PLAYING CAREER SUMMARY

- Played in the Minor Leagues for 13 years, between 1977 and 1990 and appeared in 999 games ... reached Triple-A and played 296 games at the level, including a handful (22 games) with the Omaha Royals ... an infielder, played 340 games at third base, 327 at shortstop and 314 at second base, in addition to nine at first base.
- Is the all-time games played leader for the Double-A Tulsa Drillers, appearing in 406 games for the franchise over five seasons, from 1980 to 1982 and again in 1985 and 1987 ... one of the only people in the city's history to appear in uniform for games played in Tulsa's three professional ballparks, Driller Park (1934-80), Drillers Stadium (1981-2009) and ONEOK Field (since 2010).
- Having played for the Omaha Royals in 1988 and 1989, became the third former Omaha player (of now six) to go on to manage the club when he was named the Triple-A Royals skipper in 1995.

PLAYING CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 1988-1990: Played three seasons in the Kansas City Royals organization, including 23 games in Triple-A with the Omaha Royals ... made his only two career appearances on the mound while in the Royals organization, pitching 1.1 innings in one game for Omaha in 1988, then two games for the Appleton Foxes in 1990, allowing one earned run in 4.0 innings (2.25 ERA) with three strikeouts as well.
- 1983-1987: Bounced between Double-A and Triple-A in the Texas Rangers organization, appearing in games for the Tulsa Drillers (AA), and Oklahoma City 89ers (AAA).
- Spent the entirety of the 1983 and 1984 seasons with Oklahoma City, with the majority of his playing time at second and third base, before splitting 1985 between Double-A and Triple-A ... missed all of 1986 and returned to Tulsa for the 1987 season, his last in the Rangers organization.
- 1980-1982: Across a span of three seasons, jumped from Class-A to Triple-A within the Texas Rangers organization, beginning with the Asheville Tourists (A) in the South Atlantic League before establishing himself as an everyday player with the Texas League's Tulsa Drillers (AA) and getting a taste of Triple-A with the Denver Bears (AAA).
- After spending all of 1981 with the Drillers with a career-best .251 (95-for-419) batting average, was a key member of the Drillers' Texas League Champion team in 1982 with a career-high .351 slugging percentage (29 XBH in 444 PA) but earned his first promotion to Triple-A and joined Denver late in the season, therefore not a part of the team's playoff run.
- Split the 1980 season between the Asheville Tourists (A) and Tulsa Drillers (AA), earning his first promotion to Double-A in his fourth pro season and went on to make at least eight starts at each of the four infield positions for Tulsa, with most of his playing time coming between second base and third base.
- 1977-1979: Began his professional career with the Texas Rangers organization in the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League, spending parts of two seasons with the GCL Rangers, before moving up to full-season baseball in Class-A with the Asheville Tourists and Wausau Timbers.
- Spent the entirety of 1979 with Wausau (A) in the Midwest League, a co-op team made up of players from the Cleveland, Texas and Seattle organizations ... produced a career-high .723 OPS, as he slashed .241/.374/.349 (98-for-407), also setting career-highs in hits (98), runs scored (64), home runs (7), runs batted in (54), walks (77) and on-base percentage (.374).
- Split the 1978 season between the league-champion GCL Rangers (R) and Asheville (A), combining to play in 99 games between the two levels, slashing .182/.355/.268 (51-for-280) with 15 extra-base hits (three home runs) and 26 runs batted in, while also drawing 68 walks.
- After being drafted by the Rangers in 1977, began his pro career playing 13 games with the GCL Rangers and split time between third base (eight games) and shortstop (five games).

CAREER REVIEW

William Pless Fleming is entering his 5th year in professional baseball, his 4th in the Kansas City Royals organization ... after being drafted by Seattle in 2021 out of Wake Forest, he was traded to Kansas City in June 2022 and began his 2024 season in Triple-A.

Across the last three seasons (since 2022), Fleming ranks 7th among Royals Minor League pitchers in innings (266.2) ... among those with at least 200.0 innings pitched, he has the 4th-lowest walk rate (8.1%).

