APPLE SLICES

BIG LEAGUE BRADGLEY: Friday, the San Diego Padres called up right-handed pitcher Bradley Rodriguez. The No. 14 Padres prospect, according to MLB.com, is the second 2024 TinCap to be called up. In 29 games (11 starts) with the 'Caps, Rodriguez struck out 45 in 41 2/3 innings.

EVERYONE KNOWS, IT'S BUTTERS: In his first at-bat Friday, Brandon Butterworth hit his second home run of the season, roping it over the wall in left field. A 2-for-4 performance, Butterworth is tied for the team lead with 11 multi-hit performances. This comes after a two-run triple on Thursday night. The NC State grad is on a six-game hitting streak, batting .364 (8-for-22) on the stretch with a trio of triples and 10 RBI. The TinCaps infielder is tied for the league lead with four triples and tied for 4th with 32 runs scored.

BAT 'EM IN BRANDON: Brandon Butterworth leads the Midwest League in average with runners in scoring position, hitting .417 (15-for-36) with six extra-base hits and 17 RBI. The two below him are No. 7 overall prospect Max Clark and Twins No. 4 prospect Kaelen Culppepper.

FISHING FOR KARP: On Thursday, outfielder Braedon Karpathios went 3-for-4 with a walk, RBI single, and later a two-run double in the ninth. It is his seventh multi-hit and fourth multi-RBI performance. Karpathios is tied for 5th in the MWL with 32 walks and is 6th with an 18.7% BB%. His six home runs are tied for 11th.

OSWALDO LINARES: Returns to the lineup for a second straight game behind the plate. Following a 2-for-4 day Friday, Linares is hitting .304 (7-for-23) in May with three doubles, a triple, and four RBI.

THROUGH SIX INNINGS: The TinCaps are undefeated when leading after six innings this season. A perfect 19-0 record has been helped out by four Fort Wayne relievers holding sub-3.00 ERAs.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN: The Fort Wayne TinCaps are on their longest road trip of the season. 12 games in 13 days, the 'Caps begin with a six-game series against Great Lakes in Midland, Michigan. The team then heads to Beloit, Wisconsin, to take on the Marlins-affiliated Sky Carp. The 'Caps head home June 10 to start a series with the South Bend Cubs.

JACK COSTELLO: Doubled twice Friday off of Loons left-handed starter Luke Fox. Costello ranks 6th in the MWL, hitting .352 against left-handed pitchers with five doubles (1st), eight extra-base hits (1st), and 12 RBI (1st). He is doing so with 14 or more plate appearances than the five above him.

NIGHT, NIGHT FROM NEIGHBORS: For active pitchers who've thrown at least 10 innings, Tyson Neighbors' 46.1% strikeout rate is 8th in Minor League Baseball. Leading the Midwest league, it is the highest in franchise history with data available back to 2006. The No. 15 Padres prospect also leads the league in K/9 (16.6), and swinging strike% (22.6%), and ranks 9th in K-BB ratio (5.58). Neighbors is tied for 5th in strikeouts (35) among relievers. The righthander holds a 1.42 ERA across 19.0 IP with four saves.

EYEING IT LIKE A HAWK(INS): Fort Wayne reliever Garrett Hawkins has not allowed a single run in his last nine outings. Across 11 2/3 quiet innings, Hawkins has struck out 19, with his fastball topping 98 mph. He is tied for 4th in the league with four wins and for 8th amongst Midwest League relievers with 33 strikeouts. After 702 days without a professional appearance, Hawkins moved to the TinCaps bullpen after beginning his career as a starter.

SHUTDOWN MAL: Down three on Tuesday, TinCaps reliever Josh Mallitz played the stopper role once again with three shutout innings in relief. Mallitz gave up two hits while tying a career-high with five strikeouts. The Ole Miss grad has recorded 10 consecutive shutout innings across his last four outings, striking out 17. Since April 30, Mallitz has made six straight appearances of at least two innings, holding a 1.14 ERA with 21 strikeouts.

MAJOR LEAGUE MORGAN: Former TinCaps right-handed pitcher David Morgan made his Major League debut Monday in the Padres' 4-3 walk-off win in 11 innings. Morgan made three appearances in Fort Wayne in 2023 before being in the closer role to begin 2024. He struck out 40 in 31 1/3 innings pitched, securing four saves. He is the first player from the 2024 TinCaps to make their debut.

