beautiful BayCare Ballpark. This event, from 5:30-8:30 pm is hosted by the Clearwater Threshers and the City of Clearwater Parks & Rec Department. Boo Bash features several interactive areas for kids including inflatable games, hay rides and a costume parade on the field.

Once again, the Clearwater Threshers invite the business community to participate in this event FOR FREE by passing out candy and promotional material from your business. In the past, we have had up to 6,000 attendees. Businesses that want to participate must provide at least 5,000 pieces of candy. If you can not staff your table but would like to participate for the promotion, the Threshers will staff your table and provide the candy for the price of $400.

Please fill out the form below and fax back to participate. A follow up email or fax will confirm your participation and give more details on the evening such as set-up times.
