Jake Lowery joins the Wilmington Blue Rocks in his first year as manager after spending the prior four seasons in a managerial role within the Nationals farm system. Last season, as manager of the Fredericksburg Nationals, Lowery won the 2024 Carolina League Championship; the first league title in Fredericksburg's history.

Before transitioning into a coaching role, Lowery spent nine professional seasons in the minor leagues as a catcher, including his final four within the Nationals organization, after being drafted by Cleveland in the 4th round of the 2011 MLB Draft.

Lowery, born and raised in Midlothian, Virginia, attended James Madison University where he received the Johnny Bench Award, given to the nation's top collegiate catcher, following the 2010-11 season. Further accolades for Lowery during his 2010-11 season include a First-Team All-American selection and CAA Player of the Year Award. In 2022, Lowery was inducted into the James Madison University Athletics Hall of Fame.

As the air cools and leaves prepare to turn, another Minor League Baseball season comes to a close. The Wilmington Blue Rocks competed in 132 games throughout the 2024 season and, in nearly 1,200 innings of baseball, showed intensity, grit, and aspiration to reach new heights.

The Blue Rocks began the season with a three-game home series sweep, but ended the first and second portions of the season in last place in the South Atlantic League North. They finished the year with a 57-75 record.

While many games did not fall in Wilmington's favor this year, the growth and glimpses of super stardom garnering within the Blue Rocks' clubhouse cannot be defined by the team's win-loss record. Between the original roster that arrived in early April to the players who only saw a few innings in Wilmington, the 66 members of this team put on quite a show for their fans, or, as they coined them, Blue Rocks Nation.

BIG MOMENTS

In total, the Blue Rocks scored 514 runs, but two specific moments from this season will be remembered for years to come.

The first major moment was the team's captivating performance in their three-game, season-opening homestand sweep against the Brooklyn Cyclones. Catcher Maxwell Romero Jr highlighted Friday night's win with a two-run home run, the first of 60 Blue Rocks homers of the season.

Saturday and Sunday's matchups had Jared McKenzie's name written all over them. The outfielder gave fans an early idea of how much he'd be contributing to Wilmington's offensive efforts with back-to-back walk-offs; a two-run home run on Saturday and 10th-inning sacrifice fly on Sunday. As McKenzie described it Saturday night, "We took care of business when we needed to."

The other took place months later and, while showstopping all the same, yielded a much different emotional atmosphere. The Blue Rocks won their final Saturday home game of the season, but what happened following the win was bigger than baseball.

Frawley Stadium hosted its second annual WBR Vs. Pediatric Brain Cancer Night on August 30 to honor pediatric cancer patients currently fighting, survivors, and patients who lost their lives to the disease. Families affected by pediatric brain cancer were invited to join the Blue Rocks team, coaches, and staff on the field for an unforgettable lantern ceremony surrounded by over 3,700 fans shining their phone flashlights in solace.

Many players stayed after the ceremony and coinciding fireworks display to meet and spend time chatting with the families, including Romero Jr, who even gave one child a bat to take home and commemorate such a special night.

KEY PLAYERS

Since April, 66 different players have come through Wilmington to suit up for the Blue Rocks. Of the 30 players that were listed on the team's 2024 Opening Day Roster, ten were promoted to Double-A and two of those ended the season in Triple-A. Pitchers Carlos Romero and Brad Lord closed out the year with the Rochester Red Wings after stunning performances with the Blue Rocks and Harrisburg Senators.

While embracing the fluidity of the roster, the Blue Rocks leaned on its core foundation of players that stuck with the team from the beginning of April to September. This includes members of their pitching staff like Riley Cornelio, who led the team with 114 strikeouts and a .261 average, as well as hitters like TJ White and Jared McKenzie. White played in the most games for the Blue Rocks of anyone all season, and recorded the most RBIs (49) and home runs (14). McKenzie, although losing some time with the team due to a first-half injury, was the Blue Rocks' captain this year. His leadership permeated with his teammates both on and off the field.

Despite not starting in High-A, Phillip Glasser and Jarlin Susana were undoubtedly two of the most impressive prospects to play at Frawley Stadium in 2024.

