Marcelo Mayer extended a ten-game hit streak going one-for-three. CJ Liu earned his first win with a season-high 6.0 innings and nine strikeouts. Theo Denlinger pitched 2.0 perfect with four strikeouts while Felix Cepeda earned his Double-A leading tenth save. Kristian Campbell hit an infield single in the bottom of the third to score Roman Anthony and extend a 2-0 lead. With the base-hit, Campbell has notched at least one hit in every game since his promotion to Double-A this week. Two runs scored in the bottom of the fifth inning. Anthony reached on his thirteenth double before an RBI single from Kyle Teel would bring him home. The twelfth double of the season for Eddinson Paulino would drive in Teel and extend a 4-0 lead. Alexfri Planez hit a two-run homer over the Maine Monster in the top of the sixth to account for both of Akron's runs on the day but the Whoopie Pies would come out on top, 4-2 to now split the series at two apiece.

Akron was once known as the "Rubber Capital of the World," as the first synthetic rubber tire was introduced and marketed in Akron. The city's nickname served as inspiration for the re-branding of the franchise in 2014 as Akron made the transition from the Aeros to the RubberDucks
