LAST NIGHT: The Amarillo Sod Poodles (1-3) fell to the Springfield Cardinals (3-1), 16-7, on Tuesday evening at HODGETOWN. A six-run fifth inning and seven-run ninth took center stage, while the Sod Poodles' comeback bid fell short in the home opener. Springfield struck first with a solo blast in the top of the second inning. The Cardinals' lead didn't last long, as Christian Cerda launched a line drive 403 feet over the left field wall to tie things up and score the first run at HODGETOWN. Two solo shots extended the lead for the Cardinals, before Springfield posted a six-spot in the fifth frame. Five hits, three walks and a home run pushed the Cardinals out to a 9-1 advantage. Luke Albright tossed two scoreless innings out of the bullpen, adding three strikeouts to his ledger. Albright got some help in his appearance with the third Amarillo double play of the night. Tommy Troy made a stellar catch in the sixth inning that started a line drive twin killing. The Soddies battled back after the seventh inning stretch, plating three in the bottom half, all with two outs. Jose Fernandez's RBI single made it 9-2 before Andy Weber teed off to straightaway center field for a two-run shot and narrowed the deficit to five. One inning later, Caleb Roberts added a RBI double into the triple triangle in right-center field to get within four. A wild pitch and throwing error by Springfield gifted the Soddies two more and made it a 9-7 ballgame headed to the ninth. Springfield put the game away with a seven-run ninth frame, punctuated with five unearned runs.

MOVIN' AND GROOVER: LuJames Groover smashed a leadoff double to start the fourth inning, extending his season-opening hit streak to four games...the two-bagger was the first extra base hit during this span...Groover is hitting 5-for-17 (.294) in the hitting streak and holds the best batting average on the team.

PITCHER'S BEST FRIEND: The Soddies got out of the first and fourth innings with double plays, both of the 6-4-3 variety...added another in the sixth for three total turned...Amarillo's defense has completed six twin killings in the first four games of the season, tied with Midland for the most in the Texas League.

LONG BALL DEJAVU: Fans at HODGETOWN haven't waited too long for the first run of the home slate the last two seasons...the opening score was a second-inning solo shot in 2024 and 2025, with Caleb Roberts providing the blast last season and Christian Cerda doing so in yesterday's contest.

NO-DOUBT ABOUT IT: Both Amarillo homers in Tuesday's contest travelled 400+ feet, with Cerda's second inning shot landing 403 feet away from home plate...Andy Weber's two-run moonshot over the batter's eye in straightaway centerfield was tracked at 445 feet, when he left the yard in the seventh inning.

COLINA IS BACK: Making his way back to HODGETOWN this season is former Sod Poodles bench coach, Javier Colina...Colina, who served on Amarillo's staff in 2022 and the 2023 Texas League Championship winning team is once again a part of the Soddies' coaching staff, this time as skipper...he secured his first win as the Amarillo manager last Sunday in San Antonio.

SPRING CLEANING: Of the active 26-man roster the Soddies will roll out on Opening Day, 22 made an appearance in Spring Training this year...among standouts at the plate were Caleb Roberts who batted .462 (6-for-13) with a dinger in six games, Tommy Troy who batted at a .417 clip (5-for-12) in 10 games, and Gavin Conticello who batted .357 (6-for-17) with a double and two RBI in 11 games.

DOWN IN THE DESERT: High-A Hillsboro won their third straight game on Tuesday night and sit atop the Northwest League after four games on the early season...the Hops defeated the Everett AquaSox (Seattle Mariners) 7-6 on the road, aided by a five-run seventh inning and 5.2 innings of shutout relief.