Susana, who joined the Nationals in the organization's trade of Juan Soto to the San Diego Padres back in 2022, began the season in Low-A. The 20-year-old, 6'6" pitcher moved his way to High-A by wielding his high-speed fastball maxing out at 103 mph. Ending the season with multiple ten-strikeout games, Susana put on quite the show in his ten starts as a Blue Rock.

Glasser spent less than a month in Fredericksburg before getting the promotion to High-A. The shortstop spent the majority of the season with the Blue Rocks and quickly became the most productive member of the team's offense, leading in five different categories before making his way to Double-A in mid August.

The 2024 Blue Rocks season was full of thrilling plays, wins, and road trips, but the best memories were made right at home at Frawley Stadium. With another exciting year in the books, it begs the question: Is it April of 2025 yet?

November 10 - Longtime Blue Rocks majority owner and team president, Matt Minker, passes away after a five-year battle with cancer. Minker's construction company built Fawley Stadium in five months in 1992-93.

April 23 - Outfielder Joe Dickerson becomes the first Blue Rock to hit an inside-the-park home run since Norris Hopper on July 30, 2001. Dickerson's shot forged a 3-3 tie with the Frederick Keys at Harry Grove Stadium in the 6th inning. The Rocks would win the game, 4-3, on a wild pitch.

June 4 - Infielder Jeff Bianchi joins the short-job home run parade when he connects on an inside-the-park job against the Kinston Indians at Fawley Stadium. Bianchi's blow came against reliever Mike Pontius to start the home third inning and a comeback attempt from a 3-1 deficit. Center fielder Johnny Drennen turned what should have been a line-single to center into a four-bagger when he missed the catch on a head-first dive and allowed the ball to roll all the way to the wall. Bianchi circled the sacks in lightning-quick fashion, fitting since a downpour of rain would shortly thereafter suspend play. The Blue Rocks would win the game the next day, 6-5.

June 27 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson ties the franchise record for stolen bases in a game by taking four against the Salem Avalanche. He would go on to obliterate Carlos Febles' single-season mark of 49 by collecting 62 on the year.

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN BLUE ROCKS HISTORY

August 29 - Wilmington falls to Potomac, 3-1, giving the Nationals the second-half Carolina League Northern Division championship. However, due to Frederick's loss to Winston-Salem, the Rocks claimed their first-ever wild card berth to lock up the team's 13th playoff appearance in 16 seasons.

2009

May 10 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson's steal of second base against the Frederick Keys established a new franchise record for career stolen bases. The speedster broke Sergio Nunez's mark of 77 thefts. Robinson, who spent part of 2007, and all of 2008 and 2009 in Wilmington, ended the year with 132 career swipes as a Blue Rock.

August 1 - Derrick Robinson set the tone for one of the most unlikely power surges the Blue Rocks have seen. The center fielder's two-run homer capped off a five-run 5th inning which led Wilmington to an 8-3 victory over Salem. The home ended Robinson's 221-game, 895-at-bat homerless streak as a Blue Rock.

August 3 - In the next game, Robinson went deep again, as the Rocks tied a franchise record with five home runs as a team in an 11-3 rout of Winston-Salem. Eric Hosmer's first career Advanced-A homer got the long-ball party started as Nick Van Stratten, Anthony Serratelli and Johnny Givatella also left the yard for the Rocks.

August 19 - Derrick Robinson breaks his own Wilmington single-season stolen base record of 62 in 2008, nabbing three bags against Frederick. He'd finish the campaign with 69 thefts.

August 29 - Mike Moustakas' opening frame home run off of Salem's Kyle Weiland was the slugger's 16th dinger of the season. It marked the highest homer total for anyone on the Riverfront since Brandon Berger left the yard 16 times in 1999.

September 4 - The Blue Rocks put an exclamation point on the second-half of the season by clinching a Carolina League North crown with a 5-2 victory over Frederick at home. The Rocks got seven innings of two-run ball from starter Eduardo Paulino, and two RBIs each from Jamar Walton and Chase Fontaine en route to the celebration-inducing victory.

