LAST TIME OUT: A ninth-inning meltdown by the Trash Pandas allowed Pensacola to complete the six-game sweep with a 6-5 victory Sunday at Blue Wahoos Stadium in a game that was delayed three hours due to rain. Rocket City started fast with four runs in the first on a RBI single from Braxton Martinez and a three-run homer from Ryan Aguilar. The Blue Wahoos responded in the fourth with a RBI single to right from Cobie Fletcher-Vance to get on the board before the delay started after the inning. Following the rain delay, Rocket City scored in the fifth on a RBI double from Orlando Martinez. Vance got the run back in the sixth on a RBI double of his own to make the score 5-2. Things stayed that way until the ninth when Trash Pandas closer Luis Ledo struggled to finish the Blue Wahoos. Griffin Conine started the inning with a double, then scored on a single from Vance, giving the Pensacola second baseman three RBI for the game. After a walk to Bubba Hollins, the runners moved to second and third on a wild pitch. Ledo struck out Luis Aviles, but allowed an RBI single to Santiago Chavez, which scored Vance and moved Hayden Cantrelle to third, while Chavez took second on the throw to the plate. Another wild pitch scored Cantrelle to tie the game and moved Chavez to third who was lifted for pinch runner Thomas Jones. That set the stage for Victor Victor Mesa who lined a single to left to score Jones and give Pensacola the win.

WHAT A WEEK: As difficult as the play on the field was for the Trash Pandas with the team going 0-6, there was a lot of good news. The team saw two of its players called directly from AA to the Majors with outfielder Aaron Whitefield getting the call on 5/9 and RHP Chase Silseth getting promoted on 5/12. In addition, the organization saw one of its own live the ultimate dream when former LHP Reid Detmers tossed a no-hitter on 5/10 against Tampa Bay. Just 364 days prior, on 5/11/2021, it was Detmers who threw the first pitch in Toyota Field history as the Trash Pandas played their first home game in franchise history.

SMOKIN' SOTO: Over the last 18 games, infielder Livan Soto is 28-93 (.301). He entered play on 4/20 with a .167 average, but now is batting .264 following his recent surge. Known for his glove, Soto joined the Angels before the 2018 season from the Braves as part of MLB's punishment to Atlanta for their illegal signings of international free agents. Known mostly for his glove, Soto is a career .237 hitter who is currently in his fifth professional season.

TONIGHT'S STARTING PITCHER: RHP Brett Kerry will take the mound for Rocket City after not factoring in the final decision on 5/10 against Pensacola. In that game he allowed a run on three hits with two walks and four strikeouts, but working a lot of deep counts, which kept his pitch count up. In the outing before, he picked up his first win with the Trash Pandas. On 5/3 against Chattanooga, Kerry tossed seven shutout innings and struck out six on only three hits in the 5-0 win. He was named the Southern League's Pitcher of the Week for 4/11-4/17. On 4/14, he struck out 12 Blue Wahoos in only five innings of work. This came only five days after he tossed five scoreless innings and struck out eight on no walks in the 4/8 season-opening win over Birmingham. Though he did not figure in the decision of either game, Kerry has been dominant. His first six outs against Birmingham came by way of strikeout. Against Pensacola, 12 out of 17 at-bats ended in a strikeout. He finally got his first decision as a Trash Panda with a win on 5/3 when he tossed seven shutout innings against Chattanooga on two hits. He has K'd 42 in only 29 innings of work while compiling a 2.48 ERA. Those 42 Ks are third in the Southern League. The right-hander from Clemmons, NC was drafted by the Angels in the 5th round of the 2021 draft out of South Carolina.

NEW IN 2022: After the Trash Pandas played in Double-A South in 2021, they will play in the Southern League in 2022 and beyond. That came in March when Major League Baseball announced the return of historical names for the 11 leagues that comprise the player development system for MLB's 30 clubs. Also new this season, the Southern League Championship season will be played as a split season with the season being divided into two halves. The first half will end on Sunday, 6/26 at Birmingham after what is scheduled to be the 69th game of the season and the second half will begin with scheduled game number 70 on 6/28 at Tennessee. The format of the Southern League Playoffs will consist of four teams, the division winners for each half from the North and South Division participating in a best-of-three Division Series followed by a best-of-three Championship Series.