BOBBY BARRELS: A week removed from his MLB debut Robert Hassell III made his presence known with a 3-for-5 night vs the Mariners with his first MLB home run. Last week, the Washington Nationals selected the contract of the former TinCap. On the very first pitch he saw Thursday, Hassell lined a single to right field, collecting his first major league hit. Across 93 games between 2021 and 2022, Hassell III hit .280 with 37 extra-base hits, including 14 home runs, while driving in 66 RBIs. In just his third game in a TinCap uniform, Hassell III became one of just two players in franchise history to complete a three-home run game. Hassell drove in five in an 11-inning win at Great Lakes on Sept. 1, 2021, including a two-run home run in the final inning to seal the win.

260 TO THE SHOW: Since Fort Wayne's MiLB franchise was founded in 1993, a total of 233 former players have gone on to appear in Major League Baseball. Ryan Bergert (2022-23), Tirso Ornelas (2018, '21), Omar Cruz (2019), Robert Hassell III (2021-22), and David Morgan (2023-24) have made their MLB debuts this season. Current Padres include Morgan, LHP Adrian Morejon (2017), OF Fernando Tatis Jr. (2017), Luis Campusano (2018), and Jackson Merrill (2023). After dealing with injury, the 2024 NL Rookie of the Year Runner Up is hitting .331 to begin the year in 30 games.

COMEBACK 'CAPS: The TinCaps have come from behind in 12 of their 24 wins this season, 10 of them came in their first 13 wins. They have come back from as large as seven runs.

LEO DE VRIES' HISTORIC APRIL: On Monday, May 5, Minor League Baseball announced Leo De Vries as the Midwest League Player of the Month for April. He is the fifth TinCap player to win Player of the Month since the Midwest League began issuing the award in 2013 and first since current Guardians left-handed pitcher Joey Cantillo in 2019. Across 19 games, the No. 1 Padres prospect led the Midwest League in SLG (.625) and OPS (1.003), while being tied for the league lead in triples (3). The switch-hitter also ranked third in extra-base hits (12), total bases (45), and AVG (.306), while being tied for fifth in RBIs (19) and tied for seventh in home runs (4). Later on in the day, De Vries won the Midwest League Player of the Week award for the second straight week. De Vries is the first TinCap to ever win the award in back-to-back weeks and just the fourth TinCaps player to receive the honor twice in the same season, alongside Fernando Tatis Jr. (2017), Rymer Liriano (2011), and Jason Hagerty (2010). The last player in the Midwest League to achieve the accolade consecutively was current Tampa Bay Rays outfielder Jonny DeLuca with the Great Lakes Loons in 2022.

EL MUTANTE GOES CYCLING: On Tuesday, April 22, Leo De Vries, aka "El Mutante," completed the third cycle in franchise history. The feat was the first for the TinCaps since 2018, when current Cleveland Guardians infielder Gabriel Arias went 5-6 at South Bend. The now No. 3 prospect in baseball went 5-5 with a double, a triple, two home runs, a sac fly, and eight RBIs at Lansing. The eight driven in tied the Fort Wayne franchise record for runs batted in during a game. Only four have met the target since the Wizards were founded in 1993. Agustin Ruiz was the last to drive in eight, also against Lansing in 2021. The five-hit performance was the first for the TinCaps since current Miami Marlins infielder Xavier Edwards put together five knocks on May 1, 2019, against Kane County. Since at least 2005, the four extra-base hits are the most in a single game for Fort Wayne. De Vries began the night with a solo home run, cranked a two-run shot in the fifth, and finished the night with a go-ahead two-run triple in the ninth.

HOME RUN MACHINE: Between April 16-18, Rosman Verdugo smashed home runs in three straight games. He is the first TinCap since Griffin Doerschling last June to homer in 3 consecutive games and record 4 homers over a 3-game span... His 3 home runs in a four-plate-appearance stint were the first for a TinCap since Robert Hassell III's three-home run game against Great Lakes on Sept. 1, 2021.

