Team President – Joe Ricciutti

Shore Town Baseball named Joe Ricciutti President & General Manager of the BlueClaws on August 14, 2017. Ricciutti was president of the Staten Island Yankees from 2007 through 2011 and was recognized by Ballpark Digest as the Minor League Executive of the Year in 2008.

Since 2011, Ricciutti has been the Assistant Vice President, University Event Management at Columbia University where he led the division that provides event management, venue rental, and food and beverage services for over 34,000 events annually across the Columbia University campuses. Ricciutti oversaw a staff of over 150 full-time and 250 part-time employees and the business grew significantly in his six years at Columbia. He had previously worked for both the Staten Island Yankees from 2001 to 2004 and Columbia University from 2004 to 2007.

Bob was named BlueClaws General Manager on December 19, 2023. He joined the BlueClaws Front Office in September of 2018 after a long stint with the Yankees AAA-Affiliate in northeast PA. Since joining the BlueClaws, Bob has immediately become a leader in the community. At present, he serves on the Board of Directors for the MODC. He also is the 2nd Vice Chair on the Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the chair of their Young Emerging Professionals Committee. From the Shore to the Show, Staff Edition

Phillies third base coach Dusty Wathan didn't make his managerial debut with the BlueClaws but he did win his first title with the BlueClaws.

Wathan grew up around the game; his father played for, managed, and worked in the Royals front office. He played 14 years in the minor leagues, his final two in the Phillies system. He immediately became a minor league manager, taking over the Phillies then-NY-Penn League affiliate in Williamsport in 2008.

He joined the BlueClaws in 2009 and the team, led by Travis d'Arnaud and Anthony Gose, won the league's first-half title. They swept Kannapolis in the first round of the playoffs and bested Greenville three games to one in the SAL Championship Series as the BlueClaws took the second title in club history.

His then went to High-A Clearwater for two years, Reading for five, and Lehigh Valley for the 2016 season, before he was named the Phillies third base coach under Gabe Kapler for the 2017 season, a position he holds to this day.

His 373 wins over his five years with Reading are the most in franchise history and he led the team to the post-season in three of his five seasons in Baseballtown.

Entering the 2024 season, he is the only former BlueClaws coach or manager to be a member of the current Phillies coaching staff.

Team History

2023 Year In Review

Back in the Postseason...The BlueClaws returned to the playoffs for the first time as the Phillies High-A affiliate and for the first time since 2018...Jersey Shore clinched their playoff spot with a 10-9, 11 inning win at Hudson Valley on the final day of the regular season, tying Brooklyn who had lost earlier in the day (Jersey Shore won the regular season series 15-11 to earn the tiebreaker).

Season Ends in Hudson Valley...The BlueClaws dropped their South Atlantic League Northern Division Championship Series to Hudson Valley 2 games to 1...They won the first game 2-1 on a Caleb Ricketts 2-run home run in the eighth inning of Game One, lost 6-2 in Game Two, and then fell 3-2 in Game Three.

From Eight Out...After a loss in Winston-Salem on July 20th, the BlueClaws were 7-14 in the second half and eight games out of first place...The BlueClaws then went on to finish the season 31-14 in their last 45 games to earn a playoff spot...The BlueClaws began the season 2-8 and were as many as six games out before pulling to within a half-game of first place, ultimately finishing 3.5 games behind first half champion Hudson Valley.

From the Shore, to the Show – Quickly...Orion Kerker became the first player to play for the BlueClaws and Phillies in the same season...The right-hander, drafted in the 5th round in 2022 from the University of South Florida, began the year with Clearwater and joined the BlueClaws on May 9th...With Jersey Shore, he gave up four earned runs in 20.1 innings with 27 strikeouts and six walks...He was promoted to Reading on July 6th and made his Phillies debut on September 24th, pitching at all four full-season minor league levels plus the Phillies in the same year.

Walk It Off...Felix Reyes hit a three-run walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning against Aberdeen in the final regular season home game at ShoreTown Ballpark this year...It was the eighth walk-off win for the BlueClaws, and the first walk-off home run...The previous BlueClaws walk-off home run came on August 15, 2019 by Ben Pellitier off Delmarva's Felix Bautista.

Ricketts & Game-Winning Blasts...Caleb Ricketts, who began the year with Clearwater before joining the BlueClaws on May 9th, hit two of the biggest home runs of the season for the BlueClaws...On August 22nd at Wilmington, he hit a 3-run home run with two outs in the top of the ninth inning to give the BlueClaws a 10-9 win...Then, in Game One of the SAL Northern Division Championship Series against Hudson Valley, he hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the eighth inning to give the BlueClaws a 2-1 win.

