STALLING OUT: Garrett Stallings will get the start on the mound for the Sounds on Saturday night. It'll be his first start since July 14, 2024 against the Iowa Cubs. He started 60 of his first 77 professional games from 2021-2023. Since the start of last year, he has made just nine starts over his last 36 games. This season out of the Sounds bullpen, Stallings carries a 0.93 ERA in eight appearances. He has surrendered only four hits in 9.2 IP with nine strikeouts and three walks. His one earned run against him this season was last Friday night in Memphis. His longest outing so far this year was the 2.0 IP he tossed on April 30th on the road in Gwinnett and he hasn't thrown more than 26 pitches in any of his eight outings so far.

CAUGHT UP: With another caught stealing in to end the top of the first, Jorge Alfaro threw out his 12th attempted base stealer of the season. His 12 caught stealing are tied for the fourth-most in the International League. Charlotte's Kyle Teel leads the way with 18 on the year. Alfaro is 12-for-31 on stolen base attempts (39%) and has eight more than Anthony Seigler and Nick Kahle combined for the Sounds.

STILL STREAKIN: Anthony Seigler extended his hitting streak to 14 games with a single in the top of the sixth. He already extended his on-base streak to 20 games earlier in the game, drawing a walk in his first plate appearance in the bottom of the second. He still owns the second-longest active hitting streak in the International League behind Charlotte's Kyle Teel who made it 19 straight games after their game on Friday night. It's the third-longest overall in Triple-A behind Teel and Las Vegas' Drew Avans (23 G).

OUR GUY FRED: Freddy Zamora was one of three Nashville players to have a multi-hit game on Friday night. Zamora finished 2-for-4 with a double and a run. Over his last 18 games, Zamora is hitting .364 (20-for-55) with a home run, three doubles, seven RBI, and eight runs scored. All seven of his multi-hit performances this season have come during this 18-game stretch dating back to April 19th.

DUNN IT AGAIN: Oliver Dunn hit his team-leading ninth double of the year with Nashville on Friday night. More than half of Dunn's hits through his first 31 games with the Sounds have gone for extra-bases.

BLAKE OF THE YEAR: Right-hander Blake Holub was reinstated from the injured list prior to the game and made his first appearance since April 12th. He worked a 1-2-3 top of the sixth in his only inning in the game Friday night. It was his third scoreless appearance in his six games pitched with Nashville this season. The right-hander has not allowed more than one hit or two runs in any of his six games this season.

DON'T CRY BECAUSE IT'S OVER: For the first time since August 27, 2024, Brewers' no. 18-rated prospect Craig Yoho had an earned run charged to him during his time with Nashville. He entered the night tied for the ninth-longest streak in the International League this year at 12 games and was at 20 games overall in Triple-A dating back to August 29th. After his strikeout of Dominic Smith, he was at 23.0 IP and had 23 strikeouts with just 12 hits allowed during the stretch. After his Scoreless inning before Yoho, LHP Tyler Jay now rides the longest streak without an earned run allowed at 12 games in 2025.

DOUBLE BUBBLE: After collecting nine singles in their extra-innings win on Thursday night, Nashville had three doubles in the bottom of the seventh inning alone on Friday. It was their fifth game this season with 3+ doubles. Despite being tied for the International League lead with 13 triples and having 47 home runs through the first 49 games of the year, the Sounds have the third-fewest doubles in the league with 61 on the year after Friday night.

ROSARIO CALLS GAME: Eddie Rosario delivered the first walk-off win of the season for Nashville Thursday and their first since September 15, 2024, when Brewer Hicklen produced a RBI single in extra-innings to beat the Memphis Redbirds. The Sounds had seven walk-off wins last season including two before this date last year, and both in extra innings. The win for Nashville gave them their second win in extra innings, making the club 2-5. Only one of the previous six extra innings games before Thursday night had made it past the 10th, with the Sounds playing their only 11-inning game on April 4th on the road in Gwinnett.