April 13 - Michael Montgomery whiffed a career-best 13 men in a 3-1 defeat of the Kinston Indians at Grainger Stadium to earn the Rocks' their 1,300th victory in franchise history. The 20-year-old southpaw carried a perfect game into the 7th before a broken-bat infield single opened the frame. In eight of the night's nine innings, Wilmington pitchers retired the side 1-2-3 as Montgomery and closer Eric Basurto combined for 17 strikeouts.

May 21 - John Lamb tossed six innings of one-run ball as the Blue Rocks earned a 4-1 victory at Fawley in the 20-year-old's Advanced-A debut. The left-hander faced the minimum in three of his six innings pitched. He did not surrender a hit until the fourth frame and fanned nine. Four times he caught Myrtle Beach looking at a called strike.

July 16 - In his final game in a Blue Rocks uniform, Eric Hosmer went 2-for-5 with a run scored. Hosmer, who led the Carolina League in batting average, on-base percentage and doubles upon his promotion to Double-A Northwest Arkansas became the first player in franchise history to win a CL batting crown.

September 6 - Blue Rocks pitcher Aaron Crow was named Carolina League Pitcher of the Week, marking the ninth time a Rock was honored by the league office in 2010. Montgomery, Lamb, Alex Caldera and Bryan Pavukovits claimed CL Pitcher of the Week laurels in 2010 as well, with Montgomery grabbing that honor twice in a row to begin the year. Third baseman Jamie Romak took Player of the Week accolades three times during June and July. No other Carolina League team claimed as many weekly honors as Wilmington.

May 25 - The Rocks reach their high water mark of the 2011 season with a walkoff win against the Frederick Keys. A wild pitch by Sean Gleason in the 9th inning allowed Yem Prades to score the winning run in a thrilling 6-5 victory at Fawley Stadium. The win put Wilmington 11 games over .500, the high water mark for the season.

June 11 - Nick Francis tied a record that only nine others in Blue Rocks history have accomplished by smacking five baseballs at Winston-Salem. Francis notched singles in the 1st, 2nd, and 5th innings off Dash pitching. He roped a triple in the 8th inning and then with two outs in the 9th inning, Francis singled through the left side to complete the feat.

June 15 - The Blue Rocks claimed the franchise's 1,400th victory with a 4-3 win over the Lynchburg Hillcats. A solo home run from John Whittleman and an RBI single from Alex McClure in the 8th inning put the Rocks ahead for good as they claimed their 34th win of the season. Tim Melville threw five innings of two run ball, while Dusty Odenbach grabbed his first win of the season, yielding only one run in three innings. Ryan Dennick threw a scoreless ninth for the save.

August 20 - In the first game of a doubleheader against the Salem Red Sox, John Whittleman reached a plateau few have reached in Blue Rocks history. In the third inning, a solo home run to right field gave the Blue Rocks a 4-0 lead and also saw Whittleman reach the 20-HR mark. Whittleman is only the third player in team history to reach 20 home runs in a season, joining Larry Sutton (26 in 1994) and Hugh Walker (21 in 1993). The Rocks won the game 6-2.

July 6 - Lane Adams collects two of the Blue Rocks four home runs to guide his team to a 10 inning win over Lynchburg 6-5. The second dinger by Adams gave Wilmington the lead in the top of the 10th, and helped the team avoid a three-game sweep against the Hillcats.

August 3 - Infielder Matt Fields earns Carolina League Topps Player of the Month Honors for July. In 27 games, Fields hit .355 with 13 home runs and 19 RBIs, while his .794 slugging percentage was tops in all of minor league baseball. Adams becomes the eighth member of the Blue Rocks to garner the award.

August 10 - Following a closed door team meeting, The Blue Crew hammers Salem 9-1. Matt Fields led the charge, becoming the second Wilmington player to record a two-homer game on the season. This win would be a sign of things to come. Over the final 24 games of the season, Vance Wilson's team would post a league-best 16-8 record.

