ABOUT LAST NIGHT...

The Blue Jays and Mets split their doubleheader on Saturday, with the Blue Jays taking game one 9-2, before falling in the nightcap, 11-4. Aldo Gaxiola added to his 2nd inning home run with a two-run go-ahead double in the 4th inning to break a 2-2 tie and give Dunedin the lead in game one, where the Jays scored seven unanswered runs to finish the ballgame. In game two, Dunedin got out to an early 3-0 lead in the 1st inning, but the Mets scored 11 unanswered runs of their own with the help of several walks and hit-by-pitches.

YOUNG SAVAGE

Trey Yesavage made his second rehab appearance for Dunedin on Thursday, and fanned six batters in 2.2 frames after resuming play in game one. Despite a rocky first inning of work where he allowed four runs, Yesavage retired the last six batters he faced in order, with five of those outs being recorded by strikeout. He threw 52 pitches for 34 strikes. Per Blue Jays Manager John Schneider, Yesavage is expected to make "one more minor-league start" before the team determines the next steps in his eventual return. According to Schneider, his next outing is expected to take place sometime in the middle of next week, with the weather set to determine the location and minor-league level. Yesavage is expected to up his pitch count closer to 70 pitches.

BLAINE MEANS BUSINESS

Blue Jays No. 15 prospect Blaine Bullard rocketed his first pro home run, a solo blast, in the 5th inning of game one on Thursday. The 19-year-old Bullard's solo shot left the bat at 102 MPH and traveled 358 ft. and came off four-year MLB veteran Jose Marte. His long-ball comes after he ripped the first pitch he saw as a pro last Friday for a triple off of Pirates No. 3 prospect Seth Hernandez.

LICOURT IS IN SESSION

Yorman Licourt made an immediate impact in his season debut, homering in his first two at-bats of the season last Saturday vs. Bradenton for his first professional multi-homer performance. Then last night, Licourt lined an opposite field two-run homer in the 1st inning of game two for his third home run of the season. Each of Licourt's first three hits this season left the ballpark before a 3rd inning single in game two. He is one of two Class-A players with three homers this season. Licourt's 3rd inning single left his bat at 108.2 MPH. Licourt has reached base in all six games this season. After switch-hitting throughout his entire life, Licourt begins 2026 batting left-handed full-time, a transition he made at the end of Spring Training.

JOJO! HAVE YOU LEARNED NOTHING?

With his leadoff double in game one on Saturday, Blue Jays 2025 first-rounder Jojo Parker extended his hit streak to five games, over which he's batting .294 with 3 2B, 3 RBI, 5 BB, and a .925 OPS. Parker, the Jays No. 2 prospect and No. 45 prospect in MLB, put the baseball world on notice this spring. He slapped a single at 109.1 MPH in the Blue Jays Spring Breakout game, and launched home runs in Minor League Spring Training at 109.3 MPH and 111 MPH.

GAX ON, GAX OFF

After starting his season in an 0-for-17 skid, Aldo Gaxiola broke out in game one of Saturday's doubleheader. He socked a solo homer in the 1st inning for his first hit of the season, then smoked a go-ahead two-run double in the 4th to give Dunedin a 4-2 lead. Gaxiola's two-run double left his bat at 110.7 MPH, the hardest hit ball by a Blue Jay this season. Only eight FSL players have hit a ball harder in 2026. Dunedin batters recorded just one hit in all of 2025 over 110.7 MPH, a 112.2 MPH single by Yeuni Munoz.

THE IOWA MEAT TRUCK

On Saturday, Peyton Williams lined a two-run double in the 5th inning of game one, then added an RBI double in the 1st inning of game two as part of a two-hit night. Williams has hit safely in five of six games for Dunedin this season and has reached base in all six. His six RBI this season are T-5th most in the FSL while his nine hits are T-3rd.

BARRIERA IS BACK

LHP Brandon Barraera takes the ball for Dunedin in the series finale. He was handed the loss in a rain-shortened start on Tuesday, throwing two innings over which he allowed two runs on five hits with no walks and one strikeout, before rain suspended the contest. Barraera entered 2026 having thrown in only 13 games, only five of those being non-rehab appearances, totaling 27.1 innings due to various injuries including Tommy John, a fractured forearm, elbow sprain, bicep soreness, and shoulder injury. His start in the series opener was his first time pitching in a non-rehab game in over two years, since April 6, 2024.

GRANDE LIGUA

The Twins homered twice in a seven-run 3rd inning that propelled them to a 7-4 come-from-behind win against the Jays at Rogers Centre on Saturday afternoon. Trevor Larnach launched a three-run home run off Blue Jays starter Eric Lauer, capping off the inning that helped the Twins erase an early 2-0 deficit. The win leveled the series at one game apiece. Beyond the loss, the Blue Jays suffered another blow when designated hitter George Springer exited the game with a left big toe fracture. Max Scherzer is scheduled to start the series finale on Sunday afternoon against Taj Bradley.