WHAT IS A TRASH PANDA?

The name was chosen in a name-the-team contest and is a reference to the area's association with the space industry and the determination and ingenuity of raccoons, aka trash pandas.

Trash Pandas, slang for raccoon, was included in the original 10 nominations following several Brandiose-led focus groups in Madison and Huntsville. The ballot descriptor read: Our community is known for engineering, and no creature in our galaxy is as smart, creative, determined and ingenious a problem solver - dedicated to the challenge at hand - as our local raccoons!

In July 2018, after the results from several focus groups in Madison and Huntsville, 10 names were selected, based on their uniqueness and how each name relates to the characteristics of the area: (Alphabetically) Army Ants, Comet Jockeys, GloWorms, Lunartics, Moon Possums, Puffy Head Bird Legs, Space Chimps, Space Sloths, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas. The focus groups were led by San Diego-based Brandiose, the Minor League Baseball industry's premiere branding partner.

Over the next few weeks, two rounds of online voting took place. The first round narrowed the list to Comet Jockeys, Moon Possums, Space Chimps, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas.

Trash Pandas won the final round with 44.75 percent of the vote to ThunderSharks 19.25 percent. Moon Possums was third (12.57 percent); Space Chimps fourth (12.05 percent); and Comet Jockeys fifth (11.38 percent).

By the way, Trash Pandas dominated both rounds.

More than 28,500 nominations and votes were recorded. According to Brandiose, this represented - by far - the largest community participation in a Name the Team contest in the history of Minor League Baseball.

The team name was announced in a local microbrewery in September 2018 with nearly 1,500 fans on hand. Trash Pandas was nominated by Matthew Higley of Lacey's Spring, Ala. He received two box seats for the first five seasons and will throw out the ceremonial first pitch at a Trash Pandas home game.

The regional identifier was also chosen by the community. Out of 13,559 votes cast, 67.4 percent chose Rocket City over North Alabama (18.09 percent) and Madison (14.51 percent).

NEW MiLB RULES FOR 2022

Press Release From Major League Baseball - March 14, 2022

Major League Baseball announced a variety of experimental playing rules that have been approved by the Competition Committee and the Playing Rules Committee for use during the 2022 Minor League season. Consistent with the preferences of fans, these rules are designed to improve the pace of play, create more action on the field, and reduce player injuries.

Many experimental rules were first tested on a limited basis in 2021. The use of the most promising rules has been expanded to additional levels of play, providing more players and fans with exposure to the rules and allowing the Competition Committee to better evaluate the impact of each on game play. Below is a summary of the experimental rules that will be tested during the 2022 Minor League season:

PITCH TIMER: On-field timers will be used at all full-season affiliates to enforce regulations designed to create a crisp pace of play, with batters required to be ready to hit and pitchers required to deliver the pitch within allotted periods of time. With runners on base, pitchers will have additional allotted time for each pitch but will risk automatic baserunner advancement if a third pick-off attempt or step-off within the same plate appearance is made without recording an out. These rules were used in tandem in the Low-A West and in the Arizona Fall League in 2021 and led to a significant improvement in pace of play and a reduction in average game time of more than 20 minutes.

LARGER BASES: The size of first, second and third base will be increased from 15 inches square to 18 inches square at all full-season affiliates to reduce player injuries. Bigger bases were used in 2021 at the Triple-A level and in the Arizona Fall League, and were associated with a decrease in the severity of base-related injuries. In addition, the reduction in distance between bases led to a modest increase in the rate of successful stolen base attempts.

DEFENSIVE POSITIONING: In Double-A, High-A and Low-A, the defensive team must have a minimum of four players on the infield, with at least two infielders completely on either side of second base. These restrictions on defensive positioning are intended to allow infielders to better showcase their athleticism, to increase batting average on balls in play, and to restore a more traditional set of aesthetics and outcomes on batted balls.