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

- Opened the year on the breaking roster for NW Arkansas (AA), but assigned to Omaha on April 3 before making his season debut ... made 5 starts in Triple-A, then assigned back to NWA May 13 and finished the season in Double-A ... between the two levels, appeared in 27 games (20 starts), going 4-6 with a 7.22 ERA (84 ER in 104.2 IP) with 60 strikeouts.
- Faced 3 over the minimum in his Triple-A debut, firing 4.2 scoreless innings April 7 at Columbus (CLE), allowed 2 hits with 0 walks and 6 strikeouts ... retired his first 5 batters and 13 of his first 14.
- Bounced between the bullpen and rotation for the Naturals, making 15 starts and 7 relief appearances ... never made more than 2 consecutive relief appearances, pitching anywhere from 0.1 inning to 5.0 innings out of the pen.
- Threw 1 quality start for NWA, allowed 2 earned runs in 6.0 innings on July 3 vs. Springfield (STL) ... one of only three Double-A starts where he allowed 3 earned runs or less.

SEASON-BY-SEASON RUNDOWN

2023

- Split his season between Quad Cities (A+) and NW Arkansas (AA), combining for a 4.11 ERA (49 ER in 107.1 IP) over 23 appearances (19 starts) ... cut his home run total in half, giving up 9 long balls in 2023 (0.75 HR/9) after surrendering 18 homers in 2022 (1.32 HR/9).
- Tied a career-high with 8 strikeouts in his first start of the season, on April 8 vs. South Bend (CHC) ... allowed 2 runs on 3 hits and 1 walk with the 8 strikeouts.
- Turned in 3 quality starts, including back-to-back starts July 16 and July 22, his last in High-A and first in Double-A ... on July 16 vs. South Bend (CHC), held the Cubs to 2 runs over 6.0 innings with 0 walks and 7 strikeouts ... on July 22 vs. Tulsa (LAD), pitched 6.1 scoreless innings, his only start of the season pitching into the 7th inning, with 7 strikeouts.
- While he was called up to Double-A on July 18, his 2023 game log shows his first outing with NWA on July 9, the same day he started for Quad Cities ... NW Arkansas and Arkansas (SEA) had their July 9 game suspended in the middle of the 4th inning and did not resume until September 12, when Fleming took over on the mound ... he pitched the final 5.0 innings of the game and allowed just one run to earn what is "technically" his first Double-A win.

2025 MEDIA GUIDE

2024 SEASON NEWS AND NOTES

2024 IN REVIEW: The Omaha Storm Chasers finished with a 89-59 overall record, finishing 1st in the International League West Division and 1st overall out of the 20 teams in the International League, 0.5 game ahead of the second-place Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders (Yankees Triple-A). The Storm Chasers took sole possession of the top spot in the IL on May 1 and led the league the rest of the way, for the final 144 days of the regular season. Omaha won the first half title to secure not just the 19th playoff berth in franchise history, but also home field advantage in the International League Championship Series. After starting the season 4-4, the Chasers maintained a record above .500 for the final 141 games of the season, peaking at a season-best 32 games above .500 on August 25, with a 78-46 record. At home, Omaha went a league-best 46-26 (.639), while going 43-33 (.566) on the road, the second-best mark in the league.

RECORD SETTING SEASON: Omaha's 89 wins in 2024 set a single-season franchise record, while the team's .601 winning percentage sits as the 2nd-best in the 56-season history of the Triple-A Omaha club. The 2024 Chasers broke the franchise wins record with their 87th win of the year September 17 at Louisville, a 7-1 victory over the Bats. The previous record was held by the 86-win 1990 Omaha Royals that won the Triple-A Classic 4 games to 1 over the Rochester Red Wings (Baltimore Orioles Triple-A). Omaha came one win shy of setting the franchise winning percentage record in 2024, needing 90 regular season wins to set a new club best. The best winning percentage in Triple-A Omaha history is from the inaugural 1969 Omaha Royals at .607 (85-55). Prior to 2024, the 1969 season was the only year the Triple-A Omaha club finished with a winning percentage greater than .600.