2025 TINCAPS COACHING STAFF

4 Lukas Ray

Manager

Age: 28

- FROM: Myrtle Beach, SC
- COLLEGE: Catcher for two seasons at USC-Lancaster
- COACHING: Moved to coaching role and was a coach at the college ranks for four seasons including stints at Florence-Darlington Tech in South Carolina, USC Lancaster, and at the Division I level with Charleston Southern and Middle Tennessee State. Ray joined the Padres organization in 2021. Just a year later, Ray was named the manager of the Padres Arizona Complex League affiliate. After two winning seasons in the Complex League, Ray was named the manager of San Diego's Single-A affiliate, the Lake Elsinore Storm in 2024. A part of the Storm, Ray helped the group to the best record in the California League South Division, a postseason series win and was one win away from winning the California League Championship in 2024.
- QUOTE: "It's an absolute honor to have the opportunity to manage a first-class organization like the TinCaps," Ray said. "Our dynamite staff is passionate about developing players and winning games. We aspire to display a product on the field that the exceptional Fort Wayne fanbase is proud to support."

45 Thomas Eshelman

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 10 (MLB.com)

SCOUTING GRADES: Fastball: 55 | Slider: 60 | Changeup: 45 | Control: 50 | Overall: 45

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Throwing from the lower range of a three-quarters delivery, Lowe ran his fastball to 97 mph last season and generally sat 92-95. There was some tailing action on the pitch as he tended to land it up and armside. His 79-82 mph slider played well nicely off the heat, dropping just as it reached the plate to fool batters to his glove side. The slider had a 44 percent whiff rate on its own. An 85-87 mph changeup didn't get much chase outside of the zone."

DRAFTED: 11th Round, 330th Overall, 2022 (San Diego Padres)... signing for $400K... Was driving with his parents to Winston-Salem when a Padres scout (Jake Koenig) convinced him to sign, so after an emotional moment at a gas station, they turned around.

2025 TINCAPS HITTERS

11 SEAN BARNETT	OF/DH	6'2, 200	R/R	AGE: 21	FROM: FRENTON, MO
-----------------	-------	----------	-----	---------	-------------------

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 28 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 40 | Power: 55 | Run: 45 | Arm: 60 | Field: 50 | Overall: 40
Fastball: 60 | Slider: 55 | Control: 50 | Overall: 40

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Barnett only hit and played corner outfield with Single-A Lake Elsinore after joining the organization, but he pitched in late workouts and turned more than a few heads on the mound...fastball up to 97 and averaged closer to the mid-90s. slider sat upper-80s with a hard cut-ter-like break, and that pitch could easily be a weapon, too. The ball comes out of his 6-foot-2 frame easily, and his delivery isn't overcomplicated. With his position-player background and athleticism, he could get to average control with the right professional instruction...many in the organization prefer Barnett's work on the mound, but the Padres will still give him a chance to DH part-time to begin his first full season. His power is undeniable from the right side, but he really struggled against non-fastballs in the California League last year. Had Barnett shown this level of stuff more consistently, some believe he would have gone several rounds earlier as a pitcher alone, and that's likely where his future lies."

DRAFTED: 11th Round, 330th overall, 2024 (San Diego Padres), signed for $175,000

COLLEGE: Attended DII Wingate Univevrsity in Wingate, North Carolina, just outside of Charlotte. Stepped on campus as a two-way but exploding offensively as a junior in 2024. His 26 homers were second-most for that level of collegiate baseball, while his .739 slugging percentage placed 32nd among qualifiers. He posted a .349 average and 1.138 OPS over his 59 games with the Bulldogs while also making six appearances out of the bullpen, striking out seven and walking six over five frames.

2024 Single-A Lake Elsinore: After being drafted, Barnett appeared in 12 regular season games for the Storm, making his debut on Aug. 20. Barnett began his career on a six-game hit streak hitting .280 with four extra-base hits. A part of the postseason roster, Barnett went 6-18 (.333) with 7 RBIs in the Storm's run to the California LLeague Championship Series.

2025 Single-A Lake Elsinore: In 11 games, Barnett slashed .289/.396/.511 driving in 10 runs and hitting a team-best four doubles.

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 1 (MLB.com) // No. 3 in MLB Top 100 (MLB.com)

SIGNED: Top prospect in 2024 international signing class signed on January 15 for a $4.2 million signing bonus...second straight year Padres have grabbed top international prospect

GRADES: Hit: 60 | Power: 55 | Run: 55 | Arm: 50 | Field: 55 | Overall: 60

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "De Vries already shows an exquisite knowledge of the zone and will take his walks like he's a player many years older. An agile runner and efficient on the basepaths. He has the range and hands to handle shortstop well, and even though his arm strength is closer to average and he got some looks at second base in the Fall League, the Padres plan to keep him at shortstop exclusively moving forward. De Vries plays like a prospect hungry for challenges and that should serve him well heading into his age-18 season. He's proven to be a better slugger from the right side early in his career -- seven of his 11 homers came from the right despite getting 162 fewer plate appearances there -- but he has enough bat speed from the left that splits aren't a major concern."