2022 GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS (ROCKET CITY)

TRASH TALK

THE KERRY FILE: RHP Brett Kerry gets the ball for the seventh time in 2022 in his 12th professional appearance (all starts) and his eighth Double-A start as Rocket City opens a six-game series in Birmingham. Last Tuesday, he didn't factor in the decision after throwing four innings as Rocket City eventually fell 4-2. Before that, Kerry earned his first professional win with a career-high seven shutout innings in a 5-0 Rocket City win over Chattanooga. In his last start against Birmingham, Kerry uncharacteristically struggled in the second inning on 4/26, issuing two walks and giving up two runs before being pulled after just the two innings as the Trash Pandas eventually won 6-4. On 4/20, he left in line for a win after allowing four runs in six innings at Tennessee, but the Rocket City bullpen couldn't hold a 7-4 lead. In his first start following his 23rd birthday on 4/12, Kerry had a career night, recording 11 strikeouts in the first four innings in route to a career-high 12 over five innings on 4/14 against Pensacola in a no-decision. He earned Southern League Pitcher of the Week honors for his efforts to start the 2022 season. First, Kerry got the Opening Night start at Birmingham on 4/8 and was spectacular, pitching 5.0 scoreless innings with eight strikeouts as the Trash Pandas went on to win 8-2. The first six outs he recorded were all strikeouts as the Barons put runners on base but couldn't score. The Angels' 5th round draft pick in the 2021 draft out of South Carolina made his professional debut with Low-A Inland Empire and his first three starts (6.2 IP) were scoreless with one walk and 12 strikeouts in August before allowing two earned runs in 2.2 innings at Modesto on 9/4. He joined the Trash Pandas on 9/9 and made one Double-A start, firing 5.0 scoreless innings at Birmingham on 9/10. With that start against the Barons last September, Kerry became the second of the Angels' 2021 draft picks to reach Double-A, following 11th round pick Chase Silseth.

VS. BIRMINGHAM: Kerry will face the Barons for the fourth time in his career tonight. Over his first three starts, Kerry has been dominant, posting a 1.50 ERA (2 ER/12.0 IP) with three walks and 16 strikeouts. He has yet to allow a run at Regions Field, pitching 5.0 scoreless innings in each of his two starts there.

MORE NOTES

FIRST AWARD: On April 18, Kerry was named the first Southern League Pitcher of the Week for the 2022 season following two terrific starts in his first full pro season. In his first two starts, he racked up a Double-A best 20 strikeouts while allowing one run over 10.0 innings for a 0.90 ERA. His 12 strikeouts on 4/14 vs. Pensacola were a career high. The award is the first of Kerry's professional career and the fourth earned by a Rocket City pitcher after Kyle Tyler, Cooper Criswell, and Ryan Smith accomplished the feat during the Trash Pandas' inaugural season in 2021.

GETTING COCKY: Kerry began the 2021 season as a junior for the University of South Carolina and made 17 appearances (three starts) as the team's game-one starter and went 5-1 with a 2.15 ERA and four saves while striking out 84 in 54.1 innings. On May 15, he threw a complete-game shutout at Kentucky on 94 pitches while allowing just four hits with 10 strikeouts. He was named SEC Co-Pitcher of the Week for that performance. In his next start on May 21, Kerry struck out eight to over seven innings to earn another win. Kerry was also named to the 2020-21 SEC Spring Honor Roll. In 2020 for South Carolina, Kelly was 2-0 with a 3.60 ERA and one save in six appearances (two starts) while striking out 18 over 15 innings before the pandemic brought an abrupt end to the season. He struck out a season-high 12 over five innings over Holy Cross on February 15. Before that, he made 22 appearances as a freshman in 2019, going 4-1 with a 2.62 ERA and seven saves, holding opponents to a .200 batting average. He finished 10th in the SEC in ERA in conference games (2.95) and opponents batting average in SEC contests (.208).

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES: Attended Wesleyan Christian Academy in High Point, NC where he was a part of three straight state championship teams from 2016-18. In 2018, he was 10-1 with a 0.60 ERA while striking out 111 and walking just eight in 69.1 innings. He tied current San Diego Padre Wil Myers for career wins at WCA.
