NEWS AND NOTES

CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF: Jett Williams matched his career-high with three hits in the series opener against Worcester. The Brewers' no. 3-rated prospect (#47 overall in MLB Pipeline's Top 100) started the night with a hit in each of the first three innings and drew a walk in the fifth to reach base safely in each of his first four plate appearances. His only previous three-hit game in Triple-A came on August 14 of last year with Syracuse on the road in Rochester. His other nine three-hit games on the season came with Double-A Binghamton. Tuesday night marked his 13th overall three-hit game during his professional career.

ALL ABOUT THE DRO: Left-hander Shane Drohan looked great in his first game back from his Major League debut last week in Boston. The Brewers' no. 25-rated prospect worked five-plus innings against his former team on Tuesday night and allowed just one earned run (2 total) on five hits and two walks. Drohan added eight strikeouts on the mound, his most in a game since he struck out nine Durham batters on August 29 last year while wearing a Worcester uniform. Drohan appeared in 35 games (32 GS) for Worcester between 2023-2025 after originally being selected by Boston in the 5th round of the 2020 MLB Draft.

WEARING IT: Nashville entered the game leading the minor leagues with 18 hit by pitches through the first 14 games of the year. Worcester plunked five more Sounds batters on Tuesday to set a new single-game high for Nashville in 2026, and the most Nashville has been hit by pitches in any game dating back to at least 2005. Luis Lara was hit in the first inning; it was his first time being hit by a pitch this year. The only players on the active roster to not have a HBP this year are now Brock Wilken and Cooper Pratt. Luke Adams who was not in the lineup Tuesday leads the way among active players with four HBP this year while Ramon Rodriguez now ranks second on the active roster with three after being hit twice Tuesday night. Greg Jones, who had his contract selected by Milwaukee earlier on Tuesday, has six HBP in 13 games played with Nashville this season.

LU-THREES LARA: Brewers' no. 12-rated prospect Luis Lara collected his fourth 3-hit game in 14 games played to start 2026 after going 3-for-4 with a walk, hit by pitch, and two runs scored Tuesday night. Lara is hitting .396 (21-for-53) and ranks third in the International League in AVG after Tuesday's game. It was his sixth overall multi-hit game on the year, and he is now tied for third in the International League with his 21 hits (T-6th in Triple-A).

FITZ-MAGIC: Brian Fitzpatrick extended his current streak without an earned run allowed to six games and 7.1 IP after tossing a scoreless ninth to seal the win for Nashville. Since starting his streak on March 28, the southpaw has allowed just six hits and has eight strikeouts after a 1-2-3 top of the ninth Tuesday night that included a pair of strikeouts. The six games are tied with Will Childers for the longest streak without an earned run allowed by a Nashville pitcher this season while his 7.1 IP is just behind Robert Gasser and Garrett Stallings (7.2 IP) who both had their streaks end in their most recent appearances.

BOOTS MADE FOR WALKIN: The Sounds drew 11 walks to go along with their five hit by pitches in Tuesday's opener. The 11 walks were the most Nashville has had in a game this season and the most since drawing a season-high 12 walks a season ago on June 25 against Jacksonville. The Sounds drew 10+ walks in a game three times during the 2025 season.

PARTY LIKE IT'S 1991: Worcester makes the first trip to Nashville in franchise history and this week's series is the Sounds first series against a Boston Red Sox affiliate since the 1991 season. Triple-A Pawtucket last visited Nashville for a two-game series May 22-23, 1991, at Greer Stadium. Nashville and Pawtucket played 21 total games between 1988-1991 as interleague foes when the Sounds were in the American Association and Pawtucket was in the International League. Nashville was 11-10 overall against Pawtucket but just 3-6 in their nine meetings in Nashville. Five of Boston's top 30 prospects (MLB Pipeline) are listed on Worcester's roster to start the series, including their no. 1-rated prospect LHP Payton Tolle who is scheduled to start for the WooSox on Saturday night.