2026 DUNEDIN BLUE JAYS COACHING STAFF

Ryan Casteel | Manager Year with Toronto: 1 | Year with D-Jays: 1 | Born: Chattanooga, TN

Casteel makes his managerial debut in 2026, joining the Blue Jays organization after a 14-year professional playing career. Casteel spent time in the Colorado Rockies, Seattle Mariners, and Atlanta Braves farm systems, while also playing winter ball in Australia and Puerto Rico. A four-time minor league All-Star, he was named Australian Baseball League MVP in 2013 after earning California League Catcher of the Year honors that summer with the Mariners' High-A Modesto Nuts. Casteel spent parts of six seasons at the Triple-A level, including the final four years of his career with the Gwinnett Stripers. After being placed on the Gwinnett Development List for much of the 2024 season, Casteel was activated for a July series against Jacksonville and delivered a ninth-inning, walk-off home run on July 12 in his first game in nearly two months, lifting the Stripers to a 7-6 win after entering as a late-game defensive replacement. Two days later, on July 14, he announced his retirement following a nearly 900-game minor league career. Casteel immediately transitioned into a coaching role with Gwinnett and served as a coach with the FCL Braves in 2025 before stepping into his first managerial role. Was Arizona Fall League teammates with Blue Jays Farm Director Joe Sclafani in 2014 for the Salt River Rafterers on a team that won the AFL Championship and also included Byron Buxton, Trevor Story, Taylor Rogers, Max Kepler, and Tyler Heineman.

Brett Kennedy | Pitching Coach Year with Toronto: 2 | Year with D-Jays: 1 | Born: Galloway, NJ

Kennedy enters his first season as Dunedin's Pitching Coach and second with the Blue Jays organization after leading the Complex League Champion FCL Blue Jays pitching staff in 2025. Kennedy enjoyed a nine-year professional playing career, including MLB service time with the San Diego Padres in 2018 and the Cincinnati Reds in 2023. A Fordham University graduate, Kennedy takes over for fellow Ram Cory Riordan, who was named the Blue Jays' Pitching Coordinator after three seasons in Dunedin.

Nash Knight | Hitting Coach Year with Toronto: 3 | Year with D-Jays: 3 | Born: Denton, TX

Knight returns for his third season as Dunedin's Hitting Coach. Under Knight's guidance in 2025, Dunedin ranked among the Florida State League's top offensive clubs, finishing fourth in batting average (.244) and home runs (85), second in slugging percentage (.371), and third in OPS (.716). Through the first 46 games of the 2025 season, the Blue Jays led the league in home runs (41), on-base percentage (.368), slugging percentage (.416), OPS (.784), and runs scored (292). Eight position players earned their first promotions to High-A in 2025 under Knight, including JR Freethy, who reached Double-A by season's end. The Denton, Texas native spent six seasons as a player in the Blue Jays organization from 2015–2021, reaching the Triple-A level. He also spent time with the Rangers and Twins in his final season on the diamond 2022. A Dallas Baptist University product, Knight hit .245/.350/.352 while playing in 556 career minor league games. Knight suited up for Dunedin in parts of two seasons, playing 105 career games at TD Ballpark in his career, notably playing all nine positions in a game on Sept. 2, 2018 for a team managed by Casey Candaele. Was a member of 2017 FSL Co-Champion Dunedin team which was managed by current Toronto skipper John Schneider and included future big leaguers including Vladimir Guererro Jr, Bo Bichette, Lourdes Gurriel Jr, Jordan Romano, and Ryan Borucki. Majored in kinesiology at DBU. Brother, Austin, has coached at DBU, Texas A&M, and most recently coached in the Mariners organization.

Ashley Stephenson | Bench Coach Year with Toronto: 4 | Year with D-Jays: 2 | Born: Mississauga, ON.

Stephenson returns for her second season on Dunedin's coaching staff and fourth with the Blue Jays organization. Stephenson spent the 2025 season as a Position Coach for Dunedin, primarily working with the outfielders. She spent the prior two seasons in the same role with the High-A Vancouver Canadians, where she helped guide the club to a Northwest League championship in 2023. Inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in 2024, Stephenson has enjoyed a storied multi-sport career. She starred collegiately in hockey at Wilfrid Laurier University, winning four conference titles and a CIS National Championship before playing professionally in both the National Women's Hockey League and Canadian Women's Hockey League. On the diamond, Stephenson represented Canada's women's national baseball team from 2004–2018, earning two Team MVP honors, an All-Star selection at third base at the 2008 IBAF World Cup, and the 2011 Baseball Canada Jimmy Rattlesnake Award, which was later renamed in her honor. In 2022, she became the first woman to manage a Canadian national baseball team, leading her squad to two victories over Team USA in the Friendship Series, before joining the Blue Jays organization.

Andy Fermin | Position Coach Year with Toronto: 9 | Year with D-Jays: 1 | Born: Cleveland, OH.

Fermin joins the Dunedin staff as a Position Coach in his first season with the club. A former infielder in the Blue Jays farm system from 2010–2016, Fermin has remained with the organization in a coaching capacity following his playing days. He served as a coach with the Double-A New Hampshire Fisher Cats from 2017–2019 and was part of the 2018 Eastern League championship staff under current Toronto Manager John Schneider. He served as Hitting Coach for the DSL Blue Jays in 2021 and managed the club from 2022–2023. He returned stateside as manager of the FCL Blue Jays in 2024 before serving as the club's Bench Coach in 2025. Fermin returns to Dunedin after spending parts of three seasons at TD Ballpark as a player in 2014–2016. His father, Felix, played mainly shortstop over 903 MLB games from 1987–1996 while with Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Seattle and Chicago (NL).