August 30 - The Blue Rocks clinch the second half Northern Division Championship with a 9-3 win over the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. A six-run fourth inning broke the game open, as Wilmington advanced to the Carolina League Playoffs for the first time since 2009. Wilmington starter Leondy Perez was stellar, tossing 7.1 innings, allowing just five hits, one walk, and an unearned run. Tyler Sample finished off the Pelicans, surrendering a pair of runs over the final 1.2 innings.

September 7 - Wilmington falls to Lynchburg 2-1 in Game Three of the Northern Division Championship Series. Hillcats catcher Braeden Schlehuber put his team on top for good in the bottom of the eighth, with a solo home run off Wilmington reliever Robinson Yamabati.

Lynchburg would eventually win the Mills Cup, defeating Winston-Salem three games to one in the best-of-five series.

May 1 - Facing Salem, Cheslor Cuthbert gave Wilmington its first walkoff win of the year, thanks to a solo homer off Mike McCarthy in the bottom of the ninth. That would not be the team's only walk-off victory of the series, as Jorge Bonifacio completed an 11-inning win the next night with a sacrifice fly to right field.

June 29 - Coming off a very difficult first leg of the season where he went 1-6 and posted a 5.98 ERA, Royals No. 1 prospect Kyle Zimmer turned in his best performance as a professional. In game one of a doubleheader against Potomac, Zimmer tossed a seven-inning complete game shutout and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning for the second time in 2013. Not only had the proverbial light bulb gone off for Zimmer, but Kansas City general manager Dayton Moore was in attendance to see it himself.

July 9 - An overpowering start by Kyle Zimmer, his second-to-last before getting promoted to AA-Northwest Arkansas, keyed a big series win over Frederick. Zimmer tossed 6 innings while yielding just one run and striking out 13 en route to an 8-1 victory.

August 13 - The Blue Crew took two out of three from the eventual Mills Cup Champion Salem Red Sox, and the series finale was one of the most memorable games in franchise history. After 18 long innings, Dennis Raben recorded the game-winning hit, lining an RBI single to center right before the stroke of midnight. The game went down as the second-longest in Blue Rocks history.

April 26 - After starting the season 0-7 against the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, the Blue Rocks claimed their first victory of 2014 against their Carolina League rival in highly improbable fashion. Trailing 4-3 heading into the bottom of the 9th, Wilmington tied the game and put Terrance Gore on third base as the winning run with two outs. Raul Mondesi would then strikeout, but the pitch got away from catcher Jorge Alfaro. Gore sprinted home and avoided Alfaro's tag, who was also too late to get Mondesi at first base. The Blue Crew won 5-4 on a walk-off strikeout.

May 6 - Down by one run heading into the top of the 9th, Hunter Dozier hits a go ahead grand slam at Potomac to put the Rocks in front late. Wilmington would go on to defeat the Nationals 6-3.

June 17 - Fawley Stadium plays host to the annual Carolina/California League All Star Game. In a close contest, the California League All Stars defeat the Carolina League 3-2.

July 13 - Christian Binford pitches a scoreless inning in the MLB Futures Game at Target Field. The right hander was named to the game while pitching for the Blue Rocks. Binford went 5-4 with a 2.40 ERA during his time in Wilmington, where he was also named to the Carolina League All Star team. September 1 - After spending parts of the 2014 season in Wilmington, Brandon Finnegan and Terrance Gore got promoted to the Major League level. 2012-13 Blue Rock Lane Adams would join the September call-ups as well. Finnegan and Gore would go on to play in the World Series, with Finnegan becoming the first player in history to play in both the Division I College World Series and the MLB World Series in the same year.

September 1 - The same day three of their former players got the call to the show, the Blue Rocks ended their regular season in style, walking off against the Salem Red Sox, 7-6. Down 6-4 heading into the 9th, Wilmington put together a rally to tie the game and force the contest into extras. Then, after being recalled from Rookie-Level Idaho Falls earlier that day, Logan Davis came through with a game-winning triple in the bottom of the 10th, plating Fred Ford from first base.

