

Sacramento River Cats (3-4/39-43) vs. Reno Aces (3-4/40-42)

RHP Mason Black (1-5, 4.75) vs. RHP Casey Kelly (1-3, 5.77)

GAME 83 | HOME GAME 35 | WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 2025 | 6:45 P.M. (PT) | SUTTER HEALTH PARK | WEST SACRAMENTO, CA

LAST TIME OUT: Sacramento scored early and often in their series opener with the Reno Aces on Tuesday, managing at least one tally in seven of eight innings with an at-bat as the River Cats secured a 9-0 shutout win...IF Osleivis Basabe tallied his third three-hit game of the year and was 3-for-5 with two runs scored and two doubles...OF Marco Luciano was 2-for-5 with a pair of RBI and his team-leading 13th homer of the season...OF Hunter Bishop homered and was 1-for-3 with three RBI...C Logan Porter hit a solo shot for his third dinger of the campaign and was 1-for-3 with a walk...RHP Trevor McDonald worked seven scoreless frames and scattered three hits, two of which were in the first inning, striking out five for his sixth win of the year...RHP Sean Hjelle finished off the shutout by working the final two innings while allowing two hits with one punchout.

TODAY'S STARTER: RHP Kai-Wei Teng prepares for his 22nd outing of the season, but just his second start after he recently earned his first starting assignment against Oklahoma City on June 26...On short notice Teng was impressive as a starter, holding the Comets to one unearned run on no hits in four innings, striking out a season best eight batters to three walks...This will be Teng's third outing of the season against Reno, a squad in which he is 0-0 with a 3.38 ERA (1 er, 2.2 ip) in two relief appearances this season...Teng posted his best monthly ERA in June, going 1-0 with a 3.52 ERA (6 er, 15.1 ip) in seven total outings.

FOLLOW THE LEADER: There are a handful of Sacramento River Cats that find themselves amongst the league leaders in the Pacific Coast League...Offensively, OF Grant McCray is tied for fifth in stolen bases with 18...OF Marco Luciano and his 45 walks are seventh...From the mound, the River Cats dominate much of the PCL leaderboards among pitchers who qualify...In ERA, LHP Carson Whisenhunt is third (4.55), RHP Mason Black is fourth (4.75), and RHP Trevor McDonald is fifth (4.93)...In innings pitched, Whisenhunt is first (89.0; first in Triple-A), McDonald is second (80.1), and Black is fifth (72.0)...In strikeouts, Whisenhunt and McDonald are tied for second (79; tied for eighth in Triple-A), and Black is fifth (70)...In opposing average, Black is first (.206; third in Triple-A), McDonald is third (.245), and Whisenhunt is fourth (.262)...In WHIP, Whisenhunt is first (1.27), McDonald is third (1.32), and Black is fourth (1.33)...Whisenhunt's seven wins are tied for second (tied for third in Triple-A) while McDonald's six wins are tied for fourth...In games started, Whisenhunt is tied for first (16) while Black is tied for fifth (14).

A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES: The River Cats got July 2025 off to a winning start, turning in a 9-0 shutout win over the Reno Aces...That's a stark contrast from the beginning of July 2024, as exactly one year ago the River Cats were nearly no-hit by the Aces with a combination of RHP Yilber Diaz, LHP Joe Jacques, RHP Austin Pope, and RHP Luis Frias...That no-no attempt lasted until OF Ryan McKenna recorded a ground rule double in the bottom of the ninth with one out, but Sacramento still fell by a 7-0 final...Oddly enough, two of the same Reno pitchers made appearances in yesterday's contest, as Diaz tossed 1.0 innings with one run allowed on a homer to OF Marco Luciano in the fifth and two strikeouts, while Pope worked the sixth and yielded one run on two hits with a punchout.

JULY FIREWORKS: Sacramento's victory yesterday helped start their quest for a winning month on the right foot, as the River Cats have been below the level mark in every month this season (when combining three March games with April)...Even further, Sacramento has not been above the even line in the month of July since they were 17-10 (.630) in the 2019 season...The offense will be the first area of improvement as the River Cats have seen their batting average dip in July each year since 2019...In 2024 Sacramento batted .263 (209-for-796) with 30 homers, which was their fewest dingers since the 2018 campaign...However, their 196 were their fewest since going down on strikes only 177 times in 2016...Fortunes were better on the mound in 2024, as their 5.22 ERA (118 er, 203.1 ip) was their lowest since posting a 3.71 (102 er, 247.2 ip) mark in 2017...While their 112 walks issued was their second fewest since the start of 2021 for a month of July, Sacramento's 216 strikeouts were their fewest since they had only 207 int he 2018 season...In the field Sacramento committed only 11 errors (fewest since at least 2005).

