QUARTER OVER NINE: Amarillo pitchers matched their season-high with 15 strikeouts for the game. It came just a week after originally setting the mark back on May 29th on the road in Arkansas. Dyle File started it with six of his own as he continues to creep closer to 500 career strikeouts. The right-hander is now sitting on 456 through his first 112 professional games. Luke Albright added four strikeouts to inch closer to the Sod Poodles all-time strikeout mark currently held by Brandon Pfaadt. After his four on Wednesday night, Albright currently sits just 19 shy of breaking Pfaadt's record of 180 career strikeouts as a Soddie. Kyle Amendt made his first appearance at HODGETOWN after a promotion from High-A Hillsboro last weekend. The former Dallas Baptist hurler struck out the side during his lone inning of work for Amarillo Wednesday night. His promotion to Double-A came after just 21 career minor league games. Through his first 27.1 IP, Amendt has totaled 57 strikeouts, good for a staggering 18.9 K/9.

BATER TOTS: Matt Beaty got his first multi-hit game as a Sod Poodle under his belt after finishing the night 2-for-4 with a pair of singles. He had two of Amarillo's four total hits for the game. He did it against his former organization and the team he was with when he won Texas League Player of the Year in 2017. He went on to play 240 career regular-season games with the Dodgers between 2019-2021 and was a World Series Champion with them in 2020. Through his first nine games with Amarillo Beaty has six hits, including a double.

TWO-KOVICH: A.J. Vukovich picked up his team-leading 12th double of the season to give the Sod Poodles their only run for the game on Wednesday. It was his 31st career double with Amarillo and is now fifth all-time in two-baggers as a Sod Poodle. He trails current teammates Tim Tawa (1st, 36) and Caleb Roberts (T-3rd, 33). His RBI on Wednesday night was his 27th of the season to put him in solo first for the season and extend his all-time RBI record total to 132.

HAVE PERCY: Cole Percival ensured that the Sod Poodles losing streak wasn't making it to three games with the win in the series opener over Tulsa. The right-hander turned in his fourth consecutive quality start and lowered his season ERA to 4.75 after allowing two runs on three hits over his six quality innings on Tuesday night. Over the course of his last four starts, Percival has set career-highs in innings pitched (7.2, 5/17 vs. FRI), strikeouts (10, 5/29 at ARK), and pitches thrown (99, 5/29 at ARK). In his last 26.2 IP, he has allowed seven earned on 19 hits with 27 strikeouts. He suffered a couple of tough-luck losses in his previous two starts, losing both games despite turning in a quality outing. His four quality starts are tied for the most by an Amarillo starter this year, doing so in just eight games.

OH, HE'S STEALING: Wilderd Patino stole his 14th base of the season on Tuesday and has the second-most steals in the D-backs farm system this year behind Hillsboro's Andrew Pintar (16). After starting the year 0-for-2 in steal attempts he is 14-for-15 since. His 135 total steals since the start of the 2022 season are 3rd among all minor-league players. He trails Jonatan Clase (146, SEA) and Chandler Simpson (144, TB).

THIS IS SPARTA: Tuesday's win over the Drillers marked the 300th regular-season win in Amarillo Sod Poodles team history. The Sod Poodles boast a winning record against every Texas League North Division team and two of their four Texas League South Division rivals. Through the first 586 regular-season games in team history, only Frisco (56-57) and San Antonio (29-36) have gotten the better of the Sod Poodles.

CHECK TUESDAY, BROTHER: The series opening win over the Drillers gave Amarillo their seventh win of the season on Tuesdays, the most of any day of the week so far in 2024. Amarillo improved to 7-2 on Tuesdays and 7-3 in the first game of the series.

BILLY THE HONOR ROLL KID: Billy Corcoran was named the Texas League Pitcher of the Week following two outstanding starts against the Arkansas Travelers last week. In two appearances, the Amarillo right-hander went 1-0 with a 0.75 ERA, allowing just one earned run over 12.0 IP. The lone run that he allowed came via a solo home run in his start last Tuesday. It was one of just two total baserunners that he allowed in that start with the other coming via a walk but went on to set his Double-A high with six strikeouts. Corcoran followed that up by going another six scoreless on Sunday where he allowed just two hits - both singles. He retired 11 straight after issuing a one-out walk in the bottom of the first. It was the fifth Player / Pitcher of the Week award for a Sod Poodle this season and made it back-to-back Texas League Pitcher of the Week honors after Yilber Diaz earned his second of the season.

DIAZ x DIEZ: Making his 10th start of the season and second straight in a seven-inning doubleheader, Yiber Diaz helped save the Amarillo bullpen in game one on Saturday in Arkansas. The D-backs' no. 16-rated prospect went 5.0 IP and worked around a season-high five walks to limit the Travs to just one run on one hit with five strikeouts. His five punchouts were the least he has had over his last six starts and the second time he hasn't gotten to at least seven strikeouts in any of his starts this year. His 75 strikeouts this year are not just best in the D-backs' farm system but tops in all Double-A, and T-5th across Minor League Baseball. He is scheduled to start for the Sod Poodles on Friday night against the Drillers.

WALK THIS WAY: The Sod Poodles drew 14 walks in Northwest Arkansas on May 24th. It was the most walks ever drawn by the Sod Poodles in a single game, passing the previous high of 12 which was set on June 30, 2023, at Corpus Christi. The previous single-game high in 2024 was just seven, which Amarillo had at Frisco back on April 23rd. Five different players had at least two walks in the game led by Logan Warmoth and Tim Tawa who each drew three free passes to set their single-game high for the season.
