GAME 20: After getting back in the win column last night with the largest margin of victory this season, the FredNats and RiverDogs are locked at two wins apiece heading in to the weekend at Virginia Credit Union Stadium. Tonight is the first Saturday Theme Night of the year, and the theme is Minecraft Movie Night. LHP Angel Roman gets the Saturday night start and will look to bounce back from a few rough outings in a row. In his relatively brief FredNat career so far, Roman has been better in home games than road games, posting a home ERA of 5.87 against a road ERA of 10.00. He faces Charleston righty Jose Urbina, who has pitched well so far this year for the RiverDogs.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: The FredNat bullpen shoved six more scoreless innings, and the team got a spark late offensively from a few RiverDog defensive mistakes in the largest victory of the season for the FredNats, 8-1 over Charleston. Jackson Ross swatted his third home run of the year to open the scoring in the 2nd inning, and then the FredNats got four unearned runs in the 6th inning after two Charleston errors and a near inside-the-park home run from Nate Ochoa. Then, Cristhian Vaquero and Elijah Nunez drove in a combined three runs in the 8th. Matthew Bollenbacher, Erik Tolman and Austin Amaral combined for six more scoreless bullpen innings.

THIS BULLPEN, MAN: The FredNat bullpen continues to be a dominant unit for Fredericksburg. After six more scoreless innings last night, the bullpen ERA stands at 2.92, which is not only the best in the Carolina League, it's the best in all of Single-A baseball. The FredNats currently have six relievers that have an ERA under three heading into this game with the RiverDogs. The bullpen has logged 98.2 innings this year compared to the starting rotation's 67.2, and the group has 119 strikeouts and only 49 walks.

MORE ON THE BULLPEN: The six relievers with an ERA under three so far are Austin Amaral, Erik Tolman, Matthew Bollenbacher, Merrick Baldo, Merritt Beeker and Adam Bloebaum. That group has allowed a combined 10 earned runs this year, and the group has a strikeout-to-walk ratio of nearly 4:1.

SUPERMAN VAQUERO: Cristhian Vaquero has enjoyed his best series of the season this week against the RiverDogs, and last night was his best individual game of the year. He went 3-for-5 with two runs knocked in, and with the FredNats up 5-1 in the 7th with the bases loaded, he made an incredible diving catch to save extra bases. He then popped up, threw the baseball home and held everyone.

TIME FOR SOME HARDWARE: Jorgelys Mota was named the Carolina League Player of the Week for his effort last week in Fayetteville. The 19-year-old third baseman had a game-tying or go-ahead hit in the 8th inning or later of three out of the six games in that series. He hit a game-tying two-run homer in the 8th inning of Tuesday's game, drove in the eventual winning run in the top of the 9th of Thursday's game, and Friday night, hit a game-tying two-run double in the 8th inning. In the series, Mota went 8-for-22 (.364) with a home run, three doubles, a triple, six RBI, five walks and four stolen bases.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN: While the FredNats don't have a ton of Top-30 prospect talent on this current roster, the team does have a wealth of experience returning, with 20 players out of 30 on the Opening Day roster having played for the FredNats before, and eight returners who played in the 2024 playoffs. Additionally, nine members of Washington's 2024 draft class appear on the Opening Day roster. Opening Day roster players that participated in the 2024 playoffs include Merritt Beeker, Adam Bloebaum, Robert Cranz, Alexander Meckley, Kevin Bazzell, Jorgelys Mota, Nate Ochoa and Cristhian Vaquero.

2024 CHAMPIONS: The 2024 Fredericksburg Nationals won the franchise's sixth total Carolina League championship last September, defeating the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers two games to one to capture the crown. It was the franchise's first since moving to Fredericksburg in 2020, and the first since the Potomac Nationals won the Carolina League in 2014. The FredNats broke the Charleston RiverDogs' run of three titles in a row, and became the first non-Charleston team to win the league since MiLB realigned to its current leagues in 2021.

NEW SKIPPER IN TOWN: After Jake Lowery's third season as Manager of the FredNats ended in a Carolina League championship in 2024, the FredNats welcome Billy McMillon as the third Manager in Fredericksburg franchise history. McMillon, 53, has spent the last three seasons in the Nationals organization as the Development Coach for Triple-A Rochester. Prior to joining the Nationals, he coached for over a decade in the Boston organization, managing at all four full-season levels and also spending three seasons (2016-18) as the organization's base running and outfield coordinator. He also played parts of six seasons in the Major Leagues with Oakland, Detroit, Philadelphia and Florida. He's joined on the staff by returning Pitching Coach Justin Lord, returning Hitting Coach Mike Habas, Development Coach Luis Ordaz, returning Athletic Trainer Jacob Meyer, Strength & Conditioning Coach Mike Reiskind, and Performance Analyst Samantha Unger.

A LASTING LEGACY: The Fredericksburg Nationals adopt the franchise history of their predecessors in the Carolina League dating back to 1978...the Alexandria Dukes (1978, 1980-83) and Alexandria Mariners (1979) played at Four Mile Run Park in Alexandria, Virginia...the Prince William Pirates (1984-1986), Prince William Yankees (1987-1988), Prince William Cannons (1989-1998), Potomac Cannons (1999-2004) and Potomac Nationals (2005-2019) played at G. Richard Pfitzner Stadium in Woodbridge, Virginia...the franchise has won six Carolina League championships, as the Dukes in 1982, as the Yankees in 1989, and as the Nationals in 2008, 2010 and 2014. The franchise won its first league title as the Fredericksburg Nationals in 2024.
