Today we honor Worcester Police Officer Sean Lovely, whose decades of dedication are known to so many in our city. An old-fashioned, beat-walking fixture at Polar Park, the gregarious and community-minded public servant also orchestrates Worcester’s “Hill-o-ween” on Vernon Hill in late October. With a beautiful and inspiring family surrounding him, he is a pleasure to honor.

A SPECIAL WELCOME TO THE NEW HAMPSHIRE FISHER

CATS: Our friends from the Double-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays have made the 1:15 drive from Manchester to see Polar Park and the Wonderful World of Worcester. Welcome!

WHERE ARE THE WARMEST PLACES TO WATCH TODAY?

We thank you for joining us on this cool spring day. If the winds are calm and you’re in the sun, we hope it’s a pleasant experience. If the wind picks up or if you’re in the shade, ask your usher if there’s room in any of our suites. We would love to show our appreciation to you for joining us, and warming you up would be a good start.

TRY OUR NEW TEXAS BRISKET BARBEQUE on the Worcester Wall at the Nacho Nacho Man stand! That’s also where you’ll find our Lobster Rolls, the best in New England! (or so we say!)
