Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

ABOUT THE AQUASOX...

The Everett AquaSox are the Advanced-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. They play their home games at Funko Field in Everett, WA, 30 minutes north of Seattle. The franchise traces its history back to the Walla Walla, WA-based Blue Mountain Bears, who moved to Everett in 1984 and became the Everett Giants as San Francisco's Short-Season affiliate before signing a Player Development Contract with the Mariners in 1995. That same year, the team debuted its new name: the AquaSox.

PAXTON SCHULTZ, PITCHER

As a starting pitcher, you don't have to play every day. What's a typical non-start day like for you?

We'll get here at 2pm, get in, get our prep work done, roll out, stretch, then out to the field for team stretch. We'll play catch, do our conditioning, come back in and have some down time before we lift, which is typically a "heavy" day after starts. Just trying to stay active and get after it. After that, I'll hang out until game time and get ready to go out to the field.

What are the keys to success for you each start?

I try to get my changeup working early. Using that for both righty and lefty batters for swing and misses to try and get them to chase. That's the punch out pitch.

Schultz brings a no-nonsense mentality to the hill

You seem like a guy who wastes no time out on the mound. You get the ball, get on the rubber and pitch; there's no dilly-dallying. Is that an accurate assessment?

I would say that's pretty spot on. I want to get the ball, get back up there and get ready to pitch. It helps me with my tempo and helps me focus in on what I need to do out there.

Tell us about what it's been like coming over to a new organization after you were traded from Milwaukee to Toronto as the Player to Be Named Later in the Derek Fisher deal.

It was pretty easy actually. At first I didn't know what to think of it because I had never been involved in a trade and I didn't see it coming, but once it happened, the transition wasn't bad. My teammates and the staff welcomed me in with opened arms and the Blue Jays personnel have been great. It felt good to be wanted like that. I've really enjoyed my time so far.

PAXTON SCHULTZ, PITCHER

What are you focused on this season?

I'm really focused on just honing in on a routine I can do from week to week and day to day. I'm committed to keeping my body and mind right for when it's my turn and my name is called. Guys that don't have a set routine often get injured or don't have success, so establishing that routine is a big part of what I'm focusing on. And most importantly the goal is to stay healthy and enjoy a full season of baseball.

You've been one of the most consistent pitchers in the rotation this year. Have you always been a guy who can go six, seven innings each turn?

That's definitely my goal. As a starter I want to go as long as I can and give the bullpen a break from all the games they've had to work. It's really important for me to go out there and get a good quality start

Schultz in college at Utah Valley

We hear you're a big Chipotle fan. What's your go-to order?

Oh I am a BIG chipotle fan. I love it. Half chicken, half steak bowl. And you gotta get the guac on there as well!

We've also heard you're a skilled whistler. Where did that come from?

[Laughs] Everywhere I'm going, I'm always whistling. It's something I've always done; I just seem to always have a tune in my head. Never on the mound, but maybe in the dugout cheering on my guys. It's something I've done since I was three or four years old.