Antonio Caceres | Ast. Pitching Coach Year with Toronto: 26 | Year with D-Jays: 2 | Born: Cotui, DR

Caceres spent the past three years as the Pitching Coach for the FCL Blue Jays. A lifelong member of the Blue Jays organization, Caceres was signed out of the Dominican Republic by Toronto when he was 17. He played in their minor league system from 1995–1998, before he transitioned to a pitching coach role in 2000. He's spent the past 24 years working as a pitching coach at the lower levels of the farm system, mentoring stars over the years including Aaron Sanchez, Noah Syndergaard, Joe Musgrove, Jordan Romano, Daniel Norris, and Roberto Osuna. Has served as Pitching Coach under Dennis Holmberg for 10 seasons, also working under current Blue Jays coaches Brent Lavallee, Jose Mayorga, Cesar Martin, Dallas McPherson, and current Miami Marlins Manager Clayton McCullough.

2025: Posted a 3.38 ERA in 32 games of relief between FCL Blue Jays and Class-A Dunedin during pro debut season. Broke camp in Dunedin, where he struggled to begin the season, yielding runs in each of his first four outings and posted an ERA north of 7 in April. At the end of the first month, he was demoted to the Florida Complex League, where he blew a save and was walked-off on by the FCL Yankees in his first outing. After that, Eshleman would throw three no-hit innings and pick up the win in his next outing vs. FCL Yankees, and did not allow a run for nearly a month. He was promoted back to Dunedin on May 24, following nearly three weeks in the FCL. Upon his return, Eshleman dominated opponents, going 4-1 with a 2.45 ERA in his final 22 games of the season.

2024: Did not appear in any games after signing with Toronto.

COLLEGE NOTES: Pitched three seasons at D3 Hamilton College in Clinton, NY. Threw to a 4.76 ERA with 42 K in 34 IP in 14 appearances (seven starts) as a freshman in 2022. As a sophomore in 2023, Eshleman posted a 1.14 ERA in eight appearances (seven starts) with 51 K/3 BB in 31.2 IP. In his junior season in 2024, went 4-1 with a 2.05 ERA and set a program single season record with 69 K in 57 IP. He made eight starts overall, and tossed three complete games, including a 14 K performance vs. Middlebury on March 29. Earned All-NESCAC and All-Region honors. Overall in three seasons with the Continentals, Eshleman went 9-4 with a program-record 2.57 ERA (Min. 90 IP), and a program-record 162 K in 122.2 IP.

CAREER NOTES: Signed as an undrafted free agent by the Blue Jays on August 1, 2024. Became the first player in Hamilton program history (since 1885, 139 years) to sign a professional contract. Was pitching for the Vermont Mountaineers in the NECBL after his junior year in 2024, enjoying a rare day off by taking a trip to Burlington, VT when his agent, John Shinn, also a Hamilton grad called to tell him he had been offered a professional contract. "You're about to make history. Let's Go Blue," Shinn told him. Eshelman was committed to Rutgers University for his junior season, but decided to back out and remain at Hamilton "I knew what I would be giving up at Hamilton — my friends, coaches, the school, and everything that it had to offer," he said. "I wanted to come back. I just knew Hamilton was my home."

PERSONAL NOTES: Native of Collegeville, PA, a Philadelphia suburb. Was a state champion at Devon Prep in 2019, where he also played soccer and volleyball. Grew up a Phillies fan, favorite player was Aaron Nola. Lists his High School Travel Baseball Coach, Con Aquilante as having had the biggest impact on his career. Collects baseball cards. Wanted to play volleyball in college before baseball.

Changeup: 3.8% | 86.2 mph Cutter: 9.4% | 86.4 mph

SCOUTING REPORT: The right-hander wields a three-pitch mix that features a fastball that sits in the 93-95 range and tops out at 98 MPH, a gyro slider that's his main put-away pitch that produced solid whiff rates, and a changeup that flashes potential with more usage down the line. Ligon joins the Blue Jays with an arsenal highlighted by a mid-to-high-90s fastball and is another example of Toronto betting on stuff after he struggled with his command at Mississippi State, but still struck out 27.9 per cent of hitters in 2025.

COLLEGE NOTES: Began collegiate career by pitching two years at the University of Miami in 2021 and 2022, before transferring to Mississippi State for the 2023, 2024, and 2025 seasons. Ligon became a full-time starter as a grad senior in 2025 after only throwing 23.2 innings in 2024 and relieving 13 of his 15 appearances. In his final season in Starkville, he posted a 5.40 ERA across 56.2 innings while walking 29 and punching out 73, starting in all 15 weekends on the year. On March 31, 2023, Ligon pitched 8 shutout innings, allowing only three hits while striking out six in an upset victory over rival Florida State, earning Ligon ACC Pitcher of the Week honors. In the 2022 season Ligon was named Freshman All-ACC, Pitched in 16 games, making 15 starts in rookie campaign...Finished season with 6-6 record, 4.90 ERA and 67 strikeouts over 75.1 innings pitched....Posted 4-1 mark and 1.45 ERA, while holding opponents to .197 batting average across first seven appearances.