2024: Youngest active player in minor league baseball to begin season. Struggled to begin the season hitting .196/.319/.291 through the end of June. Also missed two weeks due to shoulder injury.

"Obviously, for me, the first time playing professional ball and going through a slump like that, that's something I wasn't used to,"

Tore it up in July hitting .318/.442/.694 w/ 15 extra-base hits and 18 RBI. Walked as much as he struck out (18-18) including a 9-game hitting streak to begin the month. Shoulder-injury shut him down in mid-August

ARIZONA FALL LEAGUE: Youngest player in the Fall League, youngest to hit a home run since Bryce Harper in 2010. Home run traveled 415 feet at 104.4 mph. One of five 18-year-olds to hit an AFL home run. Top exit velo of fall was 109.9 mph

Teammate Harry Gustin: "That guy wants to win more than anybody. He's a great teammate to have. I would not like to face him."

2 KAI ROBERTS OF 6'4, 205 L/R AGE: 24 FROM: LEHI, UTAH

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 23 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 45 | Power: 45 | Run: 70 | Arm: 50 | Field: 60 | Overall: 40

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Roberts cuts a stunning figure in the field at 6-foot-5, 205 pounds, and he moves exceptionally well for that size, notching 60-yard dashes in the 6.5-second range. He was a perfect 14-for-14 in steal attempts during that short run in the California League, and the Padres don't have much doubt that his speed will continue to play as he reaches higher levels. With those wheels, Roberts is a comfortable fit in center field and has just enough arm for the position, too. That said, the left-handed hitter hasn't been a huge power threat despite his size, though San Diego officials were intrigued by the good weight he put on during in his first offseason. He struggled to make contact against sliders and changeups as a senior and will need his speed to help run high BABIPs that can make up for some of the contact issues. Roberts already enters his first full season at age 24 and doesn't have a long runway, but his best skills could be useful in the Majors in short order."

HIGH SCHOOL: Skyridge High School in Lehi, Utah where he was coached by his father, Ryan Roberts... first team all-state as well as second-team all-state...career batting average of .370

2025 TINCAPS HITTERS

1	ROSMAN VERDUGO	INF	6'0, 180	R/R	AGE: 20	FROM: ENSENADA, MEX

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 24 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 45 | Power: 40 | Run: 40 | Arm: 50 | Field: 50 | Overall: 40

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): “Watch Verdugo hit, and you can see why the Padres have pushed him so far. He doesn’t overly complicate matters with his setup from the right side, keeping things nice and quiet until he unleashes quick hands through the zone for a sound swing. He showed a better understanding of the strike zone between his first full season and his second, cutting down his chase by a good margin, but he still struggled to make consistent contact. When he did, he got under the ball too much. Without significant strength, many of his batted balls were catchable flies rather than stung line drives.”

SIGNED: January, 2022... Considered the top player out of Mexico in his class, signed for $700K out of Mexico City

2022: 52 games in the Arizona Complex League... hit .252 with an .806 OPS, 7 HR, 7 2B, 4 3B

WINTER BALL: Following the 2022 season, played in the Mexican Pacific Winter League for the Tomateros de Culiacan... Major Leaguers like Trey Cabbage, Joey Meneses, and Oliver Perez played on his team. Has played with group each of the past two seasons with brother.

2023: 113 G with Single-A Lake Elsinore... Verdugo was one of only five players aged 18 or younger to meet the qualifying standard at Single-A, joining former TinCap Samuel Zavala, Samuel Basallo, Nelson Rada, and Cam Collier on that list

2024: 81 G with Single-A Lake Elsinore... hit .250 with a .363 OBP and a .406 SLG...led the team with 78 hits and 9 HR, 2nd with 18 2B, and 50 RBIs

2024 Fort Wayne: transferred here on August 6. Played 25 games. Lone home run was a two-run HR vs Peoria on August 25

BLOODLINES: Brother Luis is an infielder with Double-A Reading (Phillies), who spent 2022 & 2023 with South Bend

NATIONAL TEAM: Played for Mexico's U-18 squad in the 2022 WBSC World Cup held in Florida
