TUESDAY TAKINGS: The Blue Jays clinched their fourth straight win and a series victory as they downed the Tarpons 6-3 on Tuesday night. Daulton Varsho homered for the second time in as many games, a solo homer in the 5th at 102.1 MPH, in addition to a single. JR Freethy logged three hits, Alexis Hernandez had two, and Silvano Hechavarria dealt six shutout frames over which he faced only one batter over the minimum and retired the last 14 batters he faced in order. Dunedin has homered ten times through four games of the series against Tampa, where they've outscored the Tarpons 29-11.

BLUE JAY BASH: Rehabbing Daulton Varsho went deep, while Tucker Toman's two-homer game and Johnny King's nine-strikeout performance powered the Jays to a 7-1 win over the Tarpons on Sunday. Alek Manoah also allowed one run in two innings with two strikeouts in his first MLB rehab game for Dunedin.

WELL HELLO THERE: Dunedin bashed four homers for the second time this season on Saturday night in a 12-4 win and tallied double-digit runs for the first time since June 19 @CLR. Yhoangel Aponte launched a three-run homer in the 3rd and a solo blast in the 8th for his first professional multi-homer game. Kendry Chirinos (5) and Alexis Hernandez (5) socked the other two long balls.

PATTY CAKE: Back-to-back long balls in the 7th inning lifted the Jays to a 4-3 comeback victory over Tampa on Friday night. Down 3-1 in the 7th, Jacob Lojewski launched a game-tying two-run homer, and JR Freethy followed suit with a go-ahead solo blast. The first four runs of the contest all came on walks, errors, or wild pitches.

INTO THE VARSH: On Tuesday, Blue Jays CF Daulton Varsho launched a solo homer in the 5th for his second long ball in as many games on MLB rehab assignment. His solo shot left the bat at 102.1 MPH. Varsho has hit safely in all three games of his rehab stint with Dunedin, going 4-for-8 (.500) with two homers and five RBI. In his first game on Friday he went 1-for-2 in four innings in CF, and on Saturday launched a go-ahead three-run homer in the 5th inning. He also brought home the first run of the ballgame on an RBI groundout in the 3rd. Varsho landed on the injured list June 1 with a strained left hamstring, and a setback he suffered in late June has caused his stay on the IL to run a bit longer than originally anticipated. The 29-year-old opened this season on the IL while recovering from off-season shoulder surgery, and played in two games for Dunedin on rehab assignment. But the left-handed-hitting outfielder provided a massive spark at the plate following his return, blasting eight home runs with 20 RBI and a .543 slugging percentage across 24 games before returning to the shelf.

KHAL UP: Blue Jays No. 9 prospect Khal Stephen was promoted from High-A Vancouver to Double-A New Hampshire. Stephen started the 2025 season in Dunedin, where in eight starts he authored a 2.06 ERA in 39.1 innings and struck out 48. He amassed a 1.49 ERA through nine starts with Vancouver and was named the Northwest League Pitcher of the Month for June.

NEW HALF, NEW JAYS?: The D-Jays concluded the first half 33-31, fourth place in the FSL West. Lakeland clinched the FSL West first-half championship and St. Lucie took the FSL East. After Dunedin went 4-13 from May 14-June 1, they fell from two games up in first place on May 13, to as far as 5.5 games out of first place in the FSL West on June 3.

SCOUTING TAMPA: Despite snapping Lakeland's 12 game win streak last Wednesday, the Tarpons dropped four of six to the Flying Tigers ahead of the All-Star break including the final three of the set. Tampa went 36-29 in the first half to finish 2.5 games back.

- Last time out: Yielded one earned run over 4.2 frames in his Class-A debut. Wilkerson allowed only one hit over his final ten batters faced. He induced nine whiffs and topped out at 95.5 MPH. Worked around leadoff hits in all three innings and a bases-loaded no-out jam in the 3rd where he allowed only one run.

2025: Began professional career as a member of the FCL Blue Jays, where he made seven appearances (two starts) and went 3-2 with a 5.40 ERA fanned 23 to only five walks in 21.2 frames. In his first professional game, Wilkerson hurled three shutout innings vs. FCL Tigers on May 23 with three strikeouts and no walks. Expected to be assigned to Dunedin out of camp and was working with the Dunedin work group, but suffered an oblique injury during spring training which held him back to rehab.

COLLEGE NOTES: Pitched three seasons at Virginia Military Institute, which was Holden's only offer out of high school as a scrawny high school junior who threw 83 MPH. As a freshman in 2022 he pitched to a 4.58 ERA in seven appearances (one start) with 23 K in 17.2 IP before a season-ending injury in early-April. As a sophomore in 2023, went 3-1 with a 9.64 ERA in 11 appearances (eight starts) with 35 K/33 BB in 28 IP. Made four starts as a junior in 2024, striking out 29 in 18.1 IP with a 7.85 ERA before was cut short by a blood clot in a vein in his throwing shoulder. In his last start before injury, threw 6 IP and earned the win vs. Binghamton, striking out a career-high 10 and allowing 1 R. Made some mechanical adjustments and gained velocity ahead of his junior season.

CAREER NOTES: Selected in the 18th round (547th overall) by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 2024 MLB Draft, signed for $150,000.

PERSONAL NOTES: When he was drafted, got the call as he was working out at the Lab Sports Performance Center, where he has been training since he was 11 years old. After being drafted and reporting to Dunedin in the summer of 2024, he returned to VMI in the fall to complete his degree by taking an overload of credits after negotiating with the Blue Jays. Robbie Hebert, owner and trainer at Lab Sports Performance, noted, "One thing that always stood out with Holden is the perspective. He knew how important going to VMI was to get that degree, and even though a great opportunity has come, he always knew his ultimate goal was to get that degree. What makes the situation so great for him is that he gets to do both." VMI is America's first state military college, and enrolls cadets only. Abraham Lincoln first called VMI "The West Point of the South" because of its role during the American Civil War, the nickname has remained because VMI has produced more Army generals than any ROTC program in the U.S. All VMI cadets must participate in the Army's ROTC programs, but are not required to serve, although approximately 65% of VMI graduates enter the military upon graduation. VMI is a school of 1,500 students. Signed by Jays scout Coulson Barbiche (Bar-bich).
