TODAY'S HEADLINES

LAST TIME OUT: Only three of the six runs the Saints scored were earned on Friday, but it was enough to score a 6-5 win over Nashville. Patrick Winkel led the way with three hits, including a two-run double in the fifth. Ryan Jensen picked up his second win of the season, not allowing an earned run in 2.0 innings. DaShawn Keirsey Jr. also extended his hitting streak to six games with a sixth inning RBI single.

HEADRICK HUMMING ALONG: In his last start, Brent Headrick struck out eight batters without issuing a walk. His eight strikeouts without a walk are the second-most in a single start in franchise history. He fell one short of matching his own record, when he struck out nine and walked none on May 4, 2023 against Nashville. It also marks the third time with the Saints that he has struck out at least seven batters without walking any. No other Saint has done it more than twice. Louie Varland is the only Saint to repeat the feat.

STARTING STRENGTH: Starting pitching has been a strength for the Saints in the first five games of the season, sporting a 1.90 ERA, tied for the second-best in Triple-A (WOR - 1.52). The five earned runs allowed by starters are tied for the second-fewest in the circuit (WOR - 4). Saints' starters also sport a 1.10 WHIP, the sixth-lowest in Triple-A. The Saints are one of five IL teams to have multiple starts of at least 5.0 innings and one-or-fewer runs (Woods Richardson, 5.0 IP/OER on 4/2 and Boushley, 5.2 IP/1ER on 4/3).

WE WANT A CLEAN GAME: The Saints committed their first error of 2024 on Friday, six games into the season. They are still tied for the top fielding percentage in Triple-A at .996, matching Omaha. The Saints ranked 6th in the circuit last year with a .981 fielding percentage. Since joining the affiliated ranks in 2021, the Saints are the seventh-best fielding team in the International League, sporting a .981 fielding percentage.

RISP ASSESSMENT: Over the first four games of the season, the Saints were hitting .429 with runners in scoring position, ranking second in Triple-A. However, over the last two games they have gone 3-for-26 (.115) with runners in scoring position, ranking 25th in Triple-A. The Saints have struck out nine times in the last two games with runners in scoring position, matching the total they had in the first four games with runners in scoring position.

LOOKING TO CHANGE THE TUNE: In the last two seasons, the Saints and Sounds have only met twice, both at CHS Field (4/26-5/1/22 and 5/2-5/7/23). The Saints lost the series three-games-to-two in 2022, with the finale getting canceled. In 2023 the clubs split their six-game set, giving Nashville a 6-5 advantage in the all-time series. This is the first trip to Nashville in the Saints' fourth season as the Twins' Triple-A affiliate.

HAVING A GRAND OL' TIME: The St. Paul Saints thrived with the bases loaded in 2023, clubbing 14 grand slams, the most in all of baseball. The 14 slam tied the modern day record (since 2005 in the Minor Leagues, as far back as minor league stats are available), matching Albuquerque who did it in 2022, Cleveland, who accomplished the feat in 2006 and Oakland who did so in 2000. No Major League team had hit more than 14 grand slams in a season in the Modern Era (since 1901).

IT'S LIKE DAY AND NIGHT: When the sun is shining, the Saints are red hot with the bats. Across Minor League Baseball over the last three seasons in day games, the Saints are second in home runs (157), fourth in runs scored (604), and total bases (1595). Contrast that during night games and the Saints are 16th in homers (421), 25th in runs (1769), and 26th in total bases (4680).

HOPING TO BE PRIME "BIG ALEX" MCDONALD: LIST TOP 30 PROSPECT: The Saints will have plenty of talent to start the season, especially if you go by the Top 30 List. The Saints have six players listed on Baseball America's Top 30 List on their active/IL roster. They are: Brooks Lee (#2/#35 overall), David Festa (#5), Yunior Severino (#20), DaShawn Keirsey Jr. (#23), Jair Camargo (#26), and Simeon Woods Richardson (#30).

