BUCKLE UP BUCCOS: RHP Carlos Rodriguez will get the start for Nashville on Thursday night. The Brewers' no. 22-rated prospect earned his first Major League win last Thursday night against the Pirates at PNC Park. He tossed 3.1 IP in relief and the final 2.1 IP after a 1:50 rain delay. Rodriguez enters Thursday's game against the Indians with a 1.99 ERA which ranks third in the International League and fourth among qualified pitchers in Triple-A. His last start with Nashville came on May 17th on the road in Memphis where he pitched five innings and allowed three hits and one earned run. He has allowed one ore fewer earned runs in six of his nine appearances with Nashville and has only allowed three in one game (5/10 vs. NOR). His 49 strikeouts this season are the second-most among Brewers' farmhands this year and since he made his professional debut in 2022, Rodriguez leads the Brewers organization in wins (27), GS (76), IP (411.0), and strikeouts (465).

STREAKIN' SEIGS: Anthony Seigler was one of two players to finish a leg-shy of the first Sounds' cycle since the 2011 season. Seigler started the game 4-for-4 with a leadoff triple, two singles, and a double through his first four plate appearances. He finished the game 4-for-6 with three runs scored. His triple to start the ballgame was his team-leading fourth of the season and placed him in a two-way tie with Omaha's John Rave for the most in the International League so far in 2025. Seigler entered the season with one career triple which came in during the 2021 season when he was playing with High-A Hudson Valley in the Yankees organization. Seigler extended his current hitting streak to 16 games, the longest hitting streak by a Nashville player since Esteury Ruiz had a 17-game hitting streak from August 10-28, 2023. Ruiz's 17-game streak started right as Brice Turang ended a 17-game streak of his own that same season. Since beginning his hitting streak on May 2nd, Seigler leads Triple-A with his .431 AVG, .515 OBP, .759 SLG, and 1.274 OPS. Three of his four triples on the season have come during the streak and he ranks T-5th with 44 total bases and is T-4th with eight steals. His 22-game on-base streak is the sixth-longest active streak in the International League. Wednesday night was his first-career four-hit game as a professional. He previously had 12 career three-hit games, including three this season with Nashville.

BOBBY THREE BONES: Bobby Dalbec finished the game with 3-for-5 with a home run, double, single, and four RBI. Like Seigler, he finished a leg shy of the cycle on Wednesday night. The three hits and four RBI are both season-highs for Dalbec since joining the Sounds. He had one three-hit game with Triple-A Charlotte on April 16th earlier this season against Nashville and also had two three RBI games with the Knights and one three-RBI game with the Sounds in his first series after signing a minor-league contract with the Brewers. Through his first 13 games with Nashville, Dalbec is hitting .255 with two doubles, two home runs, and 11 RBI. He is riding a season-high five-game hitting streak that includes three multi-hit games, and he has four total multi-hit performances in his 13 games with Nashville this year.

EDDIE AND FREDDY: Eddie Rosario had his first three-hit game as a Nashville Sound and his third overall in Triple-A this year (2 w/ OKC). Freddy Zamora recorded his ninth mult-hit game this season and all have come in a 21-game stretch dating back to April 19th that is seeing him hit .403 (27-for-67).

ELVIS IN THE BUILDING: RHP Elvis Peguero earned his second save of the season and struck out all three Indianapolis batters he faced in the bottom of the ninth inning on Wednesday night. The right-hander has now pitched seven straight games with Nashville without allowing an earned run dating back to April 24th. Over the span he has allowed three hits in 8.0 IP with nine strikeouts. Eight of the nine appearances he has for the Sounds this season have come without an earned run charged to him. His three strikeouts are tied for the most he has had in a game with Nashville so far this year. He also struck out three over 2.0 IP back on April 24th when his no earned runs streak began.

HITS ON DECK: Wednesday night was Nashville's third double-digit hit output in their last four games. The 14 hits are tied for the third-most they have had in a game this season and the 17th game this year with 10+ hits. Nashville is 13-4 with reaching 10+ hits in a game and now 5-6 when their opponent also has 10+ hits after Indianapolis also had 10 on Wednesday.
