ART SAVAGE

Art Savage was a plain-spoken doer who focused on building things up as opposed to tearing them down.

Numerous expressions of tribute have been offered for the Sacramento River Cats owner who died too soon at 58 last November. In truth, it's easy to exaggerate a human legacy.

But Savage is different, because his contributions won't be measured by words, but by concrete deeds accomplished against the fury of Sacramento-style politics.

Everyone loves Raley Field now. It's quickly become a Sacramento landmark, a place where top athletes play championship baseball and families celebrate life.

Savage was bringing professional baseball back to the region after a long absence, but he had to bulldoze through hurdles to do so. He had to beat a lawsuit, construct the stadium, complete its financing, move the team from Vancouver and rebuild it here – all in a matter of months.

"All anyone thinks of is the good stuff now," said Tina Thomas, the lead attorney working with Savage back then. "It was risky and gutsy, but he pulled it off."

By any measure, the River Cats are the best minor league baseball franchise in America. Savage didn't get it done by being a pushover.

"He was a fearsome negotiator," said Mark Friedman, a developer and friend.

When I think of Savage, I think of Little Leaguers in multicolored uniforms filling the lawn seats on a hot summer's day. Or the glorious sight of a late summer sunset against the Tower Bridge. Or a Delta breeze soothing the grandstands under a moonlit sky.

Just days before Savage's death, West Sacramento approved a massive construction project that someday will fill the vacant lots around Raley Field with homes and businesses. An amphitheater will go up, complementing baseball with music.

"Art completed his ballpark before we bought the property to build in West Sacramento," Friedman said. "I don't think we would have bought the property otherwise. (He) showed the way forward."

Though he's no longer with us, summer and children will return each year to the park that Savage built – a legacy beyond words.

SUSAN SAVAGE

Born: Amarillo, TX

Resides: Sacramento, CA

Bats/Throws: R/R

Obtained by Sacramento: 2000

Susan, A native of Amarillo, Texas, and graduate of UCLA, is entering her 12th season as the sole majority owner of the Sacramento River Cats. Susan and her late husband, Art Savage, purchased the Triple-A franchise and moved the team from Vancouver to the River City in 2000. For 10 years, they co-owned the River Cats, bringing baseball back to Sacramento after a 23-year absence.

Susan was the Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce Businesswoman of the Year in 2012, with a nomination as Minor League Baseball's Female Executive of the Year, as well. She has also been recognized by the Sacramento Business Journal as one of the Leaders of the Year. She serves on the boards of the California Chamber of Commerce, River Cats Foundation, and Chairs the Sacramento Host Breakfast Committee. Recently, Susan was named Chair of the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee for Minor League Baseball.

The Savage family is committed to offering the best fan experience possible, making customer service the top priority. Our vision is to make Sutter Health Park the number one venue for entertainment in the Sacramento area.

JEFF SAVAGE

Born: Walnut Creek, CA
Resides: Sacramento, CA
Bats/Throws: R/R
Obtained by Sacramento: 2004

Jeff Savage is the River Cats' President and oversees the operations of the baseball team, stadium, and land development around Sutter Health Park.

Prior to joining the River Cats, Jeff operated a sole proprietorship, consulting and advising client companies both inside and outside the professional sports world. Before venturing on his own, Jeff was a manager in the San Francisco office of Deloitte & Touche, consulting client companies in the management of their intellectual property.

In 2012, Jeff was named to the Business Journal's 40 under 40 list and more recently was named to the Business Journal's list of Top Execs of 2014. In addition to his duties with the River Cats, he is a board member of Make-A-Wish, Vice President of the River Cats Foundation, member of the MIND Institute Advisory Committee at UC Davis, and member of the Sacramento Sports Commission Advisory Board. He has also served as the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce Board Chair.

Jeff received his bachelor's degree in business administration at Southern Methodist University and his master's in business administration at the University of California, Davis. He and his wife, Ulrike, and their children reside in Sacramento.

CHIP MAXSON

Born: Canton, OH

Resides: Folsom, CA

Bats/Throws: R/R

Obtained by Sacramento: 2012

A Midwest native, Chip played baseball at Olivet Nazarene University and received an MSE in Sports Management from Baylor University. After a couple of internships with the Kane County Cougars and Memphis Redbirds, Chip took the next step selling tickets for the Frisco RoughRiders.

In 2008, Chip moved to Tacoma, WA, as the Vice President of Ticket Sales for the Tacoma Rainiers and was instrumental in the renovation of Cheney Stadium, which won Ballpark Digest's 2011 Renovation of the Year award.

Chip joined the River Cats in 2012 and has focused on leadership development, creating a positive sales culture, developing new premium and social spaces, upgrading digital and video components and emphasizing a strong community involvement.

Chip was highly involved in the River Cats affiliation switch to the San Francisco Giants which helped the team lead all of MiLB in attendance during the 2015 season. The decision was made in 2017 to bring the food and beverage operations in-house and Maxson played a significant role in the creation and operation of River City Concessions. The 2019 season was a year to be remembered as Chip was integral in negotiating a new stadium naming rights deal with Sutter Health. In addition, he was named the Pacific Coast League Executive of the Year, and the River Cats became the only team to win three Triple-A National Championships.