PERSONAL NOTES: Sarasota native, an hour-and-a-half drive from Dunedin. Ligon said he received offers from two teams in the seventh round of the draft, but declined them both for financial reasons before accepting the Blue Jays' offer. Only Canadian knowledge was from a trip to Niagara Falls in his youth with his family. Son of Jeff and Page Ligon. Has one older brother, Kendall. Got engaged to fiancé, Amanda, this offseason.

CAREER NOTES: Ligon's Kick-Change is his most used secondary offering, complimenting a 95 MPH FB. The pitch was ranked as having the best advanced data on a kick-change at the D1 level last year. Ligon transferred because he felt like he had the chance to develop better if he left Miami. Early on in the process he narrowed his list of schools down to seven, visited four, and fell in love with Starkville on his visit and knew that's where he wanted to go by the time he left Mississippi. On his way to his recruiting visit, he missed his connecting flight due to delays and they ended up flying him into Birmingham, almost 2 and a half hours from campus. Pitching Coach Justin Parker drove to pick him up in Birmingham, so they had the chance to catch up for a couple of hours in the car and build a strong relationship. On the visit, Ligon was blown away by the facilities and the pitching lab, and they showed him some video and analytical breakdown of his pitches and how they plan to develop him. Upon being drafted by Toronto, he follows up former Bulldogs starter Khal Stephen who was taken by the organization in the 2nd round in 2024, and high school signee JoJo Parker was selected eighth overall by the Blue Jays in 2025. Ligon hit 100 MPH in the Cape Cod League last summer, and said he got emotional in the dugout when he got back and found out he hit 100 MPH on trackman, saying that's something every baseball player dreams of. On baseball atmosphere at Mississippi State: would be stopped on the street and asked to take photos and sign autographs. "Starkville definitely is a baseball-only place," Ligon said. "The people there love their baseball and they kind of live and die with the wins and losses. When you're losing or you're not performing, the fans let you hear it, and when you're winning and you are performing, they really let you hear it. That's what makes it such a cool place because it really matters to the whole city."

COLLEGE NOTES: Pitched freshman season at Tacoma Community College in 2023. Named 2023 NWAC First Team All-Region and 2023 First Team All-NWAC. Went 3-0 with a 0.23 ERA in 14 appearances and two starts. Led conference in ERA and was 2nd with a 0.76 WHIP. Transferred to Auburn for his sophomore and junior campaigns in 2024-25, pitching to a 7.25 career ERA in 32 games. As a junior, he appeared in 17 games of relief this season for Auburn, posting a 7.39 ERA with two saves in 28 innings.

CAREER NOTES: Selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 18th round of the 2023 MLB Draft but chose to honor his commitment to Auburn. One of three Auburn Tigers to join the Blue Jays after last years draft (Eric Snow; 8th rd., Carson Myers; UDFA). Myers and Watts roomed together during draft camp. Watts said he was pleasantly surprised to be drafted as early as he was, as he was expecting to go closer to 10th round. The pick was the money saver by the Blue Jays to go over-slot to sign Tim Piasentin, who was their 5th round selection.

COLLEGE NOTES: Spent parts of six seasons playing college baseball. Began collegiate career at Southeastern Community College in his hometown of West Burlington, Iowa for three years (two seasons, plus the 2020 COVID season), before Wissinger spent his last three college seasons at Southeastern University (NAIA). Logged 190.2 college innings over his six years. Tallied 48.1 innings pitched in three seasons at SCC and recorded 17 saves. Held a career 1.86 ERA. Finished the 2021 season with a 0.43 ERA after allowing just one earned run in 21 innings and striking out 38. In 2023, his first season at Southeastern U, Wissinger had an unbelievable season as the Flame's closer in 2023, posting a 0.86 ERA and 81 strikeouts over 41.2 innings for a team that reached the NAIA World Series and went 58-6. Wissinger was named a 2023 First Team NAIA All-American and the 2023 NAIA Reliever of the Year. After another season as the closer in 2024, his coaches decided to move him to the rotation, where he made 12 starts and owned a 3.20 ERA in 2025. He began his final collegiate season with 32 straight scoreless innings.

CAREER NOTES: Signed by the Blue Jays as an Undrafted Free Agent on July 18, 2025. Expected to be selected in the 2023 MLB Draft out of JUCO, but his name was not called. "I had a lot of people telling me I might get drafted, and I was a little frustrated when it didn't happen," Wissinger said. "I think I have earned a shot to see what I could do," he told a local newspaper. Was coached at Southeastern by Adrian Dinkel, who left SEU to spend a year coaching in the Yankees organization before landing the BYU Head Coach job. Recent Southeastern University players in the Blue Jays farm system include JJ Sanchez, Colby Martin, and Jay Schueler.

