LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox opened their six-game series with the Reading Fightin Phils on a losing note on Tuesday afternoon. The 19th annual Reading Morning Game went in favor of the home team 6-2. While Bowie was slow to start, Reading rode a six-run first inning all the way to the finish, while Bowie stranded 12 more runners on base over the course of the afternoon. Making his first start with the Baysox, right-hander Griffin McLarty was roughed up from the first beat. The first five baserunners of the game reached safely against McLarty, including a two-RBI single. Following a sac fly, McLarty was lifted for a reliever, but Reading still went on to pile on three final runs. Bowie inched closer thanks to RBI from Dylan Harris and Gunnar Henderson, and the bullpen locked down after the first inning, only allowing three hits and no walks in the final seven innings of the contest.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

One of the most tenured teams in the entire league, Reading is running into many of the same struggles that plagued them in 2021, as they have been at least five games back in the Northeast Division standings for 12-straight games. The Fightins are batting a league-worst .203 at the start of this series. Opponents have made the most against Reading pitching this season, as their 5.04 ERA is the third-highest in the league. Despite playing in a notably hitter-friendly stadium, Reading pitchers have allowed only 22 home runs, the fourth-fewest in the league, with 12 coming at home.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Adam Leverett was drafted by the Phillies in 2019, and is coming off of an up and down journey through the organization in 2019, where he made multiple appearances with High-A, Double-A, and Triple-A. Struggling with contact so far this season, Leverett has allowed at least one home run in all five of his outings this season. He relies on plenty of swing-and-miss stuff on the mound, with 28 strikeouts against only five walks, and a 16.6% Whiff rate, the highest among qualified pitchers on the Reading roster.

FUN WITH SMALL SAMPLES

The six-run first inning yesterday massively inflated Bowie's pitching numbers in the opening frame of games this season, as well as the overall number from their starting pitchers. With an average first inning on Tuesday, Bowie's ERA would have stuck at 4.32, which would have been good for the fourth-best in the league. However, after yesterday, Bowie's ERA in the first inning jumped to 6.23, the second-highest in the league, below only Reading. With five runs charged to Griffin McLarty in only 0.2 innings on Tuesday, it bumped Bowie's starting pitcher ERA nearly 0.40 runs (3.64>4.02)

GET 'EM ON, GET 'EM OVER, FORGOT THE LAST ONE

The Baysox left another 12 runners on base in Tuesday's game, behind seven hits and seven walks at the plate. It was the second Bowie loss this season when they out-hit their opponent, and continued a tough trend of leaving runners on base. Bowie has stranded at least 10 runners on base in three of their last five games. They lead the league with 48 runners left on base over the last seven days.

PATIENCE, YOUNG GRASSHOPPER

Bowie has been frustrating opposing pitchers this season with their patience and discipline at the plate. Their 131 walks lead the Eastern League, despite playing two fewer games than most teams in the circuit. Bowie also sports three of the top 15 batters in the Eastern League for most pitches seen, as Andrew Daschbach, Gunnar Henderson and Jordan Westburg sit in the rankings.

TOP GUNNAR

Infielder Gunnar Henderson was named the Eastern League Player of the Week on Monday, after going 9-for-17 at the plate with a double, a home run, four RBI, and five runs scored. While going 2-for-3 in Bowie's series opener on Tuesday, he extended his on-base streak to 26 consecutive games, every game this season for the Baysox, and the longest stretch in the league. Gunnar has increased his walk rate from just 12.1% across three levels played last season up to over 20% so far this season. Henderson is ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. He was named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Ryan Watson lost 13 inning scoreless streak in last start, still finished career-high 5.2 innings. See Page 2 for more.

NOT SO DASCH-ING - Bowie infielder Andrew Daschbach leads all qualified hitters in the League in average pitches seen per PA, at 4.7

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Career Notes

- Saw his ERA more than double across the jump from Low-A to High-A. 2.14 across 33.2 innings with Delmarva, and 4.94 across 31 innings with Aberdeen.
- In the Orioles system, his 79 strikeouts were the third-most among pitchers who made at least half of their appearances in relief.
- Auburn native played four years for his local university, logging a 4.01 ERA, but a 0.67 WHIP.

What They're Saying:

Watson on his approach to at bats: "I took what my college coach, coach Thompson at Auburn, he was big on not walking guys. Challenging the hitters, and going right after them. I try not to waste any time, and just go after them with my best stuff, and my best locations. Attacking hitters is my philosophy."

Watson ongoing through the 2020 draft as an NDFA: "There were a couple of teams that had made contact, but Baltimore was the one that been the most thorough in talking with me so it was a no-brainer."

Garrett Stallings, Bowie Starter and Watson's Throwing Partner: "He's put a ton of work on this offseason. Moving better, a lot more aware of his body. Honestly, I think he's just out there not thinking too much. When a pitcher is in a groove, the gears start turning. He's the most electric guy on the team right now, and he's trying extremely hard to get better, and that's a dangerous combination."