IN GOOD STANDINGS: After winning the first half with a 49-24 record, Omaha finished the regular season as the best overall team in the International League as well, 30 games over .500 with a 89-59 record (.601 winning percentage). Of the 120 full season Minor League teams, Omaha's .601 winning percentage overall this year ranked as the 9th-best. The Palm Beach Cardinals (Cardinals Single-A) were the best team in Minor League Baseball with a .638 winning percentage (83-47 record), 89 wins tied for the 2nd-most of any team in Minor League Baseball this season (tied with Scranton/WB) and ranked only behind the 93-win Sugar Land Space Cowboys (Astros Triple-A). The Chasers were 1st or 2nd in the Minors in wins every day between May 25 and September 6 and Omaha held sole possession of the best winning percentage in full-season Minor League Baseball for 30 days, June 5 to July 5.

A TALE OF TWO TEAMS: The 2024 Storm Chasers completed a remarkable turnaround from the 2023 club, one of the best year-to-year improvements in club history. In 2023, Omaha went 68-77, finishing 16th in the 20-team International League. An improvement of 21 wins from 68 in 2023 to 89 in 2024 are the most one year to the next in Triple-A Omaha franchise history. A 132-point improvement in winning percentage (.469 to .601) ranks as the 3rd-best year-to-year increase, with the 2021 Storm Chasers going 73-56 (.566) after going 59-80 (.424) in 2019. Omaha's 21-win difference from 2023 to 2024 was the 2nd-best improvement in Minor League Baseball this year, only trailing the Triple-A National Champion Sugar Land Space Cowboys that from 61 wins in 2023 to 93 in 2024 (32-win improvement). The Chasers' pitching was also one of the most-improved in the Minors, with Omaha's team ERA dropping from 5.33 in 2023 to a league-best 4.21 in 2024, the 3rd-best improvement of any Triple-A team. A drop of 1.15 in ERA is the best year-to-year difference in club history.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Omaha had three representatives among the International League awards and All-Star team – manager Mike Jirschele was named the league's Manager of the Year, while Evan Sisk and Walter Pennington were chosen as the two relievers on the 2024 International League All-Star team. Jirschele's Manager of the Year recognition is his first such award with Omaha in his 16th season as the Triple-A Omaha manager – he was previously recognized as the 1992 GCL Manager of the Year, the 1994 Carolina League Manager of the Year and the 1994 Minor League Manager of the Year by The Sporting News. Jirschele is the fourth Triple-A Omaha manager to be named a league manager of the year, joining Jack McKeon (1969 American Association), Joe Sparks (1981 American Association) and Sal Rendé (1990 American Association). Sisk earned his first career MiLB All-Star selection, appearing in a league-leading 58 games out of the bullpen for Omaha and went 6-2 with 15 saves, a 1.57 ERA (10 ER in 57.1 IP) and 81 strikeouts (12.72 K/9). Sisk ranked 3rd in Minor League Baseball in appearances and 4th in the league in saves. Pennington also earned his first career MiLB All-Star selection, appearing in 37 games for Omaha (2 starts) while going 6-3 for the Storm Chasers with a 2.26 ERA (15 ER in 59.2 IP) with 79 strikeouts (11.92 K/9). Pennington was traded to Texas July 29 in exchange for Michael Lorenzen and 15 of his 17 appearances to end the year in the Rangers organization came in the Major Leagues. The three award winners in 2024 are Omaha's first league award winners since the 2021 Triple-A East All-Star honors and league awards, when Jackson Kowar (Pitcher of the Year), Ryan McBroom (All-Star DH) and Bobby Witt Jr. (Top MLB Prospect) were recognized by MiLB.

