COUNTING CROW: Brewers no. 26-rated prospect Coleman Crow will make his fourth Triple-A appearance of the season and his first since making his Major League debut last Friday in Miami. Crow spun 5.1 IP in his big league debut with two runs on four hits and added four strikeouts. Friday will be his second start against Charlotte this season. He tossed a quality start against the Knights on April 3 at First Horizon Park where he allowed two earned on four hits with five strikeouts and two walks over 6.0 IP.

TATE AND LEFT NO CRUMBS: Left-hander Tate Kuehner set his season-high with eight strikeouts, his most in a start since striking out nine Columbus Clingstones batters in his start June 28, 2025, for Double-A Biloxi. The eight strikeouts were the most in Kuehner's Triple-A career so far and just his fifth 8+ strikeout game over his last 27 starts since the start of the 2025 season. His eight strikeouts are tied for the second-most by a Nashville pitcher this season along with Shane Drohan (4/14 vs. WOR). The pair trail Robert Gasser and his 11-strikeout performance for Nashville on Opening Night of the season in Norfolk on March 27th. Kuehner now sits at 260 career minor league strikeouts and owns a 9.6 K/9 throughout his 53 career games (260 K / 244.0 IP).

MULTIPLIED: Held hitless on Wednesday and hitless over four of his last five games entering Thursday night, Luis Lara was back in the hit column with his team-leading eighth multi-hit game of the season so far. Lara, the Brewers no. 11-rated prospect ended Thursday night 2-for-3 with a walk and two runs scored. His eight multi-hit efforts are just one ahead of Eddys Leonard who kept pace with Nashville's other multi-hit game on Thursday night (2-for-3, BB). With his pair of singles, Leonard extended his current hitting streak to seven games and is hitting .478 (11-for-23) with two doubles and two RBI since April 15th. Four of his seven total multi-hit games have come during his current seven-game hitting streak.

SLUG IT OUT: Despite just having nine hits on the season, Brewers no. 21-rated prospect Brock Wilken has made his hits count. Wilken added his fourth double of the season to go along with a home run to have 56% of his hits on the year go for extra-bases. Wilken also leads the team in walks (18) after another free pass on Thursday. The former Wake Forest product is riding a 12-game on-base streak and owns the second-longest on-base streak on the team among active players behind Eddys Leonard (16).

THE PUNCH LINE: Backed by eight strikeouts by Tate Kuehner, Nashville tied their season-high with 14 strikeouts on the mound Thursday night against Charlotte. The Sounds also struck out 14 batters April 7 in Gwinnett. The Sounds rank ninth in the International League with 225 strikeouts as a pitching staff this season. Jacksonville currently leads the league with 278 strikeouts and are 25 clear of second place Norfolk (253). Nashville boasted the third-best ERA in the International League in 2025 (3.91) despite ranking 13th in the IL with their 1,277 strikeouts a season ago. Through 23 games, the Sounds currently own the fourth-best ERA in the IL at 3.78.

HURTS-TO-BE-2: Outfielder Jacob Hurtubise earned his first multi-hit and second multi-RBI game with Nashville, going 2-for-3 with two RBI against Charlotte Wednesday night. Hurtubise posted only five multi-hit games last season, including a 3-hit night against Triple-A Iowa, while he was with Triple-A Louisville early in the year. The 28-year-old has recorded 86 career multi-hit games in his six-year professional career, with Wednesday night being his 25th in Triple-A. He set a single-game career-high with a four-hit game on September 1, 2024 with Louisville on the road in Indianapolis.

9 ON BLACK: Tyler Black extended his hit streak to nine consecutive games on Wednesday night, tying his season-long from last year from July 9-30. His longest hitting streak at the Triple-A level still remains at 16 straight games with Nashville from September 7, 2023 - March 30, 2024. Black finished Wednesday 2-for-5 with a run against the Knights which marked his second multi-hit game of the season and current hitting streak. Over his last nine games, Black is hitting .314 (11-for-35) with a home run, two doubles, six RBI, six walks, and seven runs scored.