Sweet Six...The BlueClaws tied a franchise record with six home runs in a May 6th win at Hickory...Rixon Wingrove and Kendall Simmons each hit two home runs in the win, and it was only the second time (since 2005) that two BlueClaws hit two home runs in a game (Jhailyn Ortiz and DJ Stewart on 7/25/21 at Winston-Salem).

Of the Month...Four BlueClaws were recognized as Players of the Month in 2023...OF Marcus Lee Sang (.352 in 27 games with three HRs) was Phillies Minor League Player of the Month for May...RHP Carlos Francisco (1 ER in 9.2 IP with 13 Ks) was Phillies Minor League Pitcher of the Month for June...OF Justin Crawford (28-68 between Jersey Shore and Clearwater) and LHP Rafael Marcano (3 ER in 21.1 IP) were Phillies Minor League Player and Pitcher of the Month for August.

From Australia, With Love...The BlueClaws had seven players that were a part of the Adelaide Giants, 2022-23 Australian Baseball League Champions – pitchers Mitch Neunburn and Jordan Fowler, infielders Rixon Wingrove and Nick Ward, outfielder Jared Carr, and catchers Anthony Quirion and Arturo De Freitas...The team was managed by BlueClaws first base coach, and 2021 manager, Chris Adamson.

G'Day, Mitch...Mitch Neunborn signed with the Phillies in May and the 26 year old made his affiliated baseball debut with Jersey Shore in June...The right-hander from Australia had a 3.38 ERA in 42.2 innings pitched, striking out 54 and walking just 14...Neunborn, who was on Team Australia in the World Baseball Classic, pitched in the Arizona Fall League after the season.

Power Play...Rixon Wingrove hit 15 home runs on the season before a promotion to Reading on August 21st...The slugger had three, two-home run games with the BlueClaws this year and his four are tied with Jim Murphy and Jhailyn Ortiz for the most in club history...Wingrove hit 12 home runs with the BlueClaws in 2022, and his 27 home runs with the BlueClaws are tied for the third most in club history (Jim Murphy 36, Jhailyn Ortiz 32, Wingrove and Darick Hall 27, Anthony Hewitt 25).

The Gabe...Gabriel Rincones Jr. hit 10 home runs with the BlueClaws after arriving from Clearwater on June 13th...Rincones Jr., the Phillies third round pick in the 2022 draft, hit seven of those 10 home runs at ShoreTown Ballpark, and five of those seven to the opposite field...He finished the season by playing in the Arizona Fall League.

 - It began on April 26 but was finished in May.
- The May 8, 2015 game was suspended by fog after the 17th inning. Because it was the last meeting of the season between the two teams, the game was officially registered as a tie, the last BlueClaws tie.
- The June 6, 2017 game was an 11:05 am game that featured a power outage in the 13th inning. The game continued without power, which was restored later in the 13th inning.
- The April 10, 2011 game was the first game of a double-header and originally scheduled as a seven-inning game.
- The June 6, 2005 game featured a five-run West Virginia eighth inning to tie the game. BlueClaw Doug Gredvig homered in the bottom of the 14th to tie the game.
- The May 9, 2010 game was played on Mother's Day. Sebastian Valle tied the game with a two-run single in the bottom of the ninth inning and Domingo Santana tied the game with an RBI single in the bottom of the 13th inning.
- On June 11, 2011, not only did Jim Murphy have the game-winning hit in the 15th inning, he also tied the game with an RBI single in the 13th inning.

Since 2021, when Minor League Baseball adopted the “ghost runner” on second base to start extra innings, the BlueClaws have only played two games of at least 12 innings.

The original primary logo (left) was unveiled on August 29, 2000 in a ceremony in Lakewood town square. The team used this logo through the 2009 season.

The re-branded Lakewood BlueClaws logo (center) was unveiled on August 20, 2009 in a stadium ceremony that included then-BlueClaws manager Dusty Wathan and centerfielder Anthony Gose. The BlueClaws used this logo through 2020.

Then, on October 20, 2020, the BlueClaws re-branded to their current identity, the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. The unveiling came in a ceremony held at Convention Hall in Asbury Park. The ceremony included proclamations from local elected officials, giveaways, prizes, and more.

The Longest Game in BlueClaws History

On May 7, 2006, the BlueClaws capped off a 2006 win in the longest game in South Atlantic League history — their 8–7 win over Hagerstown took 12 days!

Actually it took 22 innings, spread out over the course of 12 days — the first 17 innings were played on April 26th and into April 27th, with the 6:35 game halted just before 1:00 am. The last five innings were played on May 7th.

The game ended when John Urick drew a bases loaded walk in the 22nd inning to score Jeremy Slayden with the game winning run. Lakewood had tied the game in the bottom of the 7th, and then neither team scored from the 8th inning through the 21st inning.

