LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox allowed more than nine runs in a game for the first time in 2022 on Thursday, as they dropped the third game of their six-game series with the Reading Fightin Phils 11-6. While Bowie did take an early 2-0 lead, Reading exploded for five runs in the third inning against Antonio Velez, and a grand slam by Jhailyn Ortiz in the sixth inning pushed the game out of reach. Bowie did make a late push despite trailing by nine. Hudson Haskin led off the seventh inning with his fifth home run of the season, and Jordan Westburg followed shortly after with his sixth of the year, a three-run shot.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

One of the most tenured teams in the entire league, Reading is running into many of the same struggles that plagued them in 2021, as they have been at least five games back in the Northeast Division standings for 12-straight games. The Fightins are batting a league-worst .203 at the start of this series. Opponents have made the most against Reading pitching this season, as their 5.04 ERA is the third-highest in the league. Despite playing in a notably hitter-friendly stadium, Reading pitchers have allowed only 22 home runs, the fourth-fewest in the league, with 12 coming at home.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Jack Perkins was off to a very tough start to the year, but looks to be finally turning the corner. While getting roughed up over his first four outings, and seeing his ERA inflate past 10, Perkins rebounded to throw five strong innings against Portland in his last start, only allowing one run. Perkins is not a heavy strikeout arm, only picking up 14 in 18.2 innings of work so far this season. Bowie could turn on a few pitches of Perkins', he's given up home runs in both of his home starts, and sports a fly ball rate of 69%.

QUICK ATTACK

While Altoona does lead the league in batting average at the start of innings this season, 39 points above Bowie's .235, the Baysox have the highest OPS in the league from the first batter in an inning at .797. The contrast is mostly thanks to both Bowie's walks and power. Bowie has drawn ten walks at the start of innings this season, as well as hit 10 leadoff home runs, both numbers lead the league. Hudson Haskin hit a leadoff home run in the seventh inning of Thursday's game, already his third of the season.

SUGAR SHAYNE

Bowie outfielder Shayne Fontana has broken through for consistent contact at the plate after a slow start to 2022. While Fontana did open the year on an 0-for-11 stretch, things turned around halfway through April. Since April 17th, Fontana is hitting 16-for-50 (.320) at the plate with a double, two home runs, nine RBI, and 10 runs scored.

PULL AWAY EARLY

Bowie has ran into plenty of trouble this season in the middle of their games. Bowie has only scored six runs in the fifth inning all season, the lowest tally in the League. Their -17 run differential in the frame is understandably their worst in any inning this season, and is the worst in the Eastern League in the fifth inning. Things don't get much better in the sixth inning, as Bowie has only scored 13 runs in the sixth, tied for the second-fewest, and allowed 24 runs, the most.

TOP GUNNAR

Infielder Gunnar Henderson was named the Eastern League Player of the Week on Monday, after going 9-for-17 at the plate with a double, a home run, four RBI, and five runs scored. While he did go 0-for-2 on Wednesday, he extended his on-base streak to 28 consecutive games thanks to three walks. He's reached base in every game this season for the Baysox, the longest stretch in the league. Gunnar has increased his walk rate from just 12.1% across three levels played last season up to over 20% so far this season. Henderson is ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. He was named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Conner Loeprich makes his second spot start for Bowie, after tossing three one-hit innings in his first. See Page 2 for more.

NOT SO DASCH-ING - Bowie infielder Andrew Daschbach leads all qualified hitters in the League in average pitches seen per PA, at 4.7

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Player Notes

Fired a perfect seventh inning to finish the 11th No-Hitter in Baysox history on 5/8 against Harrisburg to open a doubleheader. Worked two flyouts and a groundout in relief of Garrett Stallings. // Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