I'M DIFFERENT, YEAH, I'M (RUN) DIFFERENT(IAL): Omaha outscored its opponents 792 to 662 this season, a +130 run differential. A +130 run differential this year was both the best mark in the International League and in Triple-A, ahead of Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (+127). Omaha ranked 8th in Minor League Baseball in run differential, with the Midland Rockhounds leading the Minors at +180 (674 to 494). The +130 mark ranks as the 2nd-best run differential in franchise history, trailing only the 1969 Omaha Royals that ended the year at +163 (805 to 642).

SERIES SPEAKING: The Storm Chasers won 15 series in 2024, of the 27 regular season series, including 11 separate 6-game series wins. Outside of the 15 series wins, Omaha had 6 series splits this season and just 5 series losses. Over the last 6 series, Omaha won 3 and split 3. Omaha had two stretches of going over a month without losing a series, 7 straight series between late April and mid-June, as well as 6 consecutive series from mid-July to late August. Last year, Omaha had just 8 series wins, including just 3 at Werner Park. This year, the Chasers had 10 series wins at home. There were 5 instances where Omaha lost 3 of the first 4 games of a series and won the last 2 to avoid a series loss, including 3 straight series from July into August. 2 times, the Chasers lost 2 of the first 4 games and won the last 3 for a series win.

WIN, WIN, WIN, NO MATTER MONTH: The Storm Chasers had a record above .500 in every month of the season but September, setting a club record in the process. The Chasers went 2-1 in March (.667), 12-9 in April (.571), 23-6 in May (.793), 15-11 in June (.577), 12-11 in July (.522) and 16-11 in August (.592). In September, Omaha was 9-10 (.474). Prior to this year, Omaha had never gone more than 4 straight months with a winning record (in the Storm Chasers era). Even the back-to-back National Champion teams in 2013 and 2014 each had two losing months. In total, Omaha had a winning record in 7 consecutive months, dating back to September 2023. The Chasers needed to win the last game of the regular season to finish September with a winning record (and set a franchise overall winning % record), but Omaha fell to Louisville 6-0 September 22, a 1-hit shutout loss.

RELIEF AID: Omaha's bullpen was arguably the best at the Triple-A level in 2024. Storm Chasers relievers lead all Triple-A bullpens with a 3.71 ERA, 1.33 WHIP and .220/.323/.347 opposing slash line. The .218 opponents' batting average ranked tied 20th among all 120 full-season Minor League teams. Omaha's bullpen combined to not allow a run in 41 regular season games this year, roughly one in every 3.61 games in 2024. The bullpen also had 21 games without a walk this season, including 12 times in the 2nd half of the season. In the 1st half of the season, the Chasers led Triple-A with a 3.58 bullpen ERA, while ranking 5th among the 120 full-season Minor League teams with a .208 opponents' average. extras, extras, read all about it

EXTRAS, EXTRAS, READ ALL ABOUT IT: The Storm Chasers played 17 extra-inning games in 2024, after playing a franchise-low 4 in 2023. They went 10-7 in extra-inning games this year, tied for the league lead in extra-inning wins. 10 extra-inning wins were not only tied for the most in the league, but also at the Triple-A level, tied for the 5th-most in the Minors. Palm Beach led MiLB with 12 extra-inning wins, while Pensacola went 11-1, the highest winning percentage (.917) among teams that played at least 10 extra-inning games. Omaha opened the season with back-to-back extra-inning games, March 29 and 30 vs. Iowa, both walk-off wins for Omaha, the first time the Chasers had played back-to-back extra-inning games since July 2 and 3, 2019 @ Round Rock, both games Omaha lost. The last time the Storm Chasers won back-to-back extra-inning games was July 6, 2016, when Omaha won both games of a day/night doubleheader in Iowa against the Cubs. 17 extra-inning games falls 3 shy of the Triple-A Omaha franchise record of 20 in a season (in 1995 & 1997). 10 extra-inning wins was one short of the club record of 11 (in 1970, 1978 & 2007).

