

Title: Accounting Intern

Reports to: Accounting Manager

Overall Responsibility:

The Greensboro Grasshoppers, the Class A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates, are looking for a driven and outgoing individual to join our front office team as an Accounting Intern for the 2026 season.

This internship offers a rare opportunity to gain hands-on experience in professional sports, from sales and sponsorship outreach to game day execution and event operations. You'll learn how a Minor League Baseball front office functions, working closely with multiple departments while developing real-world skills in business development, client relations, and live event management.

The internship begins part-time in January 2026 and transitions to full-time in May, continuing through the end of the Grasshoppers' season on August 31, 2026.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist with all aspects of the day-to-day accounting processes, including A/R, A/P, bank reconciliations, treasury services, and financial reporting.
- Help handle aspects of cash management and collection on Game Nights.
- Assist with coordination and facilitation of gameday employee onboarding
- Assist with facilitation of game night reporting within areas of ticket sales, food and beverage, retail, and parking.
- Establish and maintain strong relationships with colleagues in all departments.

Qualifications:

- Passion for sports, sales, and live entertainment.
- Highly organized, detail-oriented, and self-motivated.
- Willingness to learn CRM and ticketing systems (HubSpot and TicketReturn).
- Team-oriented attitude with the ability to handle multiple responsibilities.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Excel.
- Available to work evenings, weekends, and holidays as required by the game schedule.
- Commitment to providing exceptional customer service and creating fun, memorable experiences.

What You'll Gain

- Real-world experience in sports accounting, customer relations, and live event operations.
- Hands-on training in Accounting systems, ticketing software, and professional communication.
- Networking opportunities with local businesses and community partners.
- Mentorship from front office staff and exposure to multiple areas of a Minor League Baseball organization.
- A strong foundation for future careers in sports accounting.