Former Indians pitcher Carlos Carrasco started the game and Mike Zagurski threw a 1–2–3 22nd inning to earn the win.

One interesting element to the game is that while the game began as the first in a three-game series between the teams at FirstEnergy Park, it was finished almost two weeks after it started. The BlueClaws and Suns played an 11:05 am game on April 27th and then played a 6:35 pm game on April 28th. If this were to happen today, the game would have actually been finished on April 27th, before the regularly-scheduled contest began.

The teams then played again in Lakewood on May 6th (a 1:05 pm Saturday game) before finishing the game on Sunday, May 7th.

This game remains the longest in South Atlantic League history at 22 innings (and 7 hours, 47 minutes).

It is one of 14 South Atlantic League games to take place over at least 20 innings. The first one took place on August 30, 1919 where the Columbia Comers tied the Charlotte Hornets 5–5.

Going Out With a Bang

Rudy Rott came to FirstEnergy Park on June 5, 2021 not knowing how the game was going to go, and certainly not realizing that when he went home that night, it would be for the final time as a professional baseball player.

That, however, is exactly what happened. Rudy Rott went out with a bang.

The game did not begin well for the BlueClaws – the first two Brooklyn Cyclones reached base and then Ronny Mauricio hit a three-run home run off Kevin Gowdy to give the Cyclones a 3-0 lead before everyone had found their seats.

Jersey Shore trailed 4-0 going into the bottom of the eighth inning. Rott led off the eighth inning with a walk and came into score on a two-run home run by Nate Fassnacht. Jhailyn Ortiz drove in Jonathan Guzman with a base hit in the ninth to cut the lead to 4-3. Vito Friscia then reached on a catcher's interference, setting the stage for Rott.

The left-hander stepped into face Mitch Ragan, got a fastball on a 3-2 pitch, and smashed it up the gap in right-centerfield. Two runs scored. The BlueClaws won 5-4. And Rudy Rott retired.

After the game he spoke with BlueClaws coaches, including manager Chris Adamson, and decided that was the best way to end his baseball career.

He was a 9th round pick in 2019 out of the University of Ohio. After a summer with Williamsport, Rott joined the BlueClaws in their first season in High-A. He finished his career with a home run (hit with Williamsport) and 25 RBIs in 69 games, the last two coming on his final professional swing.

The Abel & Painter Double-Header

Mick Abel and Andrew Painter spent most of the summer of 2022 pitching on successive days for the BlueClaws – Abel on Friday, and Painter on Saturday. They certainly formed a dynamic weekend punch for Jersey Shore, but what would have happened if the successive Phillies first-round picks would ever pair up?

That required one thing – a Friday rainout, which finally happened on August 5th. While the thousands of fans that came for Star Wars Night went home disappointed, the thousands of fans that were there on August 6th got to see a former of Minor League Baseball history. Two first round picks starting each end of a double-header.

They did not disappoint.

Abel started the first game and sizzled. He struck out Trey Sweeney on three pitches to open the evening. Jersey Shore scored three times in the bottom of the first inning and that was all Abel needed. The Oregonian right-hander went six scoreless innings, allowing just three hits and three walks while striking out eight in earning his seventh win of the season.

Marcus Lee Sang hit two home runs and Hudson Valley's runs came on a two run home run by Jaason Dominguez in the seventh inning off Erubiel Armenta, the only two runs the Renegades would score all day.

It was Painter's turn. The right-hander started game two and, like he had been since joining the BlueClaws two months earlier, was mostly unhittable. The 19 year old faced 25 batters over his seven scoreless innings. He struck out 11 of them and gave up just two hits and a walk, going the distance and earning his second win.

Casey Martin drove in both runs and the BlueClaws won 2-0.

The Phillies last two first-round picks combined for 13 scoreless innings with 19 strikeouts in the double-header sweep of the Renegades.

From 0-9 to the SAL Title

After the BlueClaws debuted in 2001, the team did not qualify for the postseason in their first five seasons. In fact, the closest they came in any of the 10 halves was 6.5 games in back of first place. They entered 2006 with a talented roster and expectations of contention, and immediately dropped the first nine games of the season.

There was a four-game sweep in Lexington to open the season, a series that included back to back 1-0 losses in a double-header started by Matt Maloney and Carlos Carrasco. There was a three-game sweep in Hagerstown. Finally, the first two home games didn't yield much success either, a 9-2 loss and a 5-2 loss to Delmarva.

In fact, the BlueClaws required a four-run ninth inning to come back and tie Delmarva in the 10th game of the season. Cooper Osteen's SAC fly with one out in the ninth inning brought in Fidel Hernandez with the game tying run. Sean Gamble singled home Julian Williams in the bottom of the 13th at 4:56 pm, and the BlueClaws had their first win of the season.

