SO... THAT HAPPENED: Amarillo was no-hit for the first time in franchise history in a nine-inning game by the Missions on Thursday night. Ryan Bergert, Bradgley Rodriguez, and Ryan Och combined to throw the 16th no-hitter in Missions history. Amarillo was also held hitless in a seven-inning game on May 26, 2022, by Arkansas' Connor Jones, the only other time the Sod Poodles had been held without a hit in 660 total games since 2019. The Sod Poodles had flirted with being no-hit three other times, held to one hit in a nine-inning game twice during the 2021 season and once in a seven-inning game also at San Antonio. Thursday night was the 19th time the Sod Poodles had been held to two or fewer hits in a game since 2019.

NO RISP, NO REWARD: The Sod Poodles managed two baserunners on Thursday night, one via a walk and one by way of a San Antonio error. Neither baserunner was able to make it into scoring position, just the third time in 660 total games played by Amarillo that they did not have a chance to bat with RISP. Amarillo had gone 509 straight games since May 6, 2021, getting at least one runner in scoring position.

SUPER BLUE MIN: D-backs no. 7-rated prospect Yu-Min Lin had his best outing of the year, giving Amarillo seven scoreless innings on the bump last Saturday night. The left-hander matched his career-high with the seven innings and set his high for innings in a game this year. It was his second quality start of the season with his last coming on July 24th at HODGETOWN against Wichita. Saturday night was the first fourth time in his minor league career that he went seven innings, the last coming in his final start of the 2023 season against Frisco on September 14th.

WELCOME TO SLAMARILLO: Kristian Robinson became the newest resident of Slamarillo, hitting the second grand slam of the season for the Sod Poodles and first since Tim Tawa did it on May 12th on the road against the Corpus Christi Hooks. Robinson's eighth-inning four-run home run was the 20th overall in franchise history and he is the 16th different Sod Poodle to hit a grand slam for Amarillo. Only Edauro Diaz, Camden Duzenack, Tawa, and A.J. Vukovich have hit more than one grand slam while playing in Amarillo. It was the second professional grand slam of Robinson's 288 career minor league games. His first came on August 29, 2019, while playing for then Class-A Kane County.

TWENTY ONE SAVAGE: Tim Tawa crushed his Texas League Leading 21st home run of the year on Wednesday night. His 63 RBI's are the second most in the Texas League, three behind A.J. Vukovich. He ended the night 1-for-4 with a home run and a walk. He leads Amarillo in hits (108), AVG (.271), OBP (.341), SLG (.491), OPS (.832), DBH (44), total bases (196), runs (62). Tawa is second in doubles (21) and stolen bases (10), and ranks third in walks (40).

DEALIN' RAY: Dylan Ray did not earn a decision but pitched another great game on the mound for Amarillo Wednesday night. The D-backs' no. 16-rated prospect went 5.0 IP where he allowed one run (solo home run) on five hits with five strikeouts and a couple of walks. His outing helped lower his ERA to 4.50 in his 11 starts with Amarillo. In his three starts so far in August, Ray is 1-0 with a 2.70 ERA, allowing 10 hits and five earned runs over 16.2 IP with 16 strikeouts and six walks. Ray has been equally as good against the Missions in four total starts this year, holding the Missions to a .200 BAA (12 hits) and four earned runs in 17.0 IP. Ray did not get a decision in any of his four starts against San Antonio but carried a 2.12 ERA and 17 strikeouts.

KING OF THE HILL: With his strikeout of Gavin Cross in the top of the seventh inning last Sunday night, RHP Jamison Hill placed himself in the Sod Poodles record book as the franchise's all-time strikeout leader. He added one more over his two innings of work in relief and sits at 182 career strikeouts, passing Brandon Pfaadt (180) along the way. Hill worked an innings in relief on Wednesday night against San Antonio and earned his third win of the year after striking out two of the three batters he faced in the bottom of the seventh inning.

BUFFALO BILL: Billy Corcoran earned his team-leading sixth win of the season on Tuesday night. He struck out five and allowed just one hit across five scoreless innings in his outing. That stat line was good enough to lower his season ERA to 3.64 after posting a 2.22 mark at the High-A level earlier in the year. Although this outing ended an inning short of a quality start, Corcoran has produced one in 9/15 starts since his promotion to Double-A and still remains one off tying the most quality starts by a Sod Poodles pitcher in single-season history.

CASTING OUT AND REELING IN RBIs: Neyfy Castillo went 3-for-4 with a walk and drove in three of the games five runs Tuesday night. After making the Sod Poodles Opening Night roster out of spring, Castillo was hitting .120 in his first 14 games to start the season and was sent down to Hillsboro. Since coming back to Amarillo after posting a .225/.313/.359 slash line in 61 games with the Hops that included seven doubles, six home runs, three triples, and 36 RBI, Castillo has seen his AVG with Amarillo rise to the .200 mark it currently sits at. In his last 16 games with Amarillo, Castillo is hitting .267 (16-for-60) with three home runs, two doubles, and 13 RBI.

YUK NUKE: A.J. Vukovich hit his 14th home run of the season on Tuesday night in the series opener against the Missions and his third over a five-game stretch. It was caeer home run number 40 for Vukovich since arriving in Amarillo and he is just the second player in team history to reach 40 career home runs (Tim Tawa, 47). Vukovich's 14 home runs are tied for the third most by an Amarillo player this year and T-5th overall in the Texas League.

FUN WHILE IT LASTED: Mitchell Stumpo saw his 12-game streak without allowing an earned run come to an end after allowing four runs on four hits in the top of the ninth inning including a pair of homers. Stumpo hadn't allowed a home run since April 24 while with Triple-A Reno and hadn't allowed more than a hit in an outing since June 26th with the Aces. In 169 career appearances as a pro, Thursday was the second time he had ever allowed more than one home run in a single outing. The first time came on June 23, 2023, on the road in Corpus Christi. The 12-game streak without allowing an earned run is tied for the second-longest in team-history along with Josh Green. David Bednar's franchise-best 13-game streak is alive and well for now.