Notes by Outing

- 4/13 @ BNG Double-A debut, fired four perfect innings of long relief against Binghamton to earn a one-run win. He struck out seven batters, including the first four batters he faced.
- 4/20 v AKR Matched his previous relief outing with four more consecutive perfect innings, completing a one-hit shutout of Akron while earning a long save. Struck out three batters, induced six ground outs, and three fly outs. Across first 24 batters faced, only two reached a three-ball count.
- 4/27 @ RIC Saw his perfect streak come to an end on the fifth batter of the game on a single by Brandon Martorano. Allowed two runners to reach second base, but none to reach third base.
- 5/3 v HBG Lost his 13 inning scoreless streak after only two batters. Allowed back-to-back doubles to open the first inning, as Jake Alu drove in a run. Taylor Gushue followed with a two-run home run for three runs in the opening frame. Faced the minimum for 12-consecutive batters, but hit another snag in the fifth inning when he allowed a two-run home run to Alu. Bowie tied the game at five in the fifth, as Watson departed midway through the top of the sixth.

Player Notes

Joined Bowie on 5/4 after starting the season with High-A Aberdeen. // Made four appearances with the IronBirds, going 1-0 while allowing four earned runs in 12 innings of work, while three earned runs were limited to just one outing. Also struck out 12 batters and walked one. // In 2021, made most of his appearances with Low-A Delmarva, but missed most of June with injury before a short rehab stint in the Florida Complex League. // With Delmarva in 2021, he went 4-1 with a 4.37 ERA, striking out 34 and only walking nine in 45.1 innings. // Spent four seasons pitching at Oklahoma State University, but missed the majority of two seasons due to Tommy John Surgery. // Brother Jake was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, and currently plays in the Toronto organization, has appeared with New Hampshire this season.

Player Notes

Joined Bowie on 5/4 after a brief outing overpowering hitters at High-A Aberdeen. // Fanned six and allowed only one hit in two scoreless innings in his only appearance for the IronBirds, 4/27 versus Jersey Shore. // Bowie is the third Eastern League team he has been rostered with, but only the second he has been active with, as he spent his entire time with the Richmond Flying Squirrels on the Injured List. // 14 career Major League appearances, two with Colorado in 2019, and 12 with San Francisco in 2020. // Major League debut was his lone start at the highest level, allowed six runs on seven hits in five innings at Coors in a 10-6 loss to Boston. Allowed three home runs in the game, including home runs by Jackie Bradley Jr. and Xander Bogaerts. // Used as a short-length reliever in San Francisco, making most of his appearances in a two-week span, allowed five earned runs in just six innings across nine total appearances to start his time. // Originally drafted by Colorado out of the 30th round of the 2016 draft out of Hawaii Pacific University. // Key starter in the Hartford rotation in 2018 and 2019, going a combined 14-4 with a 2.07 ERA in 24 career starts. // Never appeared against Bowie in his Eastern League career.

Player Notes

Fired a perfect seventh inning to finish the 11th No-Hitter in Baysox history on 5/8 against Harrisburg to open a doubleheader. Worked two flyouts and a groundout in relief of Garrett Stallings. // Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Player Notes

Began the season with High-A Aberdeen, appearing in seven games. He allowed five earned runs in 7.1 innings (6.14 ERA), struck out eight and walked five. // Baltimore is the third Major League organization that he has been part of. Was originally signed as an undrafted free agent from Washington College by the Texas Rangers in 2017. Cincinnati claimed him off of waivers in December of 2020. Was released after the end of the 2021 season, and signed by Baltimore. // His first dance with Double-A batting was not memorable. Made five appearances for Double-A Chattanooga in 2021, but allowed 12 earned runs in just 2.2 innings pitched, and ERA of 40.50. // Was primarily a catcher in college, but after an injury midway through his junior season, had circumstance lead him to transition to pitching. // Led Washington College in hitting (.333) and stolen bases (5), was second on the team in slugging (.500), on-base percentage (.417), and RBI (19), and was third in doubles (7) while scoring 14 runs in 2017 // Following Tommy John surgery while in the Texas organization, main goal for 2022 has been to finish out a full season.

Player Notes

Missed significant time in 2021 due to injury, including all of May and, later, all of August. // Played 15 games in the Arizona Fall League with the Mesa Solar Sox, hitting .279 with three home runs and 14 RBI, as well as a .935 OPS. // In total, played just 24 games with Bowie, 10 with Delmarva, and four games on a rehab trip to the Complex League. // Was named one of the two PTBNL from the Atlanta Braves in November of 2020 in exchange for LHP Tommy Milone. Full trade: Atlanta receives LHP Tommy Milone, Baltimore receives two PTBNL (Cullen and SS AJ Graffanino.) // Was twice named a Braves Organization All-Star by MiLB.com, in 2018 and 2019. // Initially drafted by Atlanta in the 15th round of the 2018 draft.

Player Notes

Was critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins against Akron in April, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error. // Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Hit his first home run of the season on 4/22 against Akron after 11 games, measured at a 112 MPH exit velocity, which was a fast as any ball in play by Orioles Major Leaguers by that point in the season. Hit another 105+ MPH home run the following day, breaking a string of 11 consecutive strikeouts by Daniel Espino of Akron. // Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slit $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Blood: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical....this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscoe (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