TOGETHER FOREVER

Omaha has been the Triple-A affiliate of the Kansas City Royals since 1969, the first year in the history of both franchises. Their ongoing relationship is the longest at the Triple-A level and the third-longest in all of Minor League Baseball. Only the Reading Fightin' Phis (Philadelphia Phillies) and Lakeland Flying Tigers (Detroit Tigers) have been affiliated with their parent clubs longer, both beginning their relationships in 1967.

FROM OMAHA TO THE HALL OF FAME

George Brett played 133 games for the Omaha Royals between the 1973 and 1974 seasons before enjoying a prolific Major League career that earned him induction into the Royals Hall of Fame and the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Though they did not play for the current Omaha franchise, there are two other National Baseball Hall of Famers who played in Omaha during their careers. Charles "Kid" Nichols played for the Omaha Mahogs in 1889 and Bob Gibson—who is immortalized with a statue outside Werner Park—played for the Omaha Cardinals from 1957-1959.

While Brett is the lone alum of the current franchise to be enshrined in Cooperstown, he is one of ten former Omaha stars to earn induction into the Royals Hall of Fame. The other nine Omaha alums inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame are: Kevin Appier ('89-'90, '98, '04), Steve Busby ('72, '78, '80), Mark Gubicza ('91), Dennis Leonard ('74-'75, '82), Jeff Montgomery ('88, '97, '99), Dan Quisenberry ('79), Paul Splitteroff ('69-'71), Mike Sweeney ('96-'97, '02-'03, '06-'07), and Willie Wilson ('77).

Scorigami: A portmanteau of score and origami, a scorigami is a scoring combination that has never happened before in a team, sport or league's history. The term was originated by SB Nation writer Jon Bois for NFL scores.

Above is a matrix of every final score that has happened in a Triple-A Omaha game since 2000. Green squares represent Omaha wins, while red squares represent Omaha losses. The number inside the square refers to the number of times that result has occurred. Empty squares represent a scoring combination or result that has not happened.

Since 2000, there are 58 results in Triple-A Omaha games that have only happened once, those games are bolded in the table on the next page. 34 of those results (wins or losses) are a true scorigami, a scoring combinations that have only happened once, and those games have an N/A in the column next to them on the next page.

MOST FREQUENT WINNING SCORE: 3-2 (82 times)
MOST FREQUENT LOSING SCORE: 3-2 (95 times)
MOST FREQUENT SCORE: 3-2 (177 times)

BROADCASTER

Nick Badders joined the Storm Chasers ahead of the 2023 season and enters his 3rd season as the team's play-by-play broadcaster. 2025 marks Nick's 9th season on the air in professional baseball, his 6th in affiliated Minor League Baseball and 5th in the Royals organization. In September 2023, he acted as a fill-in broadcaster for the Royals Radio Network for a series in Toronto. In March 2025, Badders was the recipient of the Matt Minker Award, which annually recognizes an outstanding Royals minor league affiliate employee.

Prior to his role with Omaha, Nick was the radio broadcaster for the Northwest Arkansas Naturals, Kansas City's Double-A affiliate, in 2021 and 2022. He has held similar roles with the Melbourne Aces (Australian Baseball League) from 2019 to 2021, the Elizabethton Twins (Advanced Rookie, Minnesota Twins) in 2019 and Sonoma Stompers (independent, Pacific Association) in 2018.

In addition to his work on the air in Minor League Baseball, the Livermore, California native has called games for the Arkansas Razorbacks and Creighton Bluejays. Nick began his broadcasting career at Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication, where he called a variety of Sun Devil events for the Pac-12 Networks digital platform and Blaze Radio ASU, the student radio station, until he graduated in May 2020. When not calling games at Arizona State, he was a student photographer and shot nearly every sport on campus - from football to basketball, baseball, gymnastics and everything in between. He was recognized as the Cronkite School's 2019 Greg Crowder Memorial Photojournalism Award winner, awarded annually to the school's best student photojournalist each year.

An Omaha resident, you can reach Nick via e-mail at nicholasb@omahastormchasers.com or follow him on X (formerly Twitter) and Instagram at @BadderUpSports.
