ABOUT THE SERIES - After dropping Tuesday's opener 6-4, the Cubs have won back-to-back games with the help of excellent pitching. On Wednesday, the bullpen contributed 5.1 scoreless innings, allowing the Cubs to take the lead on three late runs and win 3-1. Last night, the Cubs walked only one and did not allow an earned run, as Ethan Flanagan started and delivered four walk-free innings, Kenyi Perez delivered a perfect fifth, and Kevin Valdez earned the winning decision with another four scoreless frames to set up a 7-1 victory.

CLUTCH CUBS - The Cub offense, which now leads all of MiLB in runs per game (7.3), has been at its best in crunch time. South Bend ranks third in all of Minor League Baseball for both batting average (AVG) and on-base plus slugging (OPS) in the seventh inning or later (.293 and .884, respectively). They also lead all of High-A in AVG with runners on base and in AVG/OPS with runners in scoring position. On the flip side, Cub pitching has the second-best earned run average (ERA) in the Midwest League in the seventh inning or later at 3.91.

MAY I DRIVE IN A RUN - Of the 15 Midwest League players who have 14 or more RBI in the month of May, five are South Bend Cubs. Kane Kepley leads the way with 20, followed by Ty Southisene (17), Christian Olivo (16), Kade Snell (14), and Cameron Sisneros (14). As a team, the Cubs lead of all affiliated baseball in on-base percentage since May began at .420.

THE KANE TRAIN - No. 6 Chicago Cubs prospect Kane Kepley leads the Midwest League in stolen bases (23) and all of affiliated baseball (MLB and MiLB) in runs scored (51). Kepley has already broken the South Bend Cubs record (since 2015) for steals and runs before the end of May, and he is 4 runs away from matching Byron Buxton's Midwest League record (since documentation began in 2005) for runs scored before the end of May. He also leads the Midwest League in AVG with runners in scoring position (.469) and checks into today's game with an 18-game on-base streak and the league's third-highest on-base percentage.

RECORD OFFENSE - It's been a historic start for Cub offense, beginning with the 22 home runs they launched in April to break the South Bend Cubs record for that month. Then, last week at Wisconsin, the Cubs produced a 25-run game on Thursday and a 24-run effort on Saturday. Only one 20-run performance had previously occurred in South Bend Cubs history.

PUTTING THE TEAM ON HIS BACH - Matt Halbach became the sixth South Bend Cubs player (since 2015) to have a six-RBI game, in the game last Thursday night at Wisconsin. Christian Olivo did the same on May 8 against Lansing. Halbach is also just the second South Bend Cubs player ever to have a home run, five hits, and six RBI in one game. Kevin Alcantara did the same at Cedar Rapids on June 17, 2023.

NOT SO FAST - South Bend Cubs catcher Justin Stransky leads the Midwest League in total baserunners caught stealing with 13. Last season, Cubs catcher Ariel Armas led all of baseball (MLB and MiLB) with 60 caught stealings, setting a South Bend Cubs record in the process.

LAST TIME OUT: Comes off the best performance of his professional career, as he twirled five shutout innings of one-hit baseball last Friday at Wisconsin. Reynolds walked two and struck out five, earning the winning decision as the Cubs scored four runs in the first inning and went on to win 9-0. The outing was the longest of Reynolds' career and served as a rebound, as he had allowed 5 runs while completing just 1 inning in his previous start against Lansing.

Reynolds opened the month of May with a unique start, also against Lansing, on May 5. The lefty went through the order one time, spinning three perfect innings with five strikeouts.

COLE THE STARTER: Of the 28 games that Reynolds pitched in during his first pro season, two of them were starts, both coming with Low-A Myrtle Beach. First career start came at Hickory on May 25 featured a no-decision. Gave up three runs in 3.0 IP, three hits, a hit batter, two walks and five K's. Started again with Pelicans on June 20, in another no-decision vs Fayetteville. Allowed a pair of unearned runs in 3.0 IP, gave up four hits, walked one, struck out one.

CALL AAA: Reynolds filled in briefly last season with the Triple-A Iowa Cubs, pitching in one game vs Sugar Land on August 21. Reynolds had one of his best career outings, working 3.1 shutout innings, with one hit allowed, two walks, and four strikeouts. The Sugar Land lineup that night included former South Bend Cubs shortstop Zack Short, who played with SB in 2017.
