CHANGING COURSE

BY MITCHELL SPELTZ

There's no bigger sport in the state of Texas than football, and for AJ Smith-Shawver, that was his first love. Smith-Shawver was one of the top Prep Quarterbacks in the lone-star state coming from Colleyville, High School where he received plenty of looks to play football at the next level but little did he know, he had a great talent in a different sport. In addition to football, Smith-Shawver played baseball and was known for being a tremendous position player, specifically at third base, and garnered attention as a possible two-sport athlete in college but it wasn't until after his junior year of high school he realized his true potential on the diamond...as a pitcher.

PHOTO BY ROBERT DAVIS PHOTOGRAPHY

The love of football still remained entrenched in AJ as he was committed originally to Texas Tech to play baseball and football as a quarterback. "Football was my main sport through my junior year, I've always been a big football guy and I thought that was what I was going to do growing up." That was until he began to realize there was a serious chance he was going to be selected in the upcoming MLB Draft in July of 2021. A pitcher with huge potential and little mileage on his arm created plenty of intrigue amongst MLB scouts and the preparation shifted entirely there thanks to the help of one of his best friends, Bobby Witt Jr. Witt Jr. was a high school teammate of Smith-Shawver at Colleyville High School and was the No. 2 overall pick in 2019 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals and is the son of former MLB player Bobby Witt who pitched in 430 career games in his 15-year career, mostly with the Texas Rangers. Bobby Witt mentored AJ and prepared him for a career in baseball, and with his help, was selected by the Atlanta Braves in the seventh round of the 2021 Draft.

Smith-Shawver elected to sign with the Braves out of high school and forgo his college eligibility to start his professional career and it's been a decision that's suited him well. He entered the 2022 season as one of the top prospects in the Atlanta Braves minor league system, ranked as a consensus Top-20 talent by MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. The 19-year right-hander began this season in Augusta and has improved in every start on the mound where he most recently reached his young, career-high in strikeouts with 12 against the Columbia Fireflies on May 10.

"He's learning each and every time he takes the mound and it's amazing to watch how quickly he's gained confidence in all his pitches," said GreenJackets Pitching Coach, Mike Steed. The sky has become the limit for the young, right-hander as he's now not just the ace of Augusta's starting pitching staff, but one of the best strikeouts pitchers currently in Minor League Baseball.

RALLY WITH T.D.

T.D. was just happy living his life as a turtle on the banks of Brick Pond Park. In 2018, he noticed a new neighbor as SRP Park came to life. Instead of picking up his shell and moving, T.D. decided he wanted to meet his new neighbors. He enjoyed watching the people go to the stadium but did not understand why all these giant beings were watching a game called baseball, or even what "baseball" was!

Being inquisitive of the guests coming to the neighborhood, after 3 years T.D. wanted to see what all the excitement was about. T.D. no longer wanted to be scared of anything and didn't want to miss out on the fun happening inside the ballpark! He wanted to become the brave turtle he believed he was and enter SRP Park for a game. The sights! The sounds! The people! This was place to be! There was even a friendly GreenJacket flying all around the stadium cheering the team on!

T.D. enjoyed the game despite not knowing much about baseball. He made friends with Auggie, the friendly GreenJacket, who helped him understand what was happening during the game.

However, towards the end of the game, the GreenJackets were losing. Seeing Auggie slightly sadder than normal, T.D. was determined to cheer his new friend up. He grabbed a cowbell and started cheering louder than anyone else in the stadium.

His cheering was so infectious it brought the entire crowd into a frenzy! Fans can now find T.D. the Rally Turtle cheering on the GreenJackets late in games at SRP Park with cowbell in hand. T.D. believes if the team is down, it is his duty to be the loudest fan and encourage other GreenJackets fans in attendance to cheer on the team to victory!