PERSONAL NOTES: Credits JUCO Head Coach Justin Schulte with shaping him into the man he is today on and off the field.

COLLEGE NOTES: Played his freshman year in 2022 at UC-San Deigo where he was a two-way player, before transferring to the University of San Diego, where he played three seasons. Over his four collegiate seasons, Smith hit .305 across 213 college games with 20 home runs and 160 RBI. As a left-handed pitcher, he posted a 16-9 record and a 4.12 ERA in 53 college appearances and 28 starts while striking out 168 batters. Smith's final outing as a Torero saw him earn the win after pitching the final seven innings of San Diego's 14-inning thriller in the WCC Tournament Championship, allowing just three runs on four hits as he used 99 pitches to put his team in position to earn a walk-off victory. As a senior in 2025, Smith batted a career-high .353 with 46 runs, six homers, and 48 RBI. His go-ahead 14th-inning home run at No. 14 UCLA on April 6 helped the Toreros stop a 6-24 skid to begin the season and sparked a 10-game win streak. He put together a 26-game hit streak from March 1 to April 16 that included 14 multi-hit performances and ultimately fell just five games shy of the longest streak in program history. Smith earned All-WCC First Team selections in 2024 and 2025 after helping the Toreros hoist a trio of West Coast Conference trophies, including the 2024 WCC Regular-Season and Tournament titles and the 2025 WCC Regular-Season crown. His other career accolades include being named a 2024 All-American by both the ABCA and the NCBWA, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award Finalist (2024) and Semifinalist (2025), and 2024 WCC All-Tournament Team honors. His USD career included 98 starts as a designated hitter, 27 starts in center field, 30 starts in left field, and three games in right field in addition to his 28 career starts on the mound. He finished his college career with a .987 fielding percentage that saw him commit just three errors in 232 chances.

CAREER NOTES: Selected in the 10th round (292nd overall) of the 2025 MLB Draft by the Blue Jays, and signed for below-slot value.

PERSONAL NOTES: Father, Brian, was drafted out of Granite Hills High School by the Seattle Mariners in 1995 and played five seasons of professional baseball, including two in Seattle's minor league system. Attended Granite Hills HS in El Cajon, CA, also played football for three seasons, was named team MVP his sophomore year. Sociology Major. Notes that after extensive training he gained 25 pounds during the 2020 season that was canceled due to COVID-19. Enjoys going to the desert and river, golfing, and fishing in his free time. Austin's younger brother is a freshman on the baseball team at Washington State. Hobbies include golf, pickle ball, fishing, snow boarding. Has two labs, Axel and Tyson.

- Saturday Game One: 1-for-3 with a leadoff double and a walk

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES: Attended Purvis High School, where Parker played on varsity in the 8th grade. As a senior in 2025, Parker hit .465 in 37 contests, driving in 70 runs and posting a .665 on-base percentage. Purvis has made the playoffs in each of the last 14 seasons and won four state championships, including in 2023 when Parker came up with the bases loaded, nobody out in the bottom of the 10th inning in 2023 Mississippi State Championship, and hit a walk-off sac fly on the first pitch to lift the Tornadoes to their 1st title since 2012.

DRAFT NOTES: Selected in the 1st round, 8th overall, by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 2025 MLB Draft and signed for a $6.2 million bonus. The Blue Jays sent 14 different scouts and talent evaluators to watch Parker play ahead of the draft. The Blue Jays had scouted Parker for who years, and displayed high levels of interest leading up to the draft. Parker was expecting to be selected within a pick or two of Eli Willits, the top prep infielder in the draft. Despite being mocked closer to the Blue Jays, Willits went first overall to the Nationals in a surprise selection. Parker first was called by his agent with the Blue Jays offer, then after hearing his name called at a draft party at his local church, got a call from Blue Jays Scouting Director Marc Tramuta. "There was quite a consensus in the room, between scouts and analysts," said Tramuta. "This was one of the best, if not the best, hit-power combos, with plate discipline, that we felt (was) in the draft."

CAREER NOTES: Parker received D1 offers when he was in the 8th grade, and committed to Mississippi State going into his freshman year. Parker told the Toronto media after being drafted that he never had a hitting coach, fielding coach. He was invited to Rogers Centre to take BP and field ground balls with the Blue Jays before a September game last season.