That started a five game winning streak and a 37-23 finish to the first half. While that wasn't enough to get the BlueClaws into the postseason – they finished in fourth place, seven games behind the 44-25 Lexington Legends – Lakewood left no doubt in the second half.

They won seven of their first nine after the break, and by July 13th, they were 16-5 and four games clear. Nobody got closer than 2.5 from there on in, and after the BlueClaws pushed their lead to 10.5 games by Labor Day, cruising into the postseason.

The BlueClaws finished the second half at 47-23 with a 3.15 team ERA and a +93 run differential. Lakewood dispatched Lexington in two games to move to the finals, where the Augusta GreenJackets and Pablo Sandoval were waiting.

The Giants affiliate went 53-17 in the second half, but the BlueClaws took both in Augusta 2-1. Josh Outman gave up one run in seven innings in game one. John Urick homered in the 13th inning of game two to give the BlueClaws another 2-1 win and a 2-0 series lead.

Augusta won game three, but Matt Maloney was ready for game four. The left-hander from Ole Miss went the distance, allowing seven hits, two walks, and striking out 12. Jeremy Slayden caught a fly ball from Sandoval to end the game and give the BlueClaws their first South Atlantic League title.

Lakewood won 84 regular season games, which stood as the club record until it was broken by the 87 win BlueClaws in 2018, despite needing four runs in the ninth inning to avoid falling to 0-10. It was a remarkable run that stands today among the most dominant runs in BlueClaws and league history.

All three starters litter the BlueClaws record book. In fact, of the 45 BlueClaws to pitch at least 100 innings in a season, Matt Maloney (1st, 2.03), Carlos Carrasco (3rd, 2.26), and Josh Outman (7th, 2.95) all rank in the top 10. They rank 1-2-3 in wins (Maloney, 16; Carrasco, 14; Outman, 12) and strikeouts (Maloney, 180; Outman, 161; Carrasco, 159) too.

Not bad for a team that started 0-9.

BlueClaws Legend There From the Start

Nobody was a part of more BlueClaws games than Greg Legg, so it was only fitting that he was there from the first one. “Legger,” as he was known to the hundreds of BlueClaws players that he managed or coached, led the first BlueClaws team in 2001. He served as the hitting coach from 2008 through 2013 and managed the team again in 2014.

His eight years on the coaching staff are more than anyone else in team history and he is the only person to manage the BlueClaws in two non-consecutive seasons.

Legg was drafted in the 22nd round by the Phillies in 1982 out of Southeastern Oklahoma State University. He debuted with the Peninsula Pilots in the Carolina League before spending 1983 and part of 1984 with Double-A Reading. He spent the second part of 1984, plus 1985 and 1986 in Triple-A with the Portland Beavers. It was in 1986 when he made his Phillies debut, going 9-20 in 11 games. 1987 was spent in Triple-A with the Maine Guides and included three more games with the Phillies, in which he went 0-2.

Since 1969, only two players with at least 20 big league at bats have a higher batting average than Legger’s .409 (9-22).

1988 was split between Reading and Maine, before he finished his playing career with six straight years with the Scranton-Wilkes Barre Red Barons.

He actually retired after the 1993 season to become a coach, but came out of retirement to fill back in with Scranton following an injury to Kevin Stocker. After 1994, he embarked full-time on a legendary minor league coaching career.

His first managerial job came in 1997 with the NY-Penn League’s Batavia Clippers and spent three years in short-season ball. He moved to the full-season South Atlantic League in 2000, managing a Piedmont Boll Weevils team in Kannapolis, North Carolina that included Marlon Byrd, Brett Myers, and Ryan Madson.

On December 13, 2000, he was named the first manager in BlueClaws history. His Phillies career took him to Reading - he was Reading’s manager during Ryan Howard’s breakthrough 2004 season in Double-A - then Clearwater, and Williamsport.

He returned to the BlueClaws in 2008 as the hitting coach, an position he held through 2013 before spending 2014 as the BlueClaws manager.

The one thing that eluded Legg over his first 27 seasons in the organization, however, was a championship ring. He had come close; his 2000 Boll Weevils team lost a three-game series to Delmarva in the SAL Northern Division Championship Series.

That finally changed in 2009. With a team led by Anthony Gose and Travis d’Arnaud, the BlueClaws lifted the trophy and Legger got his first ring. He was there again a year later when, again against Greenville, the BlueClaws topped the Drive for their second straight, and third overall title in club history.

Legg was honored by the Phillies in 2011 for 30 years of service to the organization, and he coached in the system through 2019.
