TEERING OFF

- TODAY'S GAME: Both starting pitchers last night worked five hitless innings in a 1-0 decision that was finalized by an error in the 5th. The series concludes with another doubleheader, with Charleston needing just one win out of two to take the series and maintain their first place lead.
- NEW FACES: The GreenJackets made the call for nearly a dozen new players Sunday, 10 of whom entered the organization this summer. The new list features 5 pitchers, 2 catchers, 2 infielders, and 2 outfielders to diversify and uplift the current roster.
- JUST PLAY THE HITS: The Augusta offense has been held quiet during this post-All Star Break skid, scoring 3 runs or fewer in 14 of 17 games. The arrival of six new hitters from the draft gives hope the offense can turn things around.
- LEFT FOR DEAD: The GreenJacket offense has struggled intensely against left handed pitching all season long, hobbling to a .145 average against southpaws. Augusta had lost 11 consecutive games started by a left-handed pitcher prior to last night, when Dalton Fowler served as an opener and bucked the trend.
- SO LONG, PARTNER: Amongst the series of moves this week, a handful of GreenJackets earned their first promotions to high-A Rome. Jacob Godman, Joe Olsavsky, and Giomar Diaz all made their way up this weekend, following LJ McDonough and Adam Maier from earlier in the week.
- LOW POWER MODE: The GreenJackets have struggled with the long ball often this season, but have seen the power numbers rise at home of late. 20 of the team's 34 long balls (counting Noah Williams' grand slam from a currently suspended game) have come at SRP Park.
- NEXT TIME OUT: The GreenJackets return home to take on the Fayetteville Woodpeckers, a team against whom they have scattered close wins and large losses. The RiverDogs travel north to Kannapolis to take on the faltering Cannon Ballers as the season continues to wind down.

A native of San Cristobal, Dominican Republic, Nina played collegiately at both Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and Oklahoma State University before being drafted in the 17th Rd of the 1997 Draft by the Oakland Athletics. Nina played 9 seasons in the minors across 5 organizations, while also seeing time in the Chinese Professional League, the Mexican League, and the Atlantic League. The righty began his coaching career with the Helena Brewers from 2009-2013, followed by the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers in 2014 and GCL Pirates from 2015-2017 & 2019.

EINAR DIAZ

HITTING COACH

Einar Diaz follows the rest of the staff up from the FCL level, making his first mark at the low-A level. It's the 4th different Braves affiliate for whom Diaz has worked, as he was the hitting coach for the AAA Gwinnett Stripers in 2019, and the AA Mississippi Braves in 2021 prior to his two years on the FCL staff. An 11 year big leaguer known most for his time with the Cleveland Indians, the Panamanian catcher also appeared for the Texas Rangers, Montreal Expos, St. Louis Cardinals, and Los Angeles Dodgers over his career. He got his start coaching in the Orioles system for nearly a decade, working for the Delmarva Shorebirds and managing the Rookie-level Bluefield Orioles before working for the major league club as an assistant hitting coach for 6 seasons.

CONNOR JUSTUS

COACH

The youngest member of the coaching staff, Connor Justus will begin his coaching career with the GreenJackets in 2024. The Cartersville, GA native was drafted in the 5th round of the 2016 draft out of Georgia Tech by the Los Angeles Angels and played 4 years in the Halos' system, reaching as high as AA Mobile. Justus spent the 2020 season with the St. Paul Saints, who were in the independent American Association at the time, before returning for one more season of affiliate ball with the Marlins in 2021, splitting between AA Pensacola and AAA Jacksonville. Justus' final stop in his playing career was with the Charleston Dirty Birds of the Atlantic League, where he played 47 games in the infield before hanging the spikes up.
