NOW ON THE MOUND, CARLOS: RHP Carlos Rodriguez will get the start for the Sounds on Thursday night against the Knights. The Brewers' no. 22-rated prospect enters the game with the second-best ERA in Triple-A through his first three starts at 0.61 and carries the eighth-best WHIP at 0.89. In his last start, Rodriguez retired each of the first 16 batters he faced including six straight strikeouts to begin his start last Friday night against Memphis. Through his first 14.2 IP he has allowed one earned run and has 18 strikeouts to just three walks. Rodriguez faced the Knights three times in 2024, going 1-0 with a 3.00 ERA in 15.0 IP and allowed six hits (2 HR), five runs, and had 14 strikeouts and nine walks.

MASHIN' MONA: Andruw Monasterio homered in back-to-back games for the first time since August 8-9, 2023, when he was playing against the Colorado Rockies with the Brewers. It's the fourth time in his professional career with a home run in consecutive games and the first time in Triple-A playing in what was his 862nd career game (including postseason). He had one home run in 69 regular season games between Nashville and Milwaukee last season. He has started the series against Charlotte 4-for-8 with two home runs, a double, three RBI, two walks, and four runs scored.

JIMMY JACKS: Jimmy Herron collected his first home run of the season and his first since September 5th of last year when he was playing for Triple-A Albuquerque. After starting the series on Tuesday with his first RBI and first multi-hit game, Herron followed it up by delivering another multi-hit & multi-RBI performance on Wednesday. He ended the night 2-for-3 with the home run, two RBI, and three runs scored. Through the first two games of the series, Herron is hitting .667 (4-for-6) with a home run, five RBI, a walk, and three runs scored.

A PIRATE'S LIFE FOR ME: Brewers' no. 18-rated prospect Craig Yoho worked 1.1 IP scoreless on Wednesday with one hit and a strikeout. Through his first seven relief appearances of 2025, and 15 straight Triple-A games dating back to the end of 2024, Yoho has worked 16.2 IP without allowing an earned run on eight hits with 16 strikeouts and eight walks. His seven-game streak without an earned run is tied for the best in Triple-A this season along with Las Vegas' Grant Holman.

HIT CITY, INDEED: Nashville matched their single-game high with 14 hits and three home runs. The 14 hits tied the mark set by the club back on April 5 on the road in Gwinnett in a 10-2 nine-inning win over the Stripers. The 11 runs scored by the Sounds were the most in a game this year, needing four runs in the 10th to surpass the 10-runs against Gwinnett. It was the third time in a game this year the Sounds have blasted off for three home runs. The first was in the same April 5th game in Gwinnett and the most recent was last Friday night at home against Memphis. Six players had multi-hit performances for the Sounds on Wednesday night, including each of the first four in the batting order. Jared Oliva and Ernesto Martinez Jr. are tied at the top of the list, each collecting their fifth multi-hit games of the season. Four players had multi-RBI games, including a the second three-RBI game for Oliva. Nashville is now 8-0 when hitting a home run this season, 4-0 when hitting 2+ HR.

EXTRA FUN: The Sounds earned the first extra-innings win of the year after dropping each of their first two. Nashville was 9-8 when needing extra innings in 2024. The two-run deficit the Sounds faced entering the top of the eighth was the first time they had trailed in a game and came back to win this year. Nashville entered the game 0-1 when tied after the sixth inning, 0-5 when trailing after the seventh, and 0-2 when tied after the eighth before getting the win on Wednesday.

HAVE A DEI(VI): Making the 100th minor league start of his professional career and his first ever start against a former team in a regular season game, RHP Deivi Garcia earned his first win of the year on Tuesday night. The right-hander worked 5.0 IP while allowing five hits and one earned run while striking out four and issued one walk in his return to Charlotte. Garcia spent all of 2024 in the White Sox organization and made the first MLB Opening Day Roster of his career with the White Sox to begin 2024. After 14 games, he was optioned to Charlotte and ended the year making 40 appearances (5 GS) for the Knights. Between 2023-2024, Garcia appeared in 47 games with the Knights and went 3-7 with a 5.55 ERA. Tuesday night was his first win since August 6, 2024, on the road against the Louisville Bats while he was with the Knights. Through his first four games with Nashville, Garcia is 1-1 with a 2.92 ERA.
