BABY BRAVES FLASH IN 2025 SPRING BREAKOUT

Since the GreenJackets first joined the Braves' organization as a Single-A affiliate in 2020, SRP Park has seen a host of future stars grace its confines that would go on to shine at the big league level. In just four years of complete seasons, the brightest young stars in Atlanta's arsenal have gotten their start in North Augusta. As the 2025 season begins in earnest at both the Major and Minor League levels, it seems once again that the GreenJackets of today are destined to make an impact at the game's highest level.

For the second consecutive spring, Major League Baseball worked with its 30 teams to put on its popular Spring Breakout event, which debuted to strong fanfare and reception in 2024. In the event, each club fields a team comprised of top Minor League prospects, often those that are not yet in big league camp. The games, of which each team plays one or two against other prospects, serve to offer fans a glimpse into the state of their favorite farm system, and learn some names that may serve the Major League team in a short time.

To the surprise of very few, 18 of the 23 players on the Braves' Prospects roster were current or former GreenJackets entering the 2025 season, with more anticipated to debut in 2025. Atlanta's farm system skews on the younger side comparatively, and so it's only natural that SRP Park would continue to be the domain of many top prospects.

As expected with a team full of Atlanta farmhands, it was the pitching that stood out over the course of the Braves' prospects' loss to the biggest names in the Detroit Tigers' system. All six pitchers that threw that day had spent time in Augusta, including the three biggest names of the afternoon, all of whom were here in 2024.

JR Ritchie earned the start in the Spring Breakout game, marking the beginning of a big year for the righty as he sees a full season for the first time, having returned from Tommy John Surgery last June. The #8 prospect in Atlanta's system would allow two runs in three innings, but it was his scoreless first frame that forced viewers to take notice. Ritchie retired three straight Tigers, all of whom are in MLB's Top 100 Prospects list, with his fastball velocity ticking up to 98. Ritchie's velo was down last year as he returned to play, but an uptick in that department could spell big things for 2025.

Immediately succeeding JR, Garrett Baumann took the hill and showed uncharacteristic command struggles. Normally lauded for plus control, Baumann walked five of the ten hitters he faced, allowing four earned runs in total. While this gives pause at first glance, the 6'8 hurler seemed to simply be overly excited, and was overthrowing in an attempt to meet the moment.

This was evidenced by him lighting 100 mph on the radar gun, a feat he never came close to achieving during his time with Augusta in 2024. If the velocity sticks around longer than the wildness does, Baumann could rise quickly.

GARRETT BAUMANN
(2024)

DIDIER FUENTES (2024)

The night's shining star was 19-year-old Didier Fuentes, who was the last addition to the roster, having been subbed in on Sunday morning, hours before first pitch. Fuentes was arguably the best arm in Augusta for all of 2024, and showed why in the Spring Breakout. Fuentes allowed just one hit and struck out seven in three scoreless frames, being named to the Spring Breakout 2025 First Team for his efforts. There are those who believe Fuentes' ceiling is higher than just about anyone in the organization, and he left even more wondering what they had missed after his shining moment.

While Detroit's bevy of arms stymied the young offense for most of the day, the game did feature extended looks for the 'Jackets' two most intriguing position players. Outfielder Luis Guanipa and shortstop John Gil, numbers 14 and 15 on MLB Pipeline's Top 30 Prospects list, both got starts in Spring Breakout. The two young international stars are looking to break through a crowded big league position group, and will start that chase here at SRP Park in 2025.

While the national audience may have gotten their first extended look at the Braves of tomorrow via Spring Breakout, GreenJackets faithful have long known the road to Atlanta runs directly through SRP Park. This 2025 team is certainly no exception, as the early season roster rounds into shape with old friends and new faces alike. Under the guidance of second-year skipper Wynston Sawyer, the GreenJackets kick off the new season with a strong group prepped to make an impact at this level and beyond.

2025 COACHING STAFF

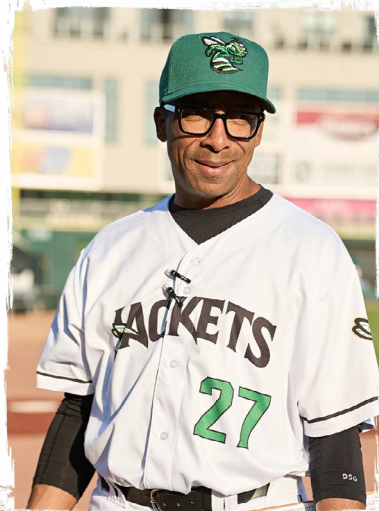

WYNSTON SAWYER, MANAGER

Sawyer leads the charge for 2025 after managing the GreenJackets in 2024, his first managerial gig at any level. The California native came to Augusta after a season with the FCL Braves, where he served as Coach, working primarily with the catchers. Sawyer spent over a decade in Minor League Baseball as a player after being drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 8th Round of the 2010 MLB Draft, with additional stops in the Dodgers, Twins, and Yankees systems.

ELVIN NINA, PITCHING COACH

No stranger to SRP Park, Nina begins year three of his second stint with the GreenJackets. He returned to Augusta last year following two seasons with the FCL Braves, having originally been on the GreenJackets' staff in the same role in 2021. The well-traveled coach came to the Braves' system after four years with the GCL Pirates of Pittsburgh's organization, and half a dozen more between the Helena Brewers and Wisconsin Timber Rattlers under Milwaukee's umbrella.

GARRETT WILKINSON, HITTING COACH

This year marks a homecoming of sorts for Wilkinson, who returns not only to the team where he began his coaching career, but also the area he grew up in. The Evans, GA native starred at Evans HS before a lengthy collegiate career that spanned time at East Georgia State College, Gordon State College, Florida A&M, and Mercer University. He began his coaching career with a video and hitting analytics role for the 'Jackets in 2021, followed by stops with the FCL Braves, Rome Braves, and Mississippi Braves, the last two of which he was the hitting coach.

RUBEN GOTAY, HITTING COACH

Joining Wilkinson to work with the hitters, Gotay begins his first year as a coach in the Braves organization, having spent last year coaching in the Mexican League with the Caliente de Durango. Gotay brings a wealth of additional experience coaching in MiLB, having spent 2023 with the Indianapolis Indians, 2021-22 with the Greensboro Grasshoppers, and 2018-19 with the Clearwater Threshers. The Puerto Rican product played professionally for 17 seasons, including parts of four years in the majors with the Royals, Mets, and Braves.

BRAD STOLL, COACH

This marks the first-year coaching in professional baseball for Stoll, following nearly 20 years coaching at Lawrence High School in Kansas. During his time with the Chesty Lions, Stoll won a 6A State Championship in 2009 and saw two former players go on to play in Major League Baseball: Garrett Cleavinger and Bryce Montes de Oca. Stoll's additional experience lies in the Cape Cod League, where he was an assistant with the Falmouth Commodores from 2009-15 and again in 2024.

DAN GAERTNER, ATHLETIC TRAINER

Gaertner will serve as the team's Athletic Trainer for 2025, marking his first year in Augusta and 4th with the Braves after one summer in the FCL and two with the Gwinnett Stripers.

JAKE WYNN, STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Wynn returns to the GreenJackets for the second consecutive season, having previously worked at Stony Brook University on Long Island.
