Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

ABOUT THE AQUASOX...

The Everett AquaSox are the Advanced-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. They play their home games at Funko Field in Everett, WA, 30 minutes north of Seattle. The franchise traces its history back to the Walla Walla, WA-based Blue Mountain Bears, who moved to Everett in 1984 and became the Everett Giants as San Francisco's Short-Season affiliate before signing a Player Development Contract with the Mariners in 1995. That same year, the team debuted its new name: the AquaSox.

PHIL CLARKE, CATCHER/1ST BASE

It's been an up-and-down last six weeks for the C's. What's the vibe been like in the clubhouse these days?

I think there's been a lot of new faces, old faces leaving, guys getting their opportunity to go up to Double-A. MiLB is tough in that aspect: you don't have the same team you started the year with. We're getting to know each other and bringing that chemistry back up. We are on the right track for sure and I think we're going to finish strong.

Phil after a deep drive to the gap

Clarke rounds second earlier this year

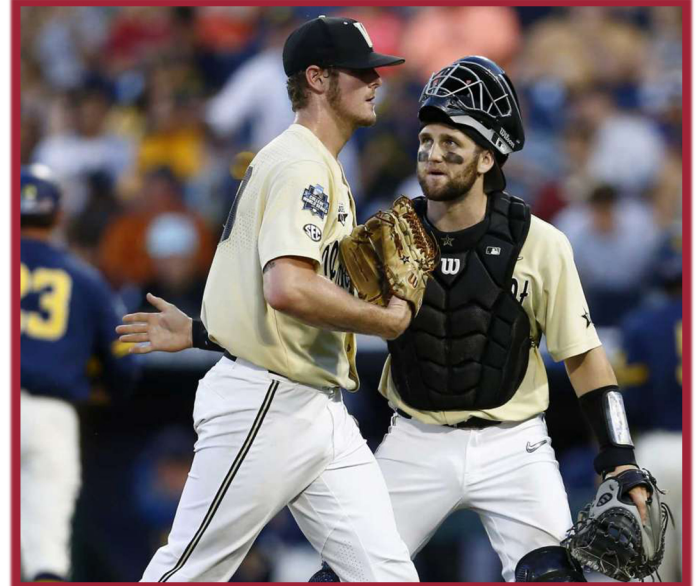

You were on the shelf for almost two weeks with a thumb injury. It seems like you used that time to refocus and catch your breath in the midst of your first full pro season.

Sometimes you just need a little refresh and even though mine was forced on me, it's been great. Full seasons are tough on the mental side with baseball being a game that demands a very high mental ability. It was nice to get off the field for a little bit, as much as it bothered me that I couldn't be out there with the guys. It was nice to figure some stuff out mentally and get back into the present. In the first half of the season I was analyzing a lot and putting a lot of pressure on myself. I think I'm in a great spot now to try and help the team win and have a fun summer.

PHIL CLARKE, CATCHER/1ST BASE

You came back from the injury and immediately began producing at the plate. What was the key factor in that?

There were definitely some physical adjustments I was working on before the injury and I was excited that I got to work on them without having to forge them in the fire on the field while playing every day. I made some mental adjustments that allowed me to release some pressure I'd been putting on myself and reminded myself to go out there and have fun.

Clarke congratulating a teammate at the College World Series

As a key piece of that Vanderbilt team that won the College World Series in 2019, you know a thing or two about winning and being a part of something bigger than yourself. What's it like being a Vandy Boy and playing for Tim Corbin?

You get there and you're not Phil Clarke any more. You're a part of the team. You go out there every day to try and get better for the team and help the team win games. So it's much less about yourself there. That's why they have so much success year in and year out. Guys have really bought in and the idea of "team" is held to the highest standard. Those guys will be my best friends for life after everything we went through together; all the workouts, the practices, the games. The culture there, the team, is the biggest difference between Vandy and other programs. We try and win for each other, not for ourselves.
