TAKE TWO: The Sounds are set to play their first doubleheader of the season on Thursday at First Horizon Park after having Wednesday's game postponed due to weather. Nashville played five twin bills in 2024, going 1-1-3 in those games. The Sounds took both games in their only DH played at First Horizon Park last year, taking down the Charlotte Knights on May 23. RHP Brandon Woodruff is slated to make his second rehab start with Nashville after pitching for High-A Wisconsin last week when the Sounds traveled to Charlotte. RHP Carlos Rodriguez will take the ball for the Sounds in game two against the Bulls. Rodriguez is T-5th in Triple-A and the IL in ERA (1.40) while his 25 strikeouts are second in the Brewers farm system and 10th in the IL entering action on Thursday.

TREYJA VU FOR DAZ: Daz Cameron brought his hot bat home with him from Charlotte. The reigning International League Player of the Week started his series with a three-hit night, going 3-for-4 with a home run, double, and both Nashville RBI in Wednesday's loss to the Bulls. His fifth inning solo home run was his third straight game leaving the yard, making him the first Nashville player to do so this season and the first since Wes Clarke from August 16-18, 2024, on the road against Durham. It's just the second time Cameron has hit a home run in three straight games in his professional career. His first was in 2023 when he was playing for the Norfolk Tides and he hit home runs in back-to-back games on the road in Charlotte on April 29-30 and then returned home to hit a home run on May 3 when Norfolk was hosting who else...the Durham Bulls.

STREAKIN': With his 1.2 IP Tuesday night without allowing a run, RHP Jesus Liranzo is up to six appearances since allowing a run which is the current clubhouse lead after the promotion of Criag Yoho. Over his last 9.0 IP, Liranzo has allowed just four hits and has six strikeouts, three walks, and a hit batter. Opponents are hitting just .148 during this six game stretch. His six games are tied for the seventh-longest in the International League after the rest of the league wrapped up action on Wednesday. Daz Cameron's six straight games with a RBI is the third-longest RBI streak in Triple-A this year behind Jacksonville's Agustín Ramierz (7 G) and Las Vegas' Nick Kurtz (7 G) and is the longest active streak going currently. He is one of eight players in Triple-A to homer in three straight games.

MAS MIS: Jacob Misiorowski notched the first quality start by a Nashville pitcher in 2025 and was the first pitcher to get through six innings as he did so without a decision on Tuesday night. The Brewers' no. 4-rated prospect ended the game with just one hit allowed over his six scoreless innings while striking out eight and issuing a walk. He was extremely efficient in his fourth start of the year, needing just 76 pitches to get through six innings and racked up 50 strikes (66%). It was the first Triple-A quality start for Misiorowski and his first since hurling back-to-back on July 6 at Mississippi and July 12 at Chattanooga of last year while with Double-A Biloxi. It was the fourth time in his career working six-plus innings without a run. His eight strikeouts on Tuesday night were also a Triple-A single-game high for Misiorowski, topping the seven he had in his first start of the season on March 30 vs. Jacksonville.

FREE BASEBALL: Playing in their fourth extra innings game of the season, the Sounds fell to 1-3 on the year when going past nine innings. The Sounds and their opponents have now each scored five runs in extra innings despite the losing record. Nashville scored four of those runs in the top of the 10th inning last Wednesday night in Charlotte en route to their lone extra-innings win so far.

HONOR ROLL: Outfielder Daz Cameron was named the International League Player of the Week on Monday by minor league baseball. Cameron hit .435 (10-for-23) with two home runs, four doubles, 12 RBI, and carried an OPS of 1.351 in five games played against the Knights last week. He succeeded Ernesto Martinez Jr. to give the Sounds consecutive International League Player of the Week award winners and the third overall in 2025 after Jacob Misiorowski was named Pitcher of the Week after opening weekend. Cameron ended the week tied for the second-most XBH (6) in the IL and his four doubles were also T-2nd along with his 12 RBI, 20 TB, and 10 hits. He was T-6th in SLG (.870) and 6th in OPS. His RBI and XBH totals finished the week T-2nd in Triple-A and he was T-3rd in doubles, T-4th in hits and total bases. Cameron had at least one RBI in all five games he played and ended the series with a homer and four RBI in back-to-back games on Saturday and Sunday.
