

Dragons GameDay

Saturday, July 16, 2022 ● Game # 85 (19)

Classic Park ● Eastlake, Ohio ● 7:00 p.m.

Radio: Fox Sports 980 WONE

Dayton Dragons (5-13, 44-40) at Lake County Captains (10-8, 45-39)

RH Thomas Farr (0-4, 6.12) vs. RH Tommy Mace (0-4, 6.02)

Today's Game: The Dayton Dragons (affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds) meet the Lake County Captains (affiliate of the Cleveland Guardians) in the fourth game of a five-game series. Season Series: Lake County 11, Dayton 10 (At Lake County: Captains 5, Dragons 4).

Current Series: Captains 3, Dragons 0. In the series, the Dragons have been outscored 8-4. They are batting .136 as a team with one home run. The team ERA in the series is 2.63 and they have committed three errors. Each game has been decided by one or two runs.

Last Series: The Dragons went 1-5 in the series that ended Sunday against West Michigan. They were outscored 39-13 in the series, batting .184 (.086 with runners in scoring position). They hit seven home runs in the series (five by Elly De La Cruz). The team ERA was 6.32 (3.55 after the first game). They committed five errors in the series.

Last Game: Friday: Lake County 4, Dayton 2. The Captains built a quick 3-0 lead over the first two innings and held the Dragons to five hits. Dayton went 1 for 10 with men in scoring position. J.V. Martinez was 2 for 4 for Dayton.

Streaks: The Dragons have lost six straight games, a season high. They have gone 1-11 in July (batting .181 as a team in July; averaging 2.8 runs/game; 5.93 team ERA). They are 8-25 since starting the year 36-15.

Roster Turnover: Since April, the following six Dragons players have been promoted to Double-A Chattanooga: starting pitchers Andrew Abbott and Connor Phillips; relief pitcher Spencer Stockton; first baseman Alex McGarry; outfielder Allan Cerda; and infielder Nick Quintana. Additionally, starting pitchers Bryce Bonnin and James Proctor are out for season with shoulder injuries and outfielder Rece Hinds is out until August with a broken hamate.

All About De La Cruz: Elly De La Cruz (seventh youngest position player in the league with at least 160 AB) has become just the third player in Dragons history to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in a season, joining Wily Mo Pena (2001) and Jose Siri (2017). De La Cruz did it in his first 71 games of the 2022 season, and he is the only player in professional baseball to have reached 20/20 so far this season...De La Cruz ranks second in Dragons history in extra base hits per game (minimum 50 games) with 0.55, trailing only Nick Senzel (0.57) in 2016. Third on the list is Jay Bruce (0.54) in 2006...De La Cruz is currently the third player in Dragons history to hit 20 home runs in a season while batting at least .300, joining Austin Kearns (2000) and Donald Lutz (2011)...De La Cruz was named Midwest League Player of the Week for the week ending July 10. For the week, De La Cruz batted .421 with five home runs and three stolen bases...De La Cruz has hit five home runs in his last six games...Twice within a three-day period (July 7 and July 9), De La Cruz hit a home run from both sides of the plate in the same game. No other Dayton player had done it once since Henry Rodriguez on April 12, 2010...Over his last 39 games (since May 25), De La Cruz is batting .333 with 14 home runs and 29 RBI. His slugging percentage since May 25 (.706) is second in Minor League Baseball. For the year, De La Cruz leads the MWL in slugging percentage and is tied for the league lead in home runs while ranking in the top four in OPS, RBI, batting average, hits, runs, extra base hits, and stolen bases.

Historically Speaking: The Dragons first half winning percentage of .591 (record of 39-27) was second best in franchise history, trailing the 2007 Dragons, who finished 44-26. The 2022 first half record was the fourth best in any half in Dragons history.

What Happened? Entering a doubleheader on June 9, the Dragons were 36-15 (best record in franchise history after 51 games) and held a lead of eight and one-half games over second place Great Lakes with 15 to play. At the time, Dayton had not lost more than two consecutive games all season. The Dragons went 3-11 over the next 14 games while Great Lakes went 12-1 over the same period, a difference of nine and one-half games as the Loons clinched the division title...From June 9 through the end of the first half (15 games), the Dragons averaged 3.3 runs per game (last in the league)...Dragons hitters struck out 178 times in those 15 games starting June 9 (most in Minor League Baseball by 15)...In their 12 losses from June 9 through the end of the half, the Dragons batted .118 with men in scoring position (13 for 110)...Meanwhile, the Dragons team ERA from June 9 through the end of the half was 5.34 (next to last in the league).

What's Next: The Dragons could qualify for the playoffs in one of two ways: 1) By winning the second half East Division title; 2) By finishing with the next best full-season record in the East Division (behind Great Lakes) should Great Lakes win the second half division title. If the same team wins both halves, the team with the next best full-season record qualifies as the second half representative.