Maxson was named one of Sacramento Business Journal's 40 Under 40 in 2015 and was one of Sacramento Magazine's 100 Notable Business Leaders in 2021. Chip was part of the Leadership Sacramento Class of 2020 – Best Class Ever!

Outside of work, Chip serves on the boards of Youth for Christ/Campus Life, The Daniel Summit, and the William Jessup University Business School Advisory Board. His wife, Allison, is a physical therapist and an elite runner who ran in the 2016 Olympic Marathon Trials. She is by far the best athlete in the family!

There, he oversaw the department's efforts in capital projects, facility management, game operations, information technology, and strength and conditioning.

FIELD
STAFF

DAVE BRUNDAGE

MANAGER

Opening Day Age: 57

Born: 10/6/64 Portland, OR

Bats/Throws: L/L

Height/Weight: 6'3"/190

Originally Drafted: 4th round of the 1986 draft by the Philadelphia Phillies

Career Highlights

Brundage will take the field as the River Cats' manager for the sixth consecutive season, having won the Triple-A National Championship with Sacramento in 2019. Having nearly two decades of managerial experience, the veteran manager spent four previous seasons with the Lehigh Valley IronPigs (Philadelphia Phillies Triple-A), compiling a 286-289 record (.497), before heading west to Sacramento. In 2016, he led the IronPigs to an 85-58 record, the second best mark in all of Triple-A baseball.

Brundage made his managerial debut in 1995 with the Riverside Pilots (Seattle Mariners Class A-Advanced) but has spent most of his managerial career at either the Double-A or Triple-A levels. Prior to his four seasons with Lehigh Valley, Brundage helmed the Richmond/Gwinnett Braves for six seasons from 2007 to 2012. He made his Triple-A debut in 2006 with the Pacific Coast League's Tacoma Rainiers. Brundage has a career record of 1,563-1,544 (.503) in 21 seasons as a manager and a 985-1,010 (.494) mark at the Triple-A level.

Drafted in the 4th round of the 1986 draft out of Oregon State University, Brundage spent 10 seasons in the minors with the Phillies and Mariners organizations.

Brundage as an All-American outfielder in 1986 at Oregon State

GARVIN ALSTON

PITCHING COACH

Opening Day Age: 50

Born: 12/8/71 , Mount Vernon, NY

Bats/Throws: R/R

Height/Weight: 6'2"/185

Originally Drafted: 10th round of the 1992 draft by the Colorado Rockies

Career Highlights

Alston joins the River Cats with extensive coaching experience in professional baseball, including the Major League level. His most recent position was as the Minnesota Twins pitching coach in 2018, where he coached Twins pitchers to 1,377 team strikeouts.

He spent one season each as the bullpen coach of the Diamondbacks (2016) and Athletics (2017) before being hired as the Twins' pitching coach in 2018.

Prior to the majors, Alston was the pitching coach for both the Kane County Cougars (2005-06) and Stockton Ports (2007-08), where he coached future River Cats Vin Mazzaro, Brad Kilby, Graham Godfrey, Trevor Cahill, and 2009 Rookie of the year and current San Francisco Giants pitching coach Andrew Bailey.

Alston was originally a 10th-round pick by the Colorado Rockies in 1992, the franchise's inaugural draft. He pitched six games at the Major League level, finishing with a 1-0 record and five strikeouts over six career innings.

Alston is the father of 2019 White Sox draft pick Garvin Alston Jr., and the cousin of former MLB outfielder Dell Alston.

DAMON MINOR

HITTING COACH

Opening Day Age: 47

Born: 1/5/74 Canton, OH

Bats/Throws: L/L

Height/Weight: 6'7"/230

Originally Drafted: 12th round of the 1996 draft by the San Francisco Giants

Career Highlights

In his fourth year with the team (2019), Minor helped the champion River Cats improve their batting average to .280, good for the best of his tenure, and eighth in the Pacific Coast League.

Minor spent the 2016 offseason serving as the hitting coach for the Scottsdale Scorpions (Arizona Fall League), where he worked with potential future River Cats hitters.

Minor is now in his sixth season with the River Cats after spending five seasons with the New Orleans Zephyrs. While in New Orleans, he worked to produce an offense that averaged a .260 batting average with over 120 home runs per season, setting a franchise record with 153 home runs in 2012.

Minor was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 12th round of the 1996 amateur draft before debuting in the majors as a first baseman in 2000. He went on to play for the Giants in 2000-2002 and 2004, and for Japan's Rakuten Golden Eagles in 2005.

In 136 games over four seasons, Minor batted .232 with 13 home runs. In 2002, he set a career-high by playing in 83 games and hitting 10 home runs, helping the Giants clinch the National League pennant. While playing in the Giants' organization, Minor held a batting average of .277 with 179 home runs and 648 RBI spread amongst nine seasons.