YEAR TO YEAR: As the 2024 season begins, here is how the Saints fared in their first three years as the Twins Triple-A affiliate:

MAYBE ONE DAY WE'LL MEET: The Saints will play only one new team in the 2024 season, the Syracuse Mets when they visit CHS Field from June 4-9. There will still be six of the 19 IL teams the Saints will have yet to play when their fourth season wraps up in 2024: Charlotte Knights, Lehigh Valley IronPigs, Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp, Memphis Redbirds, Norfolk Tides, and Worcester Red Sox. The Saints have also not traveled to eight International League cities. Along with those six teams, the Saints have not traveled to the Gwinnett Strippers and Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders. The only new ballpark they visit this season is the Nashville Sounds, their first roadtrip of the season.

TWINS UPDATE: The Twins were off on Friday, returning to action today against the Cleveland Guardians.

LAST APPEARANCE: 3/31 v COL...threw 3.2 innings in first start of the season...struck out eight and walked none...the eight strikeouts were the second most in any start in franchise history without allowing a walk...most came on May 4, 2023 when Headrick struck out nine and walked none against Nashville...stranded two in scoring position in the first...allowed a two-run home run in the third...recorded eight consecutive outs by strikeout...did not factor into decision in 5-4 Saints walk-off win in 11 innings.

APPEARANCE PRIOR: First start/appearance for 2024

CALL HIM STEPH HEADRICK: Played basketball all three years at Reed-Custer (IL) HS from 2014-16. Made a school record 127, 3-points as a junior in 2015, tied for 17th most in a single-season in state history. He earned All-State in basketball as a junior and senior in 2015 & 2016 and All-Area and All-Conference all three years from 2014-16. His team won the regional championship all three years.

ON THE LINKS: As if baseball and basketball weren't enough, Headrick also played two years on the Reed-Custer (IL) HS golf team.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS: Headrick led Reed-Custer (IL) HS to a State Title during his senior season in 2016. Went 11-1 with a 1.94 ERA and 118 strikeouts and was named the Class 2A Player of the Year.

SEEING RED: Following his success in high school, Headrick spent three years at Illinois State University. He finished off his junior year by being named Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year, All-MVC First Team, & All-MVC Tournament Team in 2019. While with the Redbirds in 2019 he went 9-3, 3.47 ERA (96.0 IP, 37 ER) while walking 31 and striking out 115 in 16 starts.

SPACE CAMP WOULD HAVE BEEN COOL TOO: Following the 2021 season, Headrick went to Twins velocity camp in hopes of increasing the speed of his fastball. While at the camp, he significantly altered his workout and cleaned up his mechanics. He was topping out at 89 mph in 2021. His average fastball jumped to 91 in spring training and topped out at 96. His shorter arm path allowed him to throw with efficient mechanics and his body was able to recover a lot faster. He was able to throw more often with less stress and was able to lift harder because he could recover faster.

GUYS WITH BIG HANDS...HAVE TROUBLE GRIPPING THE SLIDER: In late July, 2022 Headrick finally developed a slider grip while working with Double-A pitching coaches Pete Larson (now with the Saints) and Dan Urbina. He had worked with 10-12 grips in the past, but with his hands being so big he could never get one that worked. Not only did he find the grip, but he went from throwing a slider at 78 mph to throwing it at 83 mph.

BIG TEX: Headrick pitched the third and deciding game of the Texas League Championship in 2022 against the Frisco RoughRiders while with the Wichita Wind Surge. He tossed 7.0 scoreless innings on three hits while not walking anyone and striking out 11. He retired 19 of the final 20 batters he faced while throwing 95 pitches, 64 for strikes. He left leading 2-0, but Wichita lost 7-5 to Frisco in 10 innings.

JOHNNY BENCH MEET BRENT HEADRICK: It became a parlor trick for the Hall of Fame catcher, Johnny Bench. He went on TV, took photos, and in the last couple of years proved he could still do it: hold seven baseballs in one hand. Headrick, known for his large hands (see above note), can also hold seven baseballs in one hand.

CUBE SMART: Following the 2023 offseason, Headrick decided he wanted to learn how to solve a Rubik's Cube. His best time was 1:59 and he can routinely do it in under three minutes.