June 19 - Skipper Brian Buchanan had to listen to the Blue Rocks' 4-1 loss from the clubhouse after he was ejected in the second inning arguing a call that was eventually overturned in favor of the Blue Rocks. The rest of the Blue crew joined their skipper in watching and waiting after the game, tuning in to the Hillcats affair. The wait proved fruitful when they found out the Hillcats lost as well, clinching the first half crown for the Blue Rocks; the first time they won either half of the season since 2012 and the first time they won the first half since 2006 when they were a member of the Red Sox organization.

July 3 - Down 6-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning to the Lynchburg Hillcats, things looked sour for the Blue Rocks. However, they loaded the bases with nobody out and that is when the flood gates opened: a Ramon Torres single cut the deficit to 6-2 still with the bases loaded and nobody out, which set up Mauricio Ramos who had smacked a solo home run earlier in the game, this time he couldn't clear the fence, but he cleared the bases with a double, pulling the Rocks within a run. Two batters later Frank Schwindel singled to tie the game and Alfredo Escalera joined the hit parade with his own single a pick of batter later to put runners on the corners. An errant pick-off throw tossed the Rocks into the lead and after they yet again loaded the bases, the cherry was put on top of the comeback with a two-run double from Jack Lopez that pushed the advantage to 9-6, which is how the game went end.

July 25 - The July fireworks continued for the Blue Rocks as down 6-1 to Lynchburg was apparently the magic quotient for comebacks. That was the score in the bottom of the ninth inning against the Hillcats when the Blue Rocks loaded the bases with one out. After a strikeout, Carlos Garcia walked to force in a run and Humberto Artega would poke a single to make it a three run game, still with the bases loaded. Robert Pehl erased that deficit with one swing of the bat, roping a double to clear the bases and tying the game at 6-6 all while the Blue crew had been down to their final out. Elier Hernandez would strikeout for the second time in the frame to send the game to extras. In the bottom of the tenth, with the bases loaded and two outs, Artega provided the heroics with a single for the dramatic 7-6 victory.

August 4 - Ho-Hum, another triple play turned by the Blue Rocks. For the third time in the season, the Blue Rocks turned a triple play: the first was on April 19th on a ball that was eventually determined to be a short hopped catch, which confused the runners allowing the Rocks to turn three, the next was on June 9th when the Rocks went around the horn 5-4-3, and then on August 4th, it was a 6-4-3 turning that began with the runner trying to advance from second to third getting tagged out. Even more astounding, the 2014 Blue Rocks accomplished the feat on July 27th, meaning the Blue Rocks turned four triple plays in the span of 373 days.

August 9 - A 7-4 loss to the Hillcats in Lynchburg marked the 14th straight loss by the Blue Rocks, a franchise record. The only thing stopping it from being a 17 game losing streak was a 7-6 walk-off win on July 25th and the streak finally snapped with a 2-1 walk-off win on August 11th. The Blue crew won just two of 21 games from July 20th, to August 14th.

September 11 - With the game tied 2-2 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Jack Lopez clobbered a two-run home run to put the Rocks up 4-2 in Game Two of the Northern Division Series. The Blue Rocks would hold on for a 4-3 win, sending them to the Mills Cup for the first time since 2004.

April 11 - Blue Rocks fall one double shy of tying team record for most doubles in a game. Six different Blue Rocks doubled in the series opener in a 6-4 win over Carolina. It was also the first win of the 2016 season.

May 18 - Arguably one of the most memorable games for the Blue Rocks' faithful in 2016. With the Frederick Keys in town, Wilmington was down to it's final at-bats in the bottom of the ninth, trailing 2-0. With a runner on, Robert Pehl laced a double to left-center field to get the Blue Rocks on the board and make it a 2-1 game. Catcher Luis Villegas walloped a triple to the left-center gap to tie the game at 2-2. With two outs, Escalera blooped a single to right field to drive home Villegas to stun the Keys 3-2. It was the second walk-off win in the last three home games for Wilmington.

June 13 - The flame throwing Josh Staumont dazzled and set a career-high 12 strikeouts in just five innings of work as the Blue Rocks went on to win 3-1 against Winston-Salem.

