HILL CITY DOUBLE: After dropping last night's series opener, the FredNats are still clinging to first place in the Carolina League North by half a game with Carolina's loss last night. Fayetteville is also only one game out of first place, so this is a true three-team race right now for the second playoff spot in the North. Lynchburg has already clinched its spot in the playoffs with the first half title. Today's doubleheader is a make-up from July 19 in Fredericksburg, so the FredNats will be the home team in the second game of tonight's DH. Rehabbing Chase Solesky starts game one, and Brayan Romero starts game two, aiming to build on back-to-back six-inning starts.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT: Fredericksburg's offense went 1-for-14 with runners in scoring position and left 11 men on base in a one-run loss to the Hillcats, 3-2 in the series opener. Eli Willits extended his hitting streak to five games to open his professional career, and Nick Peoples drove him in with an RBI double. R.J. Sales pitched five solid innings and took a tough luck loss, and the FredNat bullpen was flawless, with Merritt Beeker striking out four in two scoreless and Tucker Biven making his pro debut with two strikeouts in a perfect inning.

SLUGGIN' GUS: On the two-week home stand that just finished, the FredNat offense was one of the best in the Carolina League. In the two weeks the team was at home, Fredericksburg was third in the Carolina League in runs (80), second in hits (111), first in home runs (10), second in total bases (166) and team OPS (.761). The FredNats also went 22-for-23 stealing bases on the home stand. The team had seven hitters hitting over .300 during this stretch, led by Kevin Bazzell at .407.

WOWED BY WILLITS: 17-year-old Eli Willits - the number one overall pick in the 2025 MLB Draft - made his professional debut Thursday night, and has hits in all five professional games he's played so far. Overall, Willits is 7-for-17 with three walks, three RBI and two stolen bases. Willits, Washington's No. 1 prospect and the 18th best in all of baseball, won't turn 18 until December. He became the youngest FredNat ever, the youngest player in the Carolina League this season, and is currently the second youngest active player in full-season Minor League Baseball. Andrew Salas of the Jupiter Hammerheads is four months younger than Willits. Willits comes from a baseball family, his father Reggie played six seasons in the Major Leagues and is currently the Associate Head Coach at the University of Oklahoma, where his older brother Jaxon is the starting shortstop.

INSTANT IMPACT: The members of Washington's draft class that are already with Fredericksburg have had exceptional starts to their professional careers. 2nd rounder Ethan Petry (South Carolina) has played 13 games with Fredericksburg, and is hitting .340 with a .955 OPS. He's drawn 10 walks in 13 games as well. 15th rounder Jacob Walsh (Oregon) hit his first professional home run Wednesday night, and 14th rounder Nick Hollifield (UAB) has been a clutch force with the bat for the FredNats. On the last home stand alone, Hollifield had five game-tying RBIs in the 6th inning or later, plus a walk-off single on Sunday against Salem. Hollifield is 8-for-15 with runners in scoring position to begin his FredNat career, driving in runs in five out of his last six games.

START EARLY, HOLD ON LATE: The FredNats are 58-58 overall this season, but are 16 games over .500 (34-18) when scoring first in 2025. In the first two innings this season, Fredericksburg has been outscored 92-121 (-29). Fredericksburg has also been exceptional at holding on to late-game leads this year. The team is 42-1 when leading after seven innings, and 35-1 when leading after eight.

WHY TRY IT?: Fredericksburg's MiLB-leading caught stealing total is up to 88. Heading into play today, Kevin Bazzell leads MiLB by three with 57 caught stealings and owns the best CS% of all MiLB catchers who have played at least 400 innings this year, throwing out 40% of would-be base stealers. 10 of FBG's caught stealings have come against Lynchburg this season.

THE STAFF: After Jake Lowery's third season as Manager of the FredNats ended in a Carolina League championship in 2024, the FredNats welcome Billy McMillon as the third Manager in Fredericksburg franchise history. McMillon, 53, has spent the last three seasons in the Nationals organization as the Development Coach for Triple-A Rochester. He also played parts of six seasons in the Major Leagues with Oakland, Detroit, Philadelphia and Florida. He's joined on the staff by returning Pitching Coach Justin Lord, returning Hitting Coach Mike Habas, Development Coach Luis Ordaz, returning Athletic Trainer Jacob Meyer, Strength & Conditioning Coach Mike Reiskind, and Performance Analyst Samantha Unger.

A LASTING LEGACY: The Fredericksburg Nationals adopt the franchise history of their predecessors in the Carolina League dating back to 1978...the Alexandria Dukes (1978, 1980-83) and Alexandria Mariners (1979) played at Four Mile Run Park in Alexandria, Virginia...the Prince William Pirates (1984-1986), Prince William Yankees (1987-1988), Prince William Cannons (1989-1998), Potomac Cannons (1999-2004) and Potomac Nationals (2005-2019) played at G. Richard Pfitzner Stadium in Woodbridge, Virginia...the franchise has won six Carolina League championships, as the Dukes in 1982, as the Yankees in 1989, and as the Nationals in 2008, 2010 and 2014. The franchise won its first league title as the Fredericksburg Nationals in 2024, defeating the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers two games to one to win the title at Virginia Credit Union Stadium.

McMillon, 53, joined Washington in 2022 and has spent the last three seasons as the Development Coach for Triple-A Rochester. McMillon played parts of six Major League seasons with four different organizations, including the Oakland Athletics (2001-04), Detroit Tigers (2000-01), Philadelphia Phillies (1997), and Florida Marlins (1996-97). The former Clemson Tiger was a three-time International League All-Star and the 1996 IL Rookie of the Year with Charlotte, earning him induction into the IL Hall of Fame in 2019 and Charlotte's Round Table of Honor in 2022. McMillon was initially selected in the eighth round of the 1993 MLB Draft by Florida. He replaces Jake Lowery, who managed the FredNats the last three seasons, culminating in a championship last year. Lowery will manage High-A Wilmington in 2025.

Prior to joining Washington, McMillon coached in the Boston Red Sox organization for over a decade. He managed the Worcester Red Sox (Triple-A) in their inaugural season in 2021 after managing Boston's former Triple-A affiliate Pawtucket in 2019. He was set to lead the PawSox again in 2020 before the cancellation of the MiLB season. Prior to managing at the Triple-A level, McMillon was the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for Boston from 2016-18 after managing for six seasons in the organization with Double-A Portland (2014-15), High-A Salem (2012-13), and Single-A Greenville (2010-11). His coaching career began in 2008 when he was Greenville's Hitting Coach.

The Alabama native and Florida State alum was scheduled to be the Fredericksburg Pitching Coach in the canceled 2020 season, and was the Pitching Coach for one season in Double-A Harrisburg prior to joining the FredNats in 2023.

MIKE HABAS - HITTING COACH

- Set a goal for himself to make his Major League debut by age 20 at his introductory press conference...only two players in Nationals history have debuted by age 20: Bryce Harper and Juan Soto
- On draft night, Washington's interim general manager, Mike DeBartolo, said the Nationals thought Willits was both the best hitter and best fielder available and "so advanced for a 17-year-old"
- Was committed to the University of Oklahoma, where his brother, Jaxon, is the starting shortstop...their father, Reggie, played for six seasons at the Major League level with the Los Angeles Angels
- Reggie brought Eli and Jaxon to Angel Stadium often as kids and the brothers would take batting practice in left field so they could hit home runs into the bullpen
- With Reggie coaching at OU, Eli participated in intrasquad scrimmages with the Sooners starting at age 14...before the draft, scouts thought he was the best player on the field in the scrimmages