- Dayton is first in the MWL in home runs with 102, the most they have hit in a season since 2017 when they hit 112. The Dragons are on a pace to hit 159 on the year (131-game season). The club record is 144 in 2001 in a 139-game season.
- The Dragons lead the league in batting strikeouts (their total of 968 is tied for second most in Minor League Baseball). The club record for a season is 1,382 in 2004 (140 games). They are on pace for 1,509.
- Over the last 28 games starting June 14, the Dragons have a team ERA of 6.27 (last in MWL). Since June 14, they have allowed the most home runs and most walks in the league. However, over the last eight games, the Dragons team ERA is 3.34 (fourth in the MWL).
- Joe Boyle has an opponent's batting average of .082 on the year, which would lead all Minor League Baseball, but he is five innings short of the minimum number to qualify. His earned run average is 1.87.
- Myles Gayman over his nine appearances since May 26 has posted a 1.89 ERA (19 IP, 10 H, 4 R, 4 BB, 21 SO).

Dragons Manager/Coaches:

Bryan LaHair is in his first season as Dragons manager and his fifth year in the Reds organization. He served as manager with the Reds affiliate in the Arizona Complex League in 2021 and was the manager at Billings in 2019. LaHair opened his coaching career as the Billings hitting coach in 2018. LaHair played professionally for 14 seasons from 2003-14 and 2016-17, appearing in more than 1,000 games. He was primarily a first baseman but also saw considerable time as a corner outfielder. He played in 195 major league games with the Seattle Mariners and Chicago Cubs. In 2012, he appeared in the MLB All-Star Game. LaHair played for TEAM USA's national team three times (2005 World Cup, 2006 regional Olympic qualifier, 2007 Olympic qualifier). LaHair led all of Minor League Baseball in home runs in 2011 with 38 with the Iowa Cubs and was selected as the Pacific Coast League Most Valuable Player. He played one season in Japan in 2013. LaHair is a native of Worcester, Massachusetts and was chosen as the 2000 Massachusetts High School Player of the Year. He was selected by the Mariners in the 39th round of the 2002 draft out of St. Petersburg College in Florida.

Wapakoneta, Ohio native Brian Garman returns to the Dragons in 2022 as pitching coach after serving in the same position in 2021. He served as a pitching coach in the Los Angeles Angels system for two seasons, working at Rookie-level Orem (Pioneer League) in 2019 and Advanced-A Inland Empire (California League) in 2018. Garman pitched at Wapakoneta High School and the University of Cincinnati before being drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 17th round in 2010. He spent four years as a pitcher in the Brewers system, reaching the Double-A level. He finished fourth in the Pioneer League in saves with nine in his first pro season with Helena in 2010.

Hitting coach Daryle Ward returns to the Dragons in 2022 after serving in the same position in Dayton in 2017-18 and 2021. He is in his seventh year in coaching in the Cincinnati Reds organization. He served as the hitting coach with the Reds affiliate in the Arizona League in 2016 and with the Chattanooga Lookouts in 2019. Ward played professionally for 22 seasons from 1994-2015. He spent seven full seasons and parts of four others in the Major Leagues, primarily as a left fielder and first baseman. Ward played in 948 big league games with the Astros, Dodgers, Pirates, Nationals, Braves, and Cubs. He connected on a career-high 20 home runs in 2000 with the Astros. In the later stages of Ward's Major League career, he emerged as one of the National League's top pinch hitters. He led all of baseball in pinch hits and runs batted in as a pinch hitter in 2006 while finishing tied for first in pinch hit home runs. Ward played in 2,318 professional games before retiring at the age of 40 following the 2015 season. Ward was originally signed by the Tigers as a 15th round draft pick in 1994 out of Rancho Santiago College in California. He is a native of the Los Angeles area and now makes his offseason home in Riverside, California. His father, Gary Ward, was a Major League All-Star selection with both the Twins and Rangers as part of a 12-year Major League playing career.

Juan Samuel joins the Dragons as bench coach in 2022, his first season in the Reds organization. The 2022 season is Samuel's 40th year in professional baseball as a player or coach. After a 19-year professional playing career including 16 seasons in the Major Leagues, he served on the Detroit Tigers big league coaching staff for seven years from 1999-2005. He was the manager of the Mets Double-A club in Binghamton in 2006 before returning to the Majors as a coach for the Baltimore Orioles from 2007-10. He served as the manager of the Orioles on an interim basis in 2010. He was a Major League coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 2011-17. He served as a coach with Monclova in the Mexican League in 2021. Samuel has 18 years experience as a Major League coach and two years as a coach in the minors. Samuel enjoyed a 16-year Major League playing career from 1983-98 and was selected to play in the MLB all-star game three times. Samuel collected more than 1,500 big league hits during his time with the Phillies, Mets, Dodgers, Royals, Reds, Tigers, and Blue Jays. In 1984, he set an MLB record for stolen bases by a rookie with 72 and finished second in the NL Rookie of the Year voting. His best season came in 1987 when he blasted 28 home runs and drove in 100 runs while batting .272 to win the NL Silver Slugger award at second base. Samuel was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2008 and was selected as one of the 50 greatest players in Phillies history in a book by Robert W. Cohen. Samuel was born in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic and graduated from Licey High School in Puerto Rico.

Rules Changes for 2022

The Midwest League has adopted a Pitch Clock to encourage a quicker pace of play. Pitchers are required to deliver each pitch within 14 seconds of receiving the ball when the bases are empty, and within 18 seconds with runners on base. Defensive positioning rules now require at least two infielders on each side of second base, with at least four infielders positioned on the infield dirt. Pitchers are now limited in the number of unsuccessful pick-off throws they can make to a base. The third pick-off throw must result in an out, or the runner will be awarded the next base via a balk. Additionally, the size of each base has been increased from 15" to 18".
