

2024 TRIPLE-A BASEBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP
PLAYOFF CHASE

UPDATE: Monday, September 13

WILD RACE TO THE FINISH AS RED-HOT CONTENDERS CHASE 1ST PLACE CLIPPERS

With just over a week to go until the end of the 2024 regular season, the Columbus Clippers remain out in front of the 20-team International League playoff race.

With a handful of red-hot contenders keeping the pressure on the leaders, the Clippers have pulled off three straight come-from-behind victories this week to keep a 2.5-game edge on 2nd place Worcester.

None of the League's top five clubs in the standings will face each other down the stretch. Each of the top five wrap up their home schedule this weekend before finishing on the road next week.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE STANDINGS TOP FIVE CONTENDERS (Thru 9/12)
	REC	PCT	GB
Columbus (CLE)	42-23	.646	-
Worcester (BOS)	40-26	.606	2.5
Indianapolis (PIT)	39-26	.600	3.0
Scranton/WB (NYY)	38-28	.576	4.5
Nashville (MIL)	35-28	.556	6.0

1st PLACE – COLUMBUS CLIPPERS

Games Remaining – 9 (3 at home this weekend vs. St. Paul / 6 away next week at Toledo)

CURRENT MAGIC NUMBER: 7 (7 total Clippers wins + Worcester losses)

2nd PLACE – WORCESTER RED SOX (-2.5 Games)

Games Remaining – 9 (3 at home this weekend vs. Syracuse / 6 away next week at Lehigh Valley)

Worcester has won six straight and ten of the club's last eleven games. If all games scheduled are played, the Red Sox and Clippers cannot finish with a tied record.

3rd PLACE – INDIANAPOLIS (-3.0 Games)

Games Remaining – 9 (3 at home this weekend vs. Rochester / 6 away next week at St. Paul)

Indianapolis has won five straight and eight of the club's last ten games. Columbus owns the tiebreaker advantage over Indianapolis, having won eight of eleven games head-to-head in the second half.

4th PLACE – SCRANTON/WILKES-BARRE RAILRIDERS (-4.5 Games)

Games Remaining – 9 (3 at home this weekend vs. Lehigh Valley / 6 away next week at Buffalo)

SWB has won two in a row and seven of the club's last ten games. If all games scheduled are played, the RailRiders and Clippers cannot finish with a tied record.

5th PLACE – NASHVILLE SOUNDS (-6.0 Games)

Games Remaining – 10 (4 at home this weekend vs. Memphis / 6 away next week at Norfolk)

Nashville has lost two straight after winning four out of six last week. The Sounds were rained out Thursday and will play a doubleheader Saturday. If all games are played, the Sounds and Clippers cannot finish tied.
