FROM THE CROWS NEST

In the Clutch.... Thursday's 5-4 win for the Bradenton Marauders over the Tampa Tarpons featured some very clutch performances from both position players and pitchers. On the offensive side, Murf Gray tallied the go-ahead run on an RBI single in the top of the seventh, while Josh Tate collected his first multi-hit game of the season. The pitching was outstanding, starting with Zander Mueth who tossed his best outing of the year. Mueth punched out four over 4.0 innings while allowing just one run. Out of the bullpen, Jack Anker, Noah Takacs, and Draven Zeigler each contributed to winning/keeping the Marauders in the game. Anker notched the win with 3.2 innings and Zeigler picked up his first save of the year with a scoreless ninth.

Take a Walk.... The Bradenton Marauders fell to the Tampa Tarpons on Wednesday by a final score of 12-1. It was the largest loss of the season for the Marauders, which featured letting up a nine-run bottom of the fourth inning. The walks were the biggest issue for the Marauders on Wednesday, allowing a total of 16 to Tampa hitters. 16 walks tied the franchise record for most allowed in a game, and is the first time giving up that many since July 27, 2023 at St. Lucie. Clevari Tejada was responsible for the majority, letting up nine walks over 3.0 innings of work, which was a career-high from the 21-year-old. Pitterson Rosa allowed two walks, Roilan Portuondo allowed one, and Gavin Adams allowed four. The Marauders pitching staff has allowed the most walks at the Single-A level and all teams Double-A and lower combined with 82.

Gray Area.... Murf Gray posted one of the best games by a Florida State League hitter in 2026 with his performance on Tuesday night. The Pirates No. 18 prospect blasted his first two-homer game of his career that included a go-ahead grand slam and three-run blast in the top of the 11th. The former second round pick also drove in seven RBIs, which placed one spot shy of tying the all-time record for RBIs in a single game achieved by Charles McAdoo in 2022. Other notable offensive performances on Tuesday included Edgleen Perez notching a three-hit game and Sammy Stafura collecting a solo homer.

Mr. Strikeout.... Right-hander Seth Hernandez has made just two starts on the year, but the 19-year-old has already racked up a ton of strikeouts. The Pirates No. 2 prospect and the No. 26 overall prospect in baseball according to MLB.com collected seven strikeouts over 4.0 no-hit innings against the Palm Beach Cardinals on Friday night. Over his first two outings, Hernandez has earned 15 strikeouts over 7.0 innings of work and has held a 1.29 ERA during the process. On Opening Day, Hernandez fanned eight batters over 3.0 frames and picked up 18 swings and misses on 24 swings overall. That is just the second time a pitcher has accumulated that high of a swing and miss rate in the Florida State League since the tracking began in 2021.
