Eric White & Brian Coughlan

Early in the Spring, my wife Bunny and I attended the season opener. I commented how I had always wanted to get season tickets and follow a team for an entire year. After the game we inquired at guest services

I love the two-dollar beers and hot dogs. I love watching Peraza steal bases and TJ hit homeruns. I love talking to our usher and the new friends we meet in our section each week. Most of all I love being a proud member of the Railriders family.

Joshua Horrocks & Kelly Cusick

Being a Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Railriders season ticket member isn't just about 9 innings of a minor league baseball game – it's much more. From the time you park your car to the grand finale of the fireworks show, a day at PNC Field always delivers.

recommending a new local beer, their customer service is spectacular top to bottom.
