LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox fell just short in extra innings on Sunday afternoon, dropping the finale of their six-game series with the Akron RubberDucks, 3-2 in ten innings. Akron plated both of their runs early against Zach Peek, while Bowie made a late push to tie in the eighth inning. After recording walk-off wins in consecutive games earlier in the series, Bowie stranded the winning run at second base in the ninth inning, and had the tying run thrown out at home plate in the tenth inning. Bowie's bullpen was strong once again, combining for six innings of work without allowing an earned run. Offensively, Jordan Westburg broke out of a small hitless skid with a 2-for-5 day that included an RBI double and a run scored.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Richmond and Bowie meet for the second time this month, after the Squirrels took two out of three at Prince George's Stadium over the opening weekend of the season. Richmond has only managed .500 ball since Opening Weekend, however, after taking four-of-six from Altoona in their first homestand of the year, but having the inverse happen on their recent road trip to Erie. While they did play fewer innings because of a doubleheader, Richmond struggled with Erie's league-leading pitching, scoring only 20 runs over the course of the six-game series.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Lefty Jake Dahlberg was Richmond's Opening Day starter, and fired 4.1 scoreless innings against Bowie while striking out eight batters. In his two starts since Opening Day, Dahlberg has hurled ten innings, but allowed five earned runs and three total home runs. In his most recent outing, he worked six innings against Erie while striking out nine batters in a no decision. A former farm hand of the St. Louis Cardinals, he eventually spent parts of three seasons pitching with the Chicago Dogs in the independent American Association before being signed by the Giants in July of 2021. In 10 starts with the Giants High-A affiliate in Eugene, he went 2-5 with a 6.60 ERA, but still fanned 61 batters against only nine walks in his 46.1 innings of work. A graduate of the University of Illinois Chicago, he was named the Horizon League Pitcher of the Year in his junior season before being drafted by St. Louis.

SOOTHING RELIEF

At the start of their last series with Akron, the Baysox bullpen was off to a slow start to the season. Bowie relievers had the highest ERA in the Eastern League on 4/19, at 7.96. Since then, Bowie relievers have thrown 22.1 innings, and allowed only eight earned runs, an ERA of 3.22 over the week. The strong bounce back for Bowie's bullpen dropped their season ERA by 2.50 earned runs to 5.46, moving them up two places in the league standings.

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie has an early handle on one-run games this season. With three of their last four games coming down to just one run, the Baysox are tied for the best record in one-run games at 3-1. However, the Baysox have either won the close games, or out-of-reach games, as Bowie is a combined 0-3 in games decided by two or three runs. Despite half of their games being decided by three or fewer runs, Bowie's +19 run differential is the second-highest in the league, mostly thanks to their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19.

DYLAN DOES IT ALL

Utility outfielder Dylan Harris has made an immediate impact with the Baysox after just four games in his Double-A career. While he was not assigned to an affiliate team out of spring training, Harris was brought up from the complex on April 16 to replace the injured Toby Welk. Harris has already gone 10-for-20, with two home runs, four doubles, four RBI, and seven runs scored. Harris has been critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins this season, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error.

YOUNG GUNS

The Baysox have the fourth-youngest roster in the Eastern League, with the combination of their full roster averaging 23.9 years old. Their youth does not hurt them, as Bowie has a better record than the two teams younger than them, Altoona and New Hampshire. The oldest team in the Eastern League, Harrisburg, also owns the League's best record. Harrisburg's roster, on average, is 25.4 years old.

BACKED TO THE WALL

Bowie has not been afraid to make some noise when down to their final out. Thanks in part to their game on April 19, scoring 18 runs with two outs, the Baysox have some of the best numbers in baseball when it comes to batting with two outs. Among the Eastern League, Bowie ranks among the top in RBI (38 / 1st), HR (8 / 2nd), OBP (.363 / 2nd), OPS (.844 / OPS), and Walks (23 / T-3rd)

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Garrett Stallings started a one-hit shutout against Akron on April 20, base hit came in the first inning. See Page 2 for more.

GROUND BALL HALL - Among qualified hitters in the Eastern League, Adam Hall has the highest rate of GB/FB, hitting 5x as many ground balls.

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Career Notes

- Spent his time following the 2020 draft at the Angels alternate site at Long Beach State before being dealt to Baltimore the same December
- Orioles EVP/GM Mike Elias had targeted Stallings in the 2020 draft, but was taken earlier by the Angels.
- Threw two complete game shutouts in his junior season at Tennessee. He earned two SEC Pitcher of the Week awards, and was also named to the 2019 SEC All-Defensive team

What They're Saying:

Baseball America (2021): "Stallings is a polished righthander who mixes his pitches, limits his walks and lasts deep into his starts. His fastball sits 90-92 mph and his short, sharp mid-80s slider is his best secondary offering. Stallings mixes in an average low-80s changeup he commands well and a big, upper-70s curveball he is trying to throw for more strikes early in the count. He has a smooth, up-tempo delivery that is easy to repeat and allows him to command and sequence his four-pitch repertoire effectively. Stallings has a chance to move fast because of his command, advanced feel for pitching and business-like approach. His lack of a plus pitch limits his ceiling to a back-of-the-rotation starter."

Baysox Pitching Coach Josh Conway - Working with Stallings at Aberdeen in 2021: "He's a gamer. As far as the stuff goes, he's not going to blow up the radar gun, but he knows how to use what he's got....He's always in the zone.....a very efficient guy pounding the zone, coming right after you and basically daring you to hit him, which is nice. And he takes his strikeouts as needed. He found himself in a ton of 0-2, 1-2 counts this year, just being ahead of hitters, attacking guys in four pitches or less. Really had that mentality of, 'I'm just going to go right after you.' It was intriguing to see. He did a great job."

Notes by Outing

4/13 @ BNG Allowed three baserunners in the first inning, but no runs across thanks to a double play. Struck out two batters in a perfect second inning, but allowed two runs across in the third on consecutive two-out doubles. Followed with a perfect fourth on a pop out and two ground outs. Bowie had an early three-run home run, Binghamton would tie the game, and Bowie would sneak a run across in the seventh to win.

4/20 v AKR Allowed a two-out single to Brayan Rocchio in the first inning, the only hit in the game for Akron. Logged two strikeouts looking in the second inning, part of a string of nine consecutive outs after the single. Allowed a two-out walk in the fourth inning, then again in the fifth inning. Ryan Watson piggybacked with four perfect innings. Tied for the longest scoreless outing of his career.

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeprich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Was critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins against Akron in April, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error. // Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Hit his first home run of the season on 4/22 against Akron after 11 games, measured at a 112 MPH exit velocity, which was as fast as any ball in play by Orioles Major Leaguers by that point in the season. Hit another 105+ MPH home run the following day, breaking a string of 11 consecutive strikeouts by Daniel Espino of Akron. // Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slit $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Blood: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical....this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscue (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