June 14 - The Dash and Blue Rocks needed 14 innings to deem a winner. The lone player All-Star representative for the Blue Rocks, Humberto Artega erased an 0-for-6 showing at the plate and played hero with two outs and a pair of runners on first and second base. On the first pitch of the at-bat, Artega singled through the middle to score Joshua Baneulos from second to give Wilmington a 3-2 win.

June 21 - Blue Rocks' skipper Jamie Quirk leads the Carolina League All-Stars to a 6-4 victory over the California League All-Stars.

June 25 - Royals' top-prospect Raul Mondesi joins Wilmington on rehab assignment. It was his second stint with the Blue Rocks.

June 28 - One of the more intriguing losses during the season was with Lynchburg in the friendly confines of Frawley Stadium. Wilmington's pitching racked up a season-high 17 strikeouts with ten of them coming from starter Zach Lovorn. Wilmington ultimately fell 4-0. July 4 - The Blue Rocks brought the fireworks and exploded for 12 runs on 14 hits at Potomac in a 12-1 victory. Corey Ray was on a roll on the hill and retired 16 in a row during the game and Wander Franco made his presence felt with a grand slam in the eighth inning. Franco drove in seven runs in the game to tie a blue Rocks record for RBI in a game.

May 15 - Outfielder Anderson Miller extended his league-leading on-base streak to an impressive 30 games. Miller did not reach base in the following game, however, the 30-gamer stood as the longest on-base streak in the Carolina League in 2017 and tied for the fourth-longest on-base streak in the CL in the last three years. It also fell shy by just three games of tying the Blue Rocks franchise record set by Eric Hosmer in 2010 when he reached in 33 straight contests.

June 2 - First baseman Chris DeVito hits for the cycle at BB&T Ballpark at Winston-Salem. The slugger laced a single in his first at-bat, smacked his first career triple in his second plate appearance, doubled in his third trip to the dish and put an exclamation point on his night with a home run in his fourth at-bat to become the first Blue Rock in 18 years to hit for the cycle since Dee Gordon accomplished the feat at Myrtle Beach on April 19, 1999.

June 12 - The Blue Rocks had seven players named to the Carolina League All-Star game. Shortstop Nicky Lopez, outfielder Anderson Miller, and pitchers Foster Griffin, Cristian Castillo, Richard Lovelady, Junior Marte, and A.J. Puckett were all representatives for the Blue Crew. The seven selections were tied for the second-most in franchise history.

June 13-18 - Wilmington's pitching staff stung together 35 consecutive scoreless innings, falling three innings shy of tying a franchise record which was set from June 7-12, 2009. The stretch included three straight shutout victories for Wilmington, outscoring opponents 24-0 during that span.

July 1 - After transitioning from the bullpen to a starter, Andres Machado turned in a career start against the Salem Red Sox at Frawley Stadium. The right-handed hurler racked up a career-high 14 strikeouts in seven innings of work, striking out the side two different times. Machado fell three strikeouts shy of tying a Blue Rocks franchise record set back on August 7, 1995 when Glendon Rusch struck out 17 batters.

July 2 - Right-hander Scott Blewett twirled a complete-game shutout at Frawley Stadium against Salem. It marked the first of his career and first for the Blue Rocks since Zach McClellan tossed one on August 26, 2003 at Myrtle Beach. Blewett allowed just four hits and struck out four batters to complete the wire-to-wire win over the Red Sox. Blewett, who was rated a top-ten prospect for the Kansas City Royals throughout the year, allowed three.

May 16 - Outfielder Nick Heath broke a 1-1 tie in the first game of a doubleheader in the bottom of the eighth inning on an inside-the-park home run to beat the Myrtle Beach Pelicans 3-1. A blooper landed in between the Pelicans' shortstop and left fielder who both collided without touching the ball, allowing the ball to roll down the line. It was the first inside-the-park home run for a Blue Rock since Ryan O'Hearn hit two in the 2016 season.

