LAST GAME

The light at the end of the tunnel has been dimming for the Bowie Baysox, as they suffered their seventh shutout loss of the season on Tuesday afternoon, falling to the Akron RubberDucks 3-0. Bowie went 0-for-7 with runners in scoring position. Baserunners were a constant from Bowie early, as they pushed Akron starter Gavin Williams out of the game following just three innings. Right-hander Aaron Pinto allowed a two-out single to Andres Angulo in the fourth inning, which turned out to be the last hit for Bowie. Left-hander Cade Povich was working from behind often in his start for Bowie. Following a leadoff walk and base hit in the fourth inning, Jonathan Rodriguez lined a two-RBI double to the left field wall to give Akron the lead for good.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Akron has been the hottest team in the Southwest Division over the past month, and have an opportunity to complete their late-season comeback with this final six-game series. The last time these two teams met, Bowie was entering a seven-game series with an active eight-game win streak, but only won two of the seven games. Since the start of that series, Akron is 21-11, and Bowie is only 14-17. Akron has been dictated by their pitching plenty this season, their 3.53 ERA over that same span is the third-best in the league.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Thomas Ponticelli has been a bullpen arm for most of the season, and for most of his career in Minor League Baseball. While he did spend a portion of his 2021 campaign in the Akron rotation, Ponticelli has only made two spot starts this season, one for the Ducks and one for Triple-A Columbus. After spending the first two months of the season with the Triple-A club, he returned to Akron, and only allowed one earned run in his first seven appearances. He's been in the rotation for just over a month, but has only been able to finish the fifth inning once, and sports an ERA of 6.12 as a starter. Bowie scored three runs against Ponticelli in August over just four innings.

DASCH-ING THROUGH THE SNOW

First baseman Andrew Daschbach is on his best run of the season. Since the start of a 10-game hit streak that began on August 27, Daschbach is 13-for-42 (.310) at the plate, with three home runs and eight RBI. Daschbach only drew 42 walks in 105 total games last season, but is already up to 50 in just 98 games this season. Daschbach was known for his strikeouts in 2021, his 144 strikeouts were the second-most in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers (171). This season, however, Daschbach has already eclipsed his 2021 total with 153 strikeouts.

MEAT LEFT ON THE BONE

Some of Bowie's offensive woes this season have not been from a lack of effort. In fact, the Baysox are the team most likely to start an inning with a runner on base in the Eastern League. Bowie leads the league in all three slash lines (.272/.369/.465) from the first batter of an inning this season. They also lead the league in lead off doubles. All of those numbers combine to Bowie leaving 977 runners on base this season, the most in the league, and an average of 7.4 per game. Bowie has also stranded the most runners in scoring position in the league (722). Inversely, Bowie has the second-most strikeouts in the league when batting with runners on base (574). Since the start of their last series with Richmond, Bowie is only 4-for-55 (.073) at the plate with runners in scoring position.

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie has had a love-hate relationship with one-run games this season. One-run games have been one of the most common outcomes for Bowie this season, as their 49 one-run games leads the Eastern League. Their .429 winning percentage in one-run games (21-28) is the second-lowest in the Eastern League, trailing only Binghamton. The 28 one-run losses is the most in all of Minor League Baseball.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Justin Armbruster allowed only one hit in five innings in his previous start See Page 2 for more.

CAREER NOTES

- After making spaced out relief appearances in Low-A during his debut professional season, was a key piece of the rotation for High-A Aberdeen to open 2022. Going 2-1 with a 4.02 ERA in 12 starts.
- After opening the season slowly (seven ER in 11.2 IP) went on a strong run through the start of May, only allowing three ER in 19.2 IP while striking out 21 and walking only four batters from 4/28-5/18
- Had thrown at least 50 strikes in six of his final seven outings with High-A Aberdeen. Only outing below 50 strikes saw 47 strikes. All seven outings were above 60% Strikes Thrown.

NOTES BY OUTING

- 6/22 @ ERI Double-A Debut. Opened with two scoreless innings, but was tagged for three runs in the third inning, including a two-run home run by Dane Myers. Allowed singles in each of the next two innings, but worked double plays for both runners.
- 6/28 v RIC Piggybacked Matt Harvey on a rehab assignment, taking the last four innings. Allowed two single in his first inning, and one in the ninth inning.
- 7/3 v RIC Again piggybacked Matt Harvey. Struck out five of the first nine batters faced before allowing an automatic double and an RBI single. Struck out the side in the ninth for the save.
- 7/9 @ SOM Continued piggybacking rehabbers, as he followed Kyle Bradish. Allowed two leadoff singles and an RBI ground out in the sixth inning, as well as a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning, but Bowie pushed ahead in the ninth to win.
- 7/17 v AKR With a rainout ahead of the All-Star break, was again shifted into a relief role when Ryan Watson's start was pushed back. Opened with two scoreless innings of relief, but was hammered for six runs in the eighth inning, including two three-run home runs (one hit off of reliever Tyler Burch).
- 7/24 @ RIC After Bowie had taken a 6-0 lead, allowed a three-run home run in the third inning. Bowie eventually lost 7-6.
- 7/31 v ALT Retired the first 10 batters, then allowed two singles and a three-run home run, but the retired the final five batters.
- 8/6 @ HBG Retired the first eight batters before allowing an infield single. Allowed consecutive singles in the eighth inning but worked a double play.
- 8/12 @ AKR Walked the first batter, but worked a double play, and retired 16-consecutive batters, carrying a no-hitter into the sixth inning before allowing a pair of singles and a two-run home run.
- 8/20 v SOM Only worked three ground balls over five innings. Stranded two in scoring position in the first inning, and a solo home run in the fifth inning.
- 8/26 v ALT Only batter to beat him was Altoona's Malcom Nunez. Nunez had two hits and a solo home run, while Armbruster retired the other eight batters on his first two trips through the lineup.
- 9/1 @ ERI Needed 35 pitches in the first inning, limiting him to just three total innings. Allowed a solo home run to the second batter of the first, a two-run home run to the fifth batter.
- 9/7 v RIC Only hit allowed was a solo home run by Richmond's Tristan Peters. Walked the bases loaded in the fourth inning, but just needed a forceout to end the inning. Would have earned the win, but Bowie allowed five runs in the ninth inning to lose a lead and the game

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

PLAYER

Missed 85 games on the Injured List after appearing in just four games for Bowie at the start of the season. Crashed into the left field wall at Binghamton while making a game-ending catch. // Appeared in 106 games in 2021, good for ninth-most in the Orioles system, while his 13 home runs ranked 15th. 70 games in Bowie, 36 in Aberdeen. // Split his defensive time evenly on both corners of the infield, with 41 games at both bases. Also played 13 games in the outfield. // A native of western Pennsylvania, Welk did not fully anticipate to play baseball at a high professional level, choosing Penn State-Berks for their engineering program, but was drafted after hitting 34 career home runs, collecting a .433 batting average, and only striking out only 31 times. // Named the D3baseball.com National Player of the Year in 2019. // Was the first player ever drafted out of Penn State-Berks. // Just after his call-up to Bowie, he stopped sitting on pitch types, and started looking for pitches in specific locations to swing at. The change in approach helped him hit 11 home runs in 70 games.

COACHING STAFF

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
