ZAMORA THAT: Freddy Zamora extended his hitting streak to five games and on-base streak to eight with a single in the bottom of the third inning on Saturday. He also has recorded a hit in six of his last seven games. This is Zamora's longest hitting streak since he posted a five-game streak from July 19 - July 25. There have been seven separate hitting streaks from Zamora of four or more games, with the longest at eight from April 19 - May 8. On Saturday's, Zamora has found a way to become one of the Sounds best hitters, posting a .372 batting average with a homer and nine RBI over 13 games played on that day.

IN THE WORDS OF DRAKE: Rhys Hoskins and Daz Cameron notched back-to-back homers in the bottom of the fourth during Saturday night's game. It's the first back-to-back homers from a Sounds lineup since Bobby Dalbec and Oliver Dunn recorded the feat on July 23 against the Charlotte Knights. It is also the fifth time this season that two players for the Nashville lineup earned back-to-back longballs. Cameron joined in his second one of the season on Saturday, having gone back-to-back with Dalbec on July 22 against the Knights. Hoskins posted his first home run since joining the Sounds on August 19 with a rehab assignment. The 32-year-old has reached base in a four games played with Nashville.

A TALE OF TWO PITCHERS: Brian Fitzpatrick and Craig Yoho have been consistent for the Sounds over the last two weeks. On Saturday, both pitchers tossed scoreless from the Nashville bullpen. Fitzpatrick totaled 2.2 scoreless frames with a season-high five strikeouts, while Yoho punched out two batters during the ninth. Over his last 7.2 innings, Fitzpatrick has not allowed an earned run, which goes all the way back to August 12. For Yoho, he's putting together another impressive scoreless streak, and currently has not allowed an earned run over his last five games and 5.1 innings of work.

STICK TO THE FUNDAMENTALS: Despite the loss on Saturday, the Sounds played a clean game defensively with zero errors against the Bats. Nashville has not committed an error defensively over their last six games and has recorded five double plays over that span. Overall, the Sounds have a .980 fielding percentage and have committed 84 errors in 123 games played. This ranks top 15 in the International League in fielding percentage and No. 10 for fewest errors committed.

QUERO BEAR: Jeferson Quero has arguably been playing the best baseball of his professional career over the last two weeks, and that continued in Friday night's game against the Bats. Fresh off a 2-for-4 night with a double and an RBI, Quero began Friday with a go-ahead three-run homer to center field. Over the last two weeks, Quero is 13-for-30 (.433) with three homers and 13 RBI. The Brewers No. 4 prospect is currently going through a season-long hitting streak of eight games and season-long on-base streak of 11 games. This is Quero's longest hitting streak of his career since putting up an eight-game hitting streak in 2023 with Double-A Biloxi from June 24 - July 4.

ALL HAIL KING LIRANZO: Right-hander Jesus Liranzo tossed 2.0 scoreless innings with three strikeouts in a win over the Bats on Friday night. With those 2.0 innings, Liranzo surpassed Tyler Jay for the longest scoreless innings streak without allowing an earned run by any Sounds pitcher this season. Liranzo sits at 18.2 consecutive frames without letting up an earned run, which is a span that has lasted from July 6 - August 22. Over this span, Liranzo is 1-0 with 22 strikeouts and just four walks. He is also one game away from tying Jay for the top spot on the team this year for most consecutive games without allowing an earned run. Currently, Liranzo sits at 14 straight games since July 6. His 14-game streak is the third-longest active streak in the minors, behind Sacramento's Matt Gage (16 G) and Double-A Amarillo's Landon Sims (15 G).

JARED AND WAITING: Jared Oliva led the way in the hit category for the Sounds on Friday with a three-hit performance. Oliva went 3-for-4 with an RBI single and is now 6-for-12 (.500) with two RBI this week against the Bats. It is Oliva's second game this month with three or more hits after collecting a four hits last week against the Durham Bulls on August 14. After going 2-for-22 in a series against the Scranton Wilkes-Barre RailRiders, Oliva has turned it around, going 11-for-25 over his last two series. Overall this season, Oliva is now batting .257 with 39 RBI over 90 games played for the Sounds.