BISH PLEASE: OF Hunter Bishop is heating up with the Sacramento July weather, as he has hits in four straight games and is batting 7-for-13 (.538) with five runs scored, two doubles, two homers, 10 RBI, one walk and a 1.754 OPS...In this stretch so far the Arizona State product has: started thre streak with three straight two-hit games; scored at least one run in all four games; driven in three runs in three of four contests...The 10 RBI he has recorded in the past four games are just one shy of the 11 he had posted over his previous 26 games played (May 11 through June 26)...The former first-round pick has homered in consecutive games, the fifth River Cat this season to do so (last: OF Grant McCray, 6/8 at SUG & 6/10 vs. TAC)...Those homers snapped a 33-game home run drought, which was second on the team only to IF Sergio Alcántara's active team-leading 64 game homer drought.

LET IT FLY: The River Cats crushed three homers in yesterday's victory, the fifth time they have hit three or more homers in a game this season...The last time they did so was when they hammered a season-high four dingers during a 12-10 win at Salt Lake on June 17...Sacramento is 4-1 when hitting three or more homers, with their only loss coming on April 30 when they dropped a 16-6 final at home against today's opponent in the Reno Aces...Apart of the homer party was OF Marco Luciano, who crushed his team-leading 13th blast of the 2025 season...Luciano has seen time in 74 games so far this season, only nine shy of the 83 he played in 2024 but has already recorded three more homers (10 in 2024)...Astoundingly, the River Cats are 10-2 when Luciano hits a home run, which is the best mark of any River Cat in 2025.

DRAWING A BLANK: Sacramento earned its fifth shutout win of the season yesterday, moving their record to 5-7 in shut-out games this year...The River Cats had suffered three shutout losses since they earned their last shutout victory, which was a 4-0 defeat of the Sugar Land Space Cowboys on June 8...This 9-0 victory over Reno yesterday was Sacramento's largest of the season, topping the 8-0 shutout win that the River Cats logged on the first day of the season at home against the Albuquerque Isotopes...This was Sacramento's largest shutout win since they logged a 13-0 decision over the Salt Lake Bees on Sept. 3, 2024, which was their final shutout game of the 2024 campaign...Overall the River Cats were 8-6 in shutout games in 2024.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: Sacramento flipped another two double plays in yesterday's victory over Reno...Sacramento led the Pacific Coast League by turning a total of 11 during their series last week with Oklahoma City, which inlcuded a season-high tying four twin killings on Sunday (also: 4/20 vs. SL), topping the nine turned by both Oklahoma City and Reno...That gives the River Cat a total of 81 double plays turned on the year, which is second in both the PCL and all Triple-A to the 87 by the Round Rock Express (each of the top six double-play turning teams are from the PCL: RR, SAC, ABQ, TAC, RNQ, SUG).

QUALITY AND QUANTITY: RHP Trevor McDonald produced his sixth quality start of the season by going seven scoreless frames yesterday, which is tied with LHP Carson Whisenhunt for the team lead...Not only does that lead the River Cats, both McDonald and Whisenhunt are tied for second in the PCL, trailing only the seven of Jhonathan Diaz of Tacoma...Overall that gives Sacramento a total of 20 quality starts, which is the most they've had since they posted 30 in 2019 (17 in 2023).

DINGER DROUGHT: IF Sergio Alcántara has yet to hit a home run this season in his 63 games in which he has recorded an at-bat...That is the longest Sacramento streak since C Trevor Brown went 68 contests without leaving the yard during the 2015 season...Sacramento's longest homerless streak since 2005 is 88 games by IF Lou Merloni in the 2007 campaign from April 5 through Aug. 7.

HEY I REMEMBER YOU: Today the River Cats will face against a familiar face in RHP Casey Kelly, who was a former River Cat in both the 2017 and 2018 sesaons...He pitched in seven games in 2017, going 2-3 with a 4.17 ERA (19 er, 41.0 ip)...However, his 2018 season was solid as he was 10-9 in 24 games with a 4.76 ERA (72 er, 136.0 ip), striking out 111 to 38 walks...In his 31 games pitched with Sacramento, he recorded 15 quality starts (12th most among Sacramento pitchers) and combined for 177.0 innings pitched, striking out a total of 150 hitters (4.8/game).

