STARTING NINE- NEWS AND NOTES

- ◇ Last Time Out: Sunday's series finale with the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers was postponed due to wet grounds. On Saturday, Wisconsin did enough to hold off a late Chiefs rally in a 4-3 win.
- ◇ RISP-y Business: Peoria's offense had chances on Saturday, but struggled to find a timely hit. The Chiefs were just 2-for-16 with men in scoring position. In the bottom of the eighth, the Chiefs left the bases loaded against Yerlin Rodriguez. In the ninth, they placed the tying run in scoring position before a strikeout ended the game.
- ◇ Quite the Honor: Braden Davis earned himself another accolade on Monday. Davis was named the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July. Davis went 2-0 with a 1.12 ERA over five starts between Single-A Palm Beach and High-A Peoria. The southpaw enjoyed a stretch of 13 consecutive scoreless innings to open the month. A 2024 draftee, Davis racked up 38 strikeouts over 23 2/3 innings (14.4 K/9). Entering play on Tuesday, he leads all Cardinals farmhands in strikeouts (128) and opponent batting average (.157).
- ◇ What a Night: Behind the plate, Peoria pitchers got a big lift from catcher Ryan Campos on Friday. Campos was a perfect 4-for-4 in the caught stealing department Friday, nabbing four Wisconsin runners on the bases. Campos joined Lansing catcher Davis Diaz as the only MWL backstops to throw out four runners in a single game this season. To find the last time a Chiefs catcher did it, you'd have to go back to May 15, 2019, when Alexis Wilson did it against QC.
- ◇ Mr. Peoria: Though not a save spot Friday, Peoria-born Mason Burns was brilliant against. The right-hander recorded the final three outs and locked down the shutout victory. Burns owns a 2.57 High-A ERA and has not allowed an earned run over his last seven appearances, dating back to July 11.
- ◇ Take Two: Cardinals No. 17 prospect Nate Dohm did not get to make his Dozer Park debut on Sunday. Instead, he will now take the ball on Tuesday at Lake County. In his Chiefs debut last week, Dohm worked around a first-inning home run as his only blemish. The right-hander has put up an impressive 2.88 ERA between three teams and two levels this season. He was acquired from the New York Mets on July 30.
- ◇ Don't Kross Him: Josh Kross has showed signs of heating back up in August. The slugger finished a double shy of the cycle on Friday, a feat he already accomplished back in April with Single-A Palm Beach. Kross leads all Cardinals minor leaguers in HRs (15), RBIs (74) and XBH (37).
- ◇ Still to Come: The Chiefs will wrap up the season with a steady diet of road games, playing 18 of their final 24 away from home. Peoria makes its first trip to Eastlake, Ohio since 2023. The Chiefs lost the series, but won the finale 12-2 behind a historic day from Chris Rotondo. The outfielder finished a single shy of the cycle and drove in seven runs, one off the single-game record.
- ◇ Road Woes: Life on the road has been unkind to the Chiefs in 2025. Entering play this evening, Peoria is 18-30 away from home. The offense has particularly struggled in road tilts. The Chiefs are slashing .229/.324/.322 on the road, averaging 4.0 runs/game.

TOP STORIES OF 2025

- ◇ April 6- Infielder Johnfrank Salazar faced eight Quad Cities batters and took the loss for Peoria on April 6. The first baseman topped out at 88 MPH on the bump. It was the first time since September 4, 2017 that a Chiefs position player factored into a decision for the club. Sunday's game also marked the first time since 2015 that Peoria had two position players throw in the same game. Graysen Tarlow also recorded an out on the mound.
- ◇ May 11- After beginning the year on the IL, Cardinals No. 13 prospect Chen-Wei Lin made his High-A debut on Mother's Day. The hard-throwing Lin topped out at 101 MPH on the radar gun and recorded eight outs in his season debut.
- ◇ May 13- The Chiefs plated eight runs in the top of the eighth inning to score a wild 13-10 win over the Cedar Rapids Kernels. In the process, the offense did something that hadn't been accomplished by a Chiefs team in more than 20 years. All nine batters drove in a run in the victory. No player drove in more than two runs for Peoria. The Chiefs logged 18 hits in the ballgame.
- ◇ May 18- In Peoria's 7-1 win over Cedar Rapids, skipper Roberto Espinoza logged his 200th managerial win. Espinoza, who is in his first season with the Chiefs, previously managed the Johnson City Cardinals (2017-19) and the FCL Cardinals (2021-24). The 36-year-old led Johnson City to a league title in 2019.
- ◇ May 20- The Chiefs wore their hitting shoes in a rain-shortened 12-5 win over Dayton, mashing a single-game franchise record seven home runs. Joshua Baez and Zach Levenson each connected on a pair of homers. Ian Petruz, Brayden Jobert and Tre Richardson also chipped in. The previous record was six home runs, a feat most recently accomplished in 2022 at Cedar Rapids.
- ◇ June 8- Peoria pushed its winning streak to five games after sweeping a doubleheader from Quad Cities at Dozer Park. The Chiefs scored 18 runs over just 12 innings of at-bats. The Chiefs swept a pair of doubleheaders from the Bandits, the first time since 2018 that Peoria took two twin bills from the same team in the same series.
- ◇ July 2- The Chiefs turned in a historic performance, blasting the South Bend Cubs 21-2. The 21 runs were a Chiefs single-game record at Dozer Park and just three runs off of the franchise record (August 28, 1984 at Quad Cities). Josh Kross launched a grand slam and drove in six runs in the victory. The Chiefs broke the 20-run mark for the first time since September 2, 2004, a 20-7 win over Wisconsin.
- ◇ July 3- Relief pitcher Mason Burns joined a very exclusive club when he made his Chiefs debut on July 3. Burns became just the second Peoria-born player to ever suit up for the Chiefs, joining former MLB catcher Joe Girardi (1986, 2003 rehab). A graduate of Normal Community High School, Burns twirled a scoreless inning in his High-A debut.
- ◇ July 30- The Peoria Chiefs roster received quite the overhaul following a trade that sent Cardinals closer Ryan Helsley to the Mets. In return, the Cardinals received three High-A prospects in return- INF Jesus Baez and RHPs Nate Dohm and Frank Elissalt. All three players reported to Peoria following the deal.
- ◇ July 31- Another deadline deal resulted in a reinforcement for the Chiefs. LHP Mason Molina was part of a three-player deal that sent reliever Phil Maton to the Texas Rangers. The move represented the second time that Molina had been traded in 2025. He was dealt from the Milwaukee Brewers to the Rangers in January.
- ◇ August 11- Braden Davis earned another accolade when he was named the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July. Davis posted a 1.12 ERA and whiffed 38 batters over 23 2/3 innings. This award came just a week after being named the Midwest League Pitcher of the Week on August 3. He has won three weekly Pitcher of the Week Awards in 2025, the most by a Cardinals pitcher since 2024, when Quinn Mathews won four such awards.