PERSONAL NOTES: Full name is Joseph John Parker. Fraternal twin, Jacob, was also a highly touted draft prospect with first round hype in 2025, but chose to honor his commitment Mississippi State. The twin brothers do absolutely everything together and are extreme competitors in everything, from ping pong to golf, who could eat the fastest. JoJo hit leadoff and Jacob hit second on their high school team, and they were often walked back-to-back because nobody wanted to face them. JoJo and Jacob attended all the same showcases, played on the same teams, were Co-Mississippi Players of the Year, in the same BP group at the MLB Draft Combine, and both committed to Mississippi State. Some teams, including the Blue Jays, White Sox, and Rangers even discussed drafting the pair together in 2025, although no teams were able to meet Jacob's signing bonus demands. The twins played football through junior year of high school, with JoJo at QB and Jacob his top target at WR. Parker's father, Joesph (Jop), became paralyzed in nearly all of his body at 16 years old after going to make a tackle on the football field, breaking his neck and he has been confined to a wheelchair ever since. Despite being told he wouldn't even be able to graduate high school, Jop went on to become a lawyer and is currently a county court judge. Despite not being able to have a catch with them, Jop coached all of the twins little league teams growing up. Native of Purvis, MS, is a small, old railway town of approximately 1900 people per the 2020 census, which was a stop on the New Orleans to Northeast Rail Line. JoJo described it as a three stop light town with a couple of stop signs here and there. The Parker family grew up close friends with the family of MLB No. 1 prospect Konor Griffin. Griffin and Parker are best friends, and played on the same teams growing up before Griffin reclassified, and they train together in the offseason. Closest MLB team to his home in Mississippi was the Atlanta Braves, over six hours away, so never had a favorite team but grew up idolizing Derek Jeter. Hobbies include fishing, hunting, and play golf. In 2nd grade wrote on a piece of paper that his teacher gave him that he wanted to be an MLB baseball player.

COLLEGE NOTES: Attended Stanford, where he was a two-time Pac-12 Champion (2022, 2023). Hit 12 homers and batted .255 over his final two collegiate seasons. Was named to the Buster Posey Award Watch List his Senior season, an honor given to the best catcher in college baseball.

PERSONAL NOTES: With one year of eligibility left since he'd missed almost his entire sophomore year due to injury, Saum entered the transfer portal this past summer and committed to the University of Hawaii. Saum's father was in the navy, and their family lived in Hawaii when he was between the ages of 7-12, attending many Rainbow Warriors games and that's where Saum says he fell in love with baseball. Saum said it was an extremely difficult decision to have to pick between pro ball and Hawaii. At Sanford, Saum became close friends and roommates on road trips with Japanese phenom Rintaro Sasaki, the all-time Japanese high school home run record holder who made the surprising decision to attend an American college, forgoing Japan's professional pipeline in a way that could accelerate his path toward Major League Baseball. The two would make common treks to In-N-Out, where they'd get a double-double burger and animal-style fries. Teammates with Micah Bucknam with the Y-D Red Sox in the Cape Cod League in 2024. Majored in Science, Technology, and Society.

CAREER NOTES: Saum played for various Team USA Youth National teams growing up, including taking home a gold medal in the WBSC U-15 Baseball World Cup, and taking part in the 2019 17U National Team Development Program. He won national world championship on a team that included Pete Crow Armstrong, Marcelo Meyer, Roc Riggio, Brady House, Andrew Painter, and Jared Jones.

COLLEGE NOTES: Played four seasons at Washington State University (Pullman, WA) for the Cougars, where he appeared in 132 games and hit .249. As a senior in 2025, was All-Mountain West Conference Second Team and batted .329 with five home runs along with a team-high 43 RBI and 10 multiple-RBI games while his 19 runners thrown out caught stealing led the league. Was named to the 2024 and 2025 Buster Posey Award Watchlist (Best College Catcher).

CAREER NOTES: Selected in the 18th round of the 2025 MLB Draft by the Blue Jays (532nd overall). Became the first Cougar catcher drafted since P.J. Jones in 2015 and the first Cougar drafted by Toronto since shortstop Cody Bartlett in 2011. Participated for Team Great Britain at the 2026 World Baseball Classic. His connection to Great Britain comes from his dad, who was born in England. He played in an offseason tournament for Team Great Britain, and earlier this spring got a call from the team's Manager Brad Marcelino asking if he wanted to be apart of the WBC. Cresswell served as the backup catcher behind Harry Ford, and entered in the 8th inning as a defensive replacement in Great Britain's 9-1 loss to United States, catching while Kyle Schwarber, Aaron Judge, and Alex Bregman came to the plate. He also started in GB's exhibition game vs. San Diego, facing Joe Musgrove, and got a pinch-hit at-bat in GB's exhibition game vs. Milwaukee.

PERSONAL NOTES: Native of Tacoma, WA. Uncle, Jonathan Cresswell is a professional ultimate frisbee player in Taiwan. This offseason, he binge-watched all six Harry Potter movies in one rainy weekend in Washington. Neice, Mackenzie, was also born this past offseason.

2025: Assigned to Class-A Dunedin upon being drafted, where he batted .160 in 16 games with 3 RBI.

COLLEGE NOTES: Played one season at Alabama in 2023, then transferred to his hometown school, Florida State University for his sophomore and junior seasons. Made only four starts for the Crimson Tide as a freshman. Immediately took over starting duties at FSU upon transferring, and played in 97 games over his two seasons in Tallahassee, starting 87 of those. As a sophomore, he hit .274 with three homers and 29 RBI over 51 games. Had a career-high four hits in the College World Series elimination game win over the University of North Carolina on June 18th, which included a 9th inning home run. West was named to the CWS All-Tournament team. He was also a part of the Tallahassee All-Regional Team. Florida State, under Link Jarrett, was the eight seed in the 2024 CWS and made it to the semifinal where they fell to Tennessee before the Volunteers took down Texas A&M in the finals. In his 2025 junior campaign, West hit .236 in 46 games. Helped Florida State to a second consecutive NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2025, a first since 2015-17, and a runner-up finish in the ACC, the team's first in 11 years.