September 1 - Catcher Meibrys Wloria was called up to the Kansas City Royals. He became just the second player in Blue Rocks' history to go from Wilmington to Kansas City in the same season. Mike Sweeney (1995) was the first.

September 4 - Right-hander Gerson Garabito won the Carolina League ERA Title with a 3.16 ERA in 26 starts. He became first Blue Rocks' pitcher since 2014 (Glenn Sparkman) to lead the league in ERA.

December 9 - As part of Minor League Baseball's major realignment in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Wilmington Blue Rocks announced a new 10-year affiliation contract with the Washington Nationals. Wilmington remains in High-A, along with Winston-Salem, in a completely revamped 12-team High-A East league. Asheville, Bowling Green, Greenville, Hickory, Greensboro, Rome and Jersey Shore are promoted from Low-A & Aberdeen, Brooklyn and Hudson Valley are promoted from Short-Season-A.

March 16 - High-A East is formally rebranded as the South Atlantic League. The Carolina League, the name of Wilmington's league from their first modern game in 1993 until 2020, will be the new name for what was formerly known as Low-A East.

2023

April 11 - Former Blue Rocks outfielder and Wilmington native Tyler Hill has his number retired by the Blue Rocks during pre-game on Opening Day. Hill, an alum of Delaware Military Academy, was a key part of Wilmington's 2019 Carolina League title run.

May 27 - 2019 World Series champion Sean Doolittle makes a rehab appearance for Wilmington and locks down a 7-5 comeback win for the Blue Rocks. The Nationals No. 1 prospect, outfielder James Wood, homers the go-ahead runs for the win in his final game before being called up to Double-A Harrisburg.

August 12 - Andrew Alvarez pitched eight innings of no-hit baseball on the road against Bowling Green before getting pulled prior to the 9th inning in a 2-1 win for Wilmington. Alvarez racked up 11 strikeouts against the Hots Rods; a career-high. Outfielder Daylen Lile saved the win by securing an outstretched diving catch in centerfield with a runner in scoring position.

August 26 - After beginning the 2023 season as Wilmington's Opening Day starting centerfielder, Jacob Young made his MLB debut for the Washington Nationals. Young would be Wilmington's team leader in stolen bases during 2023 (22) after appearing in 56 games while also possessing a .307 BA, 28 R and 28 RBI.

April 6-7 - Outfielder Jared McKenzie helps begin the 2024 campaign in style by hitting back-to-back walk-offs on Opening Weekend. McKenzie got things going on April 6 with a walk-off homer in the 9th inning to secure the 4-2 win for the Blue Rocks over the Cyclones. The following day, Wilmington and Brooklyn were scoreless after nine innings with Jared McKenzie breaking the 0-0 deadlock in the 10th with a deep sac fly to left field, scoring Johnathon Thomas for the 1-0 win.

August 22 - Over the span of 35 days, the Blue Rocks are no-hit three times on the road with the final one occurring August 22 against Hudson Valley. Wilmington are the only team in MiLB to have three no-hitters against them during the 2024 season.

BLUE ROCKS TEAM HISTORY

In 1940, R.R.M. (Bob) Carpenter brought professional baseball back to the city with the original Wilmington Blue Rocks. The team was a Class B Interstate League affiliate of the Philadelphia A's. Hall-of-Famer Connie Mack owned the Blue Rocks for their first four years of existence. Another Hall-of-Famer, Chief Bender, served as the Blue Rocks first manager.

In 1943, Carpenter, who was a partner with Mack since the Blue Rocks' inception, took full ownership of the club. For their final nine years, the original Blue Rocks were a Philadelphia Phillies affiliate.

The nickname "Blue Rocks" came from 73-year-old Robert Miller in a name-the-team contest. Miller lived in the Henry Clay section of the city, famed for its blue granite found along the Brandywine River.

The Blue Rocks played in Wilmington Park, a $185,000 facility at 30th Street and Governor Printz Boulevard. At the time, it was considered one of the finest minor league parks in the country.

In Wilmington's 13 years in the Interstate League, the Blue Rocks won four Governor's Cup titles and missed the postseason only twice. Pitchers Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons and outfielder Elmer Valo were some of the notables who played for the Blue Rocks before going to the major leagues.