THIS DAY IN BASEBALL HISTORY
July 2, 1963
"The Greatest Game Ever Pitched: Marichal vs. Spahn" – Juan Marichal outlasts Warren Spahn in a 16-inning pitchers' duel at Candlestick Park. The San Francisco Giants defeat the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0, on Willie Mays' home run. Marichal strikes out 10 batters in going the distance.

NUMBER OF THE DAY
The Sacramento River Cats have hit three home runs in two-strike counts in their past two games...Earlier this season Sacramento hit three home runs in counts with two strikes on May 31 against El Paso, their most in a game this season...However, the River Cats have totaled 21 two-strike homers in 2025, which is ninth in the PCL (most: SL, 37).

ADVANCED PITCHING STATS*
TBF: Total Batters Faced Total Batters Faced measures the total number of plate appearances hitters have made against him.
HR/9: Home Run Rate Home Rune Rate measures how many home runs a pitcher averages over nine innings. Of course, not many pitchers throw nine innings all at once anymore, but this is a way of standardizing the statistic so it's on an easy-to-understand scale like many other pitcher statistics which are scaled to 27 outs.
K% & BB%: Strikeout Rate and Walk Rate Strikeout rate (K%) and walk rate (BB%) measure how often a pitcher walks or strikes out a player per plate appearance. They're measured in percentage form, so it's easy to compare between players and years.
AVG: Batting Average Batting average is the rate of hits per at bat, calculated as hits/at bats.
BABIP: Batting Average on Balls In Play Batting Average on Balls In Play (BABIP) measures how often a ball in play goes for a hit. Typically around 30% of all balls in play fall for hits, but there are several variables that can affect BABIP rates for individual players, such as defense, luck, and talent level. Hitters have more control over their BABIP than pitchers do.
LOB%: Left On Base Percentage Left on Base Percentage (LOB%) measures the percentage of base runners that a pitcher strands on base over the course of a season. This stat does not use the left on base numbers reported in box scores, but instead is calculated using a pitcher's actual hits, walks, and runs allowed results.
xFIP: Expected Fielding Independent Pitching Fielding Independent Pitching measures what a player's ERA would look like over a given period of time if the pitcher were to have experienced league average results on balls in play and league average timing. xFIP Normalizes a pitcher's home runs allowed based on their fly ball rate rather than simply using the raw number of home runs allowed. (Due to no constant in Minor League Baseball, the xFIP statistic is aproximate)

*ADVANCED HITTING STATS GLOSSARY
PA: Plate Appearances Plate Appearances are the total number of times a hitter completes a turn batting.
K% & BB%: Strikeout Rate and Walk Rate Strikeout rate (K%) and walk rate (BB%) measure how often a position player walks or strikes out per plate appearance. They're measured in percentage form, so it's easy to compare between players and years.
ISO: Isolated Power Isolated Power (ISO) is a measure of a hitter's raw power. Or, to look at it another way, it measures how good a player is at hitting for extra bases. The simplest way to calculate ISO is to subtract a player's Batting Average from their Slugging Percentage, which leaves us with a measure of just a player's extra bases per at bat.
BABIP: Batting Average on Balls In Play Batting Average on Balls In Play (BABIP) measures how many of a batter's balls in play go for hits. Affected greatly by defense and luck, BABIP can dramatically affect a hit-ter's batting average. If a large number of a batter's balls in play go for hits, that can boost their batting average quite high. Similarly, if a large number of balls in play get caught, it can reduce a player's total offensive value.
wOBA: Weighted On-Base Average Weighted On-Base Average combines all the different aspects of hitting into one metric, weighting each of them in proportion to their actual run value. While batting average, on-base percentage, and slugging percentage fall short in accuracy and scope, wOBA measures and captures offensive value more accurately and comprehensively. (Due to no constant in minor league baseball, the wOBA statistic is approximate).
wRC+: Weighted Runs Created Plus Weighted Runs Created Plus measures the total number of runs a player contributes to their team. The formula accounts for a player's ability to get on base, their total number of bases, and their baserunning. The Plus version of the stat is park and league adjusted.
