ABOUT LAST NIGHT - South Bend cruised their way to a 13-6 victory over Wisconsin last night, as Angel Cepeda had four hits, along with two home runs for his first career multi home run game. Josiah Hartshorn set a career-best with four hits as well. South Bend is down by 5.0 games in the West Division second-half standings, as Quad Cities now leads Beloit by two games after last night. South Bend awaits its first-round playoff opponent, which could be further determined this week.

RETURN TO APPLETON - This season, South Bend owns a 10-3 record against Wisconsin. In seven games at Fox Cities Stadium this season, the Cubs have scored 10 or more runs four times. Last time they were in Appleton in May, South Bend won four of five total games due to a Sunday cancellation. In the series, South Bend scored 74 total runs, including 25 runs on August 14, and 24 on August 16.

THE TOP PROSPECT - On July 23, MLB Pipeline named 19-year-old South Bend Cub Josiah Hartshorn the new No. 1 Chicago Cubs prospect. With 100 total RBI this season between Single-A Myrtle Beach and High-A South Bend, Hartshorn leads all first-year Minor League players in RBI this season. Nobody in Major or Minor League Baseball has more RBI than his 75 since debuting in South Bend on May 26.

MORE HARTSHORN - Hartshorn hit his 21st home run on the season, and 16th with the South Bend Cubs on Tuesday. Hartshorn now has the most home runs by a South Bend Cubs player in a single Midwest League season (since 2015). Last night, he passed Jordan Nwogu, who hit 15 in 2022, and Yonathan Perlaza, who did it in 2021. Also, Hartshorn's 20th homer was historic. He became the first Chicago Cubs teenage prospect to hit 20 homers in the Minor Leagues in a single season since Corey Patterson did it with the Lansing Lugnuts in 1999.

WELCOME BACK REGGIE - Playing his first game since April 30 last night, after going down with a left arm injury after a hit-by-pitch, Reggie Preciado had two base hits and three RBI along with a walk. Preciado started this season with the Cubs 7/14 at the plate in the first three games of the season. Preciado is the last remaining player involved in the 2020 Yu Darvish trade that sent the former Cubs right-hander to San Diego. The haul back to the Cubs included Preciado and Owen Caissie.

ESCOBAT - Since making his High-A debut on May 28, No. 16 Cubs prospect Jose Escobar has put together a terrific run at the plate, leading the High-A level in hits (80) across 68 games during that timeframe. Escobar has three separate 4-hit games since June 23, including the most recent one on July 22 against Wisconsin.

NO SOUP FOR YOU - Catcher Justin Stransky continues to help out the pitching staff in a big way, leading the Midwest League with 41 baserunners caught stealing this year. That also leads all of High-A, and is tied for the most in all of baseball. In comparison, MLB leader William Contreras has caught 23. Last year, Cubs catcher Ariel Armas led all of baseball in caught-stealings with 60. He also has 41 this season with Double-A Knoxville and is tied with Stransky.

BEST IN THE MIDWEST - The South Bend Cubs remain with the best record in the Midwest League at 70-48.

FIRST-HALF CHAMPS - For the first time since 2016, the South Bend Cubs secured a playoff spot by clinching the first-half in the Midwest League West Division. June 13 against the Peoria Chiefs was clinch night, with the Cubs toppling the Chiefs by a final score of 6-4. South Bend scored five runs in the 1st inning to start the game, and received home runs in the inning by Josiah Hartshorn, Jose Escobar, and Justin Stransky. The Escobar and Stransky round-trippers went back-to-back. In 2016, South Bend won the East Division title.

LAST TIME OUT: Has started eight straight games since pitching out of the bullpen twice in June. Had a rebound outing against West Michigan last week after struggling in Great Lakes on August 13. In Great Lakes, gave up six hits, and a pair of home runs. Chuck Davalan took Mulé deep on his first pitch of the game. Davalan homered off Mulé again in the 4th. Loons scored five times in the 1st, and three times in the 2nd. The 2nd inning featured three runs scoring on a single wild pitch with the bases loaded, with an error mixed in.

Last time out on August 20 against West Michigan, worked career-best 5.1 innings of one-run baseball. Mulé allowed four hits hit a man, walked two, and struck out six. Mulé has hit exactly one batter in four straight outings.

*Had six or more K's in three straight starts before outing at Great Lakes, punched out a career-high of eight on July 30 at Lake County.

Has been in and out of the rotation this year. Began the year as a starter, posting a 3.24 ERA in three April starts before hitting the Development List. Returned to primarily work in long relief from mid-May to late June. Put back into rotation in road trip preceding the All-Star break.

SPLITS: In his 13 starts this season, Mulé has posted a 5.48 ERA over 46.0 IP. All seven homers he has allowed this season have come as a starter. As a reliever, Mulé has a 3.18 ERA in 11.1 IP. The big difference in his splits is opposing batting average. Batters are hitting .263 when Mulé starts a game, as opposed to .147 as a reliever.

MWL 2025: Ended 2025 season with a no-decision effort vs the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers on September 4. Worked 3.2 innings, allowed two runs, a home run to Marco Dinges, four hits, two walks, struck out three. Made Midwest League debut on 8/21/25 against Cedar Rapids, giving up two runs in 3.1 innings. Allowed five hits, hit a man, walked four, struck out three. Took no-decision.

COMMAND: For the first time in his pro career, on June 20 at Fort Wayne, Mule did not walk a batter in an appearance on the mound. Mulé had walked at least one batter in every professional outing he had made with the Cubs organization, with 43 straight games.

OTHER CAREER NOTES: Born in Paterson, New Jersey, attended Passaic Tech High School in Wayne, New Jersey where he was drafted by the Cubs in the 4th-round of the 2022 draft (Overall pick 113)... Signed for 1 million with Cubs, giving up commitment and scholarship to the University of Miami (FL)..