CAREER NOTES: Selected in the 16th round with the 472nd overall pick in the 2025 MLB Draft by the Blue Jays. Became the first Blue Jays FSU pick since CJ Van Eyk in 2020. Was one of 11 FSU players selected in the 2025 MLB Draft, a school record and tied for the most among all NCAA programs in the 2025 draft.

PERSONAL NOTES: Tallahassee native graduated from Chiles High School. Dad, Kip played and coached baseball at Tallahassee Community College and was a professional scout for the Indians, Rays, and Yankees organizations. Brother, Gage, played baseball at Florida State from 2014-2016 and played professionally in the Frontier League. Majored in kinesiology. Was summer ball teammates with Eric Snow in the Cape Cod League.

2024: Batted .189 with a .556 OPS in 53 games for the FCL Blue Jays. Led the FCL Blue Jays in runs (26), homers (4), and RBI (21). Went 4-for-5 with 3 2B, 3 R on FCL Opening Day vs. PHI on May 4. Hit .298 over the first 25 games of the FCL season with 3 HR, 10 XBH, and a .847 OPS. Over the final 29 games, Bonilla hit .106 with 1 HR, 2 XBH, and a .324 OPS. Hit .375 in 24 at-bats vs. LHP.

2023: Starred for the DSL Blue Jays during 50 games in his professional debut. Batted .307/.407/.429 with 3 HR and 22 RBI. Led DSL Blue Jays in average, hits (58), and TB (81). Went hitless in his first three professional games before he went on a 21-game on-base streak that included a 13-game hit streak. Hit .281 with RISP during the regular season.

CAREER NOTES: Signed by the Blue Jays on January 15, 2023 for $4.1M, their largest ever bonus dished out on the international market, eating up 77.6% of their $5,284,000 bonus pool. Was ranked as the No. 7 International Prospect in the 2023 class per MLB Pipeline. Per Baseball America's scouting report, scouts saw Bonilla as having "one of the best combinations of hitting ability and power" in the signing class. Ran a 60-yard dash in 6.65 seconds at a showcase. Trained with Ysbel Medina in the Dominican Republic as an amateur. Was hitting balls 105+ MPH off the bat as a 17-year-old in the DSL, reaching an in-game max exit velocity of 108 MPH per Baseball America. At 18 years old, he was the youngest player on the Blue Jays inaugural spring breakout game roster in 2023.

- Rocketed his first pro home run, a solo blast, in the 5th inning of game one on Thursday to cut the deficit to four. Bullard's solo shot left the bat at 102 MPH and traveled 358 ft. The 19-year-old's blast came off four-year MLB veteran Jose Marte.
- In his professional debut on Friday night, Bullard went 2-for-4, RBI, R, 3B. He swatted the first pitch he saw from Pirates No. 3 prospect Seth Hernandez off the right-center field wall for a triple in the bottom of the 1st inning, his first pro hit. He also brought home a run on an infield single in the 7th inning which tied the ballgame at 4-4. His first pro RBI, the base hit came on the 9th pitch off the at-bat.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES: Batted .444 in 33 games as a senior at Klein Cain High School with seven homers and a 1.484 OPS, won District MVP. Played Wide Receiver and Safety on the football team. As a Junior, was named 1st Team All-District, 68 receptions for 1229 yards, 12 TD. Set school record for receiving yards in a game in a playoff game. Hudl highlights from junior season include a 95-yard TD reception and a 98 yard kickoff return for a TD. Stopped playing after Junior season to focus on baseball.

CAREER NOTES: Selected by the Blue Jays in the 12th round (352nd overall) of the 2025 MLB Draft, signed for $1.7M, the highest ever signing bonus in the 12th round of the draft. Bullard felt good about his pre-draft workouts with the Blue Jays and had built a very strong relationship with Jays Texas Area Scout (Brad Jacob or Steve Riha) so knew Toronto was interested. Was committed to Texas A&M and described the decision as very difficult but a win-win. Since the draft was moved back to July, Bullard had already been on campus in College Station for a couple of weeks doing workouts when he was drafted. Said he had just gotten comfortable with his roommates and a lay of the campus before being forced to make the decision. Attended 2025 MLB Draft Combine at Chase Field.

PERSONAL NOTES: When he was in the northeast playing in a Cooperstown baseball tournament as a kid, his family made a trip to Toronto to see the Jays play at Rogers Centre and stayed in one of the hotel suites that overlooks the field, so he's always had a connection with the Blue Jays in that regard. Grew up an Astros fan and a fan of Mike Trout and George Springer. Initially batted right handed and threw left handed and didn't start switched hitting until 11 years old.