After setting many records for attendance, the Blue Rocks' fan support dwindled and 1952 was their final season in the Interstate League.

In 1993, the Blue Rocks returned to professional baseball as the Class-A Carolina League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. The franchise, formerly known as the Peninsula Pilots, was moved from Hampton, VA.

The stadium, built by the construction company of former Blue Rocks president Matt Minker, was named Legends Stadium (later changed to Judy Johnson Field at Daniel S. Frawley Stadium).

Like their forerunners, the modern Blue Rocks have enjoyed great on-field success. Since their return in 1993, Wilmington has one of the best winning percentages in all of Minor League Baseball, winning eight Northern Division titles in 19 years and four Carolina League championships.

1865-1940

1865 - A group of young businessmen form the Diamond State Baseball Club, the first organized baseball in Wilmington.

May 1866 - The Diamond State Club hosts an exhibition against the Philadelphia Athletics. The powerful visitors win 10-5.

1873 - The amateur Quicksteps rise to prominence as Wilmington's premiere baseball club.

1875 - The first professional team comes to town as the Chicago Whitestockings knock off the Quicksteps, 11-4.

August 1875 - The successful Quicksteps build new grounds and prohibit betting at their games. Late in the season, they welcome the now-professional Athletics to town and win, 6-4.

1876 - The Quicksteps become Wilmington's first professional team, bringing in out-of-town players and paying them about $10 a week.

1877 - The original Quicksteps disband due to lack of fan support.

1883 - Wilmington assembles a team for the new Interstate League and gives it the traditional Quicksteps moniker. The team stumbles to a 27-48 record.

1884 - The Interstate League reassembles under the name Eastern League. The Quicksteps lay waste to the rest of the league, romping to a 50-12 record by mid-August.

August 1884 - Wilmington leaves the Eastern League to fill an empty spot in the Union League, a "major league." The team finishes just 2-16 and disbands before the season ends. A stable professional team does not return to Wilmington for 20 years.

July 4, 1896 - The Wilmington Peaches, an entry in the Atlantic League, play a tripleheader against the Paterson, NJ club, with the final game played under artificial lights. For improved visibility, a softball is used. Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner plays for the Paterson club. The ball was lost so many times and so many runs were scored that they did not keep score. The first major league night game would not be played until 40 years later.

1901-03 - Two amateur teams, the AA's and the BB's become the most popular Wilmington teams of all time. The AA's draw 10,500 fans to their 1903 opener; across town, the BB's draw 4,500.

1904-05 - The AA's bring pro ball back to Wilmington, entering the independent Tri-State League and taking the name of the Wilmington Peaches.

1907 - The Tri-State League becomes part of the National Agreement and is now recognized as a Class-B league. Future Yankee manager Joe McCarthy plays for the Peaches.

1913 - The Tri-State club, now known as the Chicks, wins the league championship, finishing 66-45.

1915-1939 - Professional baseball takes a hiatus from Wilmington. Negro League teams play in 1925 and 1932.

1918 - Amateur teams, named after wartime industries, play each other in Wilmington. Shoeless Joe Jackson plays for the league-champion "Shipbuilders."

1940 - Bob Carpenter and Connie Mack bring the Blue Rocks to Wilmington.

After enduring a 46-minute rain delay at the outset, dreary damp conditions all night, and 20 consecutive scoreless innings over two games, the Wilmington Blue Rocks offense ended the evening in style. Eric Hosmer blasted a two-run homer over the right-field fence to give the Rocks a 2-0 walk-off win and a two-games-to-one series advantage. The triumph was Wilmington's fourth walk-off postseason win in franchise history and its first since the championship-clinching victory during Game Four of the 1998 finals vs. Winston-Salem.

Ryan O'Hearn clubbed his first postseason home run to put the Blue Rocks up early, but the lead slipped out of their hands with two runs from the Pelicans in the sixth. Down a run in the bottom of the ninth inning, the Blue Rocks would load the bases with nobody out, but could only scratch across a single run to tie the game in their last outs.