Licourt's 3rd inning single left his bat at 108.2 MPH. Licourt has reached base in all six games this season.
- Saturday Game one vs. BRD: 2-for-2, 2 HR, 3 RBI, 2 R, 2 BB) homered in his first two at-bats of the season, recording his first professional multi-homer game. His first homer, a solo blast in the 2nd inning of game one, left the bat at 109.4 MPH and traveled 398 ft. His second homer, a two-run blast to the opposite field in the 3rd, left the bat at 100 MPH and traveled 350 ft. His long balls were the first by a Blue Jay this season

2025: Played 55 games for league-champion FCL Blue Jays before being promoted to Dunedin on August 5 where he played in 13 Class-A games to end the season. Batted .171 for Dunedin with 1 HR, 8 RBI, the home-run being a three-run blast on August 16 @ TAM as part of a two-hit, four-RBI game. In FCL batted .230 with 6 HR and 41 RBI. His 41 RBI were second on the team behind David Beckles' 42, and were 3rd most in the FCL circuit. His 23 XBH were second in the league. Was twice named FCL Player of the Week. The first time, May 26-June 1, he batted .313 with two doubles, a triple, two homers, and 12 RBI, including a six-RBI game on May 27 vs. FCL YNK. The second time, July 1-6, he went 7-for-10 with five doubles and a homer in his three games. Slapped a 111.8 MPH Triple in one of the FCL team's games played at TD Ballpark where there was exit data, also homered at 107.5 MPH in that game.

2024: Played 41 games for the DSL Blue Jays upon signing with Toronto, where he batted .282 with 4 HR, 25 RBI, and a .807 OPS.

CAREER NOTES: Signed by the Blue Jays as an international free agent on May 28, 2024 as a 20-year-old for $600,000, after Licourt left Cuba in 2023 and settled in Mexico. Played in the 2023-24 Cuban National Series, where he was more than 10 years younger than his average teammate on the Vegueros de Pinar del Rio, based in the western city of Pinar del Rio, the Vegueros are historically one of the more successful teams in the Cuban National Series, winning ten championships, most recently in 2014. Tabbed by Baseball America as the No. 11 prospect from the 2025 Florida Complex League.

- In Friday's season opener, stepped up with the bases loaded and two outs in the 7th inning with the Blue Jays down three and lined a two-run single for his first Dunedin hit and RBI's.

2025: After signing with the Blue Jays in May, De Los Santos was assigned to the FCL Blue Jays. In 50 games for the league champions, he batted .271 with 14 RBI, .382 OBP and 11 SB. He was assigned to Double-A New Hampshire on September 5, and played in two games for the Fisher Cats, where he would go 1-for-5, including a single and a walk in his first Double-A game on September 7 then made a diving catch in centerfield his second game on September 10.

2023-2024: Played 38 games for the DSL Red Sox in pro debut season in 2023, and saw action in 46 games for the FCL Red Sox in 2024 where he batted .232.

CAREER NOTES: Initially inked an International Free Agent deal with the Boston Red Sox on January 15, 2023. De Los Santos was released by the Red Sox on March 23, 2025, and picked up by the Blue Jays as a Free Agent on May 8.

- Saturday DH: Lined a two-run double in the 5th inning of game one, then added an RBI double in the 1st inning of game two as part of a two-hit night. Williams has hit safely in five of six games for Dunedin this season and has reached base in all six. His six RBI this season are T-5th most in the FSL while his nine hits are T-3rd.
- G2 on Thursday: tripled home a run in the 5th inning of game two as part of a three-hit night. His hits left the bat at 106 MPH, 105.7 MPH, and 98.7 MPH. Williams tallied his second multi-hit game of the season, and Dunedin's first three-hit game of the season. His 5th inning three-bagger was his fourth professional triple.

2025: Played 88 games for Double-A New Hampshire, over which he batted .217 with 9 HR and a .633 OPS. Became the first Fisher Cat in franchise history to hit a pinch-hit walk-off home run on 4/16 to beat HBG 10-9 at Delta Dental Stadium. Batted .160 over first 25 games of the season. Placed on Development List on July 18 and missed all of August until being reactivated on September 2.

2024: Was limited by injury to 77 games for High-A Vancouver, batted .289 with 11 HR and a .838 OPS for the C's. Named 2024 NWL All-Star. Participated in the Arizona Fall League, where he batted .286 with 3 HR in 20 games and was named a league All-Star. He participated in the league's home run derby, where he belted 7 HR in the first round.

2022-23: Played 28 games for Class-A Dunedin in 2022 pro debut...split 2023 between Dunedin and High-A Vancouver.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons at the University of Iowa. Named to the first-team All-Big Ten roster in 2022, boasting a .317 career batting average. Made Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American list in 2020

PERSONAL NOTES: Nicknamed "The Iowa Meat Truck." Back home in Des Moines, Iowa, Williams' neighbor owns a business called the Iowa Meat Truck, which sells and delivers premium meats. That neighbor gave Williams a shirt with the company's logo, and one day, Williams threw it on before heading to the ballpark. The coaching staff loved it, as did Vancouver Canadians Broadcast Tyler Zickel, who began working it onto the broadcast whenever able. Growing up, Williams was usually six inches taller than most of his classmates. He said his parents have pictures of him as a 10-year-old hovering over the other kids. By his freshman year of high school, Williams checked in around 6-foot-5. Grew up idolizing Anthony Rizzo for his abilities as a left-handed hitting first-baseman.
