LAST GAME

For the second-consecutive night, the Bowie Baysox hung up ten runs on the Akron RubberDucks, winning their third-consecutive game 10-3. Matching his feat from two nights prior, Connor Norby led off the game with a solo home run, and Donta Williams added to the feat by homering on the first pitch of his Double-A debut. Garrett Stallings allowed three brief runs, but turned in one of the best starts of his career, working through six innings and striking out nine batters. Bowie scored eight consecutive runs, including three in the ninth when Akron pitching walked six batters.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Akron has been the hottest team in the Southwest Division over the past month, and have an opportunity to complete their late-season comeback with this final six-game series. The last time these two teams met, Bowie was entering a seven-game series with an active eight-game win streak, but only won two of the seven games. Since the start of that series, Akron is 21-11, and Bowie is only 14-17. Akron has been dictated by their pitching plenty this season, their 3.53 ERA over that same span is the third-best in the league.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Tanner Bibee is still in just his first season as a professional after being drafted in the fifth round of the 2021 draft, and has proven his worth as another quality arm in the Guardians organization. He struck out 86 batters in just 59 innings while working with High-A Lake County for most of this year, and allowed only five earned runs over 22.1 innings in his last four starts before earning the promotion to Double-A. His work at Double-A has been just as impressive, as he's struck out at least four batters in every start for the Ducks, while walking only 12 total batters. He tossed a complete game in a doubleheader in his first battle with Bowie, but took the loss as he allowed two solo home runs to Connor Norby. His second outing was even more impressive, where he put in six more innings, allowing only one unearned run, but took a no decision when Bowie later tied the game. On perhaps one of the most impressive runs by a pitcher in the league this season, Bibee has thrown seven-consecutive quality starts, winning six games, striking out 46 batters and walking only nine in 42 innings. His fastball can work in the upper 90s while his slider has drawn praise for its hard movement and swing-and-miss action.

A COMMON OCCURRENCE

While their last two games have seen Bowie, more-or-less, gifted free runs from Akron, they've still plated ten runs on consecutive games. There are only 13 instances this season of a team posting ten runs in consecutive games this season in the Eastern League. Bowie and Somerset are the only two teams in the Eastern League to accomplish the feat three times this season. Bowie and Portland are the only two teams in the league to score ten-or-more runs in three consecutive games this season.

THAT'S MORE LIKE IT!

Bowie finally broke out of a long slump of timely hitting that had plagued them for over a week. In an eight-game stretch from 9/6-9/14, Bowie only went 5-for-64 (.078) at the plate with runners in scoring position, only able to manage three wins in the eight-game span. In their last two games, Bowie is 8-for-21 at the plate with runners in scoring position.

GIVE ME A NUMBER THREE WITH EXTRA MAYO

Bowie infielder Coby Mayo had a slow start to his time at Double-A, missing a full month with injury after playing just three games with the Baysox at the start of the second half. While Mayo only hit 6-for-33 (.182) in his nine games back from the Injured List, he's gone 22-for-76 (.290) in the 20 games since with four home runs. Mayo hit his first career grand slam on Thursday, while collecting a career-high six RBI. Mayo is currently ranked as the Orioles #7 prospect by both MLB Pipeline and Baseball America

NORBY KNOWS HOW TO HIT

Connor Norby is taking on all pitches lately, while he has shifted back into the top of the Bowie lineup, Norby is hitting 11-for-30 (.367) at the plate with eight walks and only seven strikeouts. His 25 home runs across High-A and Double-A are the second-most among Orioles minor league players. He has hit 11 home runs in the first inning of games this season, the most in all of baseball. He has eight home runs in the first inning of games with Bowie, that's the most among any player in Double-A this year.

144 strikeouts in 2021 were the second-most in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers (171). // Played 30 games with Bowie, and 75 with Aberdeen. // Only hit .185 with a .612 OPS in the month of May to start the season with Aberdeen, but built back to a .256 average and an .814 OPS over the remaining four months of the season. // Was drafted by Tampa Bay in the 40th round of the 2016 draft, but elected not to sign. // Comes from a smart and athletic family. Andrew himself is a legacy graduate of Stanford, his sister was a four-year stater for Princeton Volleyball, and both parents played tennis.

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Went on an 0-for-21 skid from 5/3 to 5/13, broke out of it on 5/13 when he began a stretch of five at bats where he hit for the cycle. Went 3-for-5 on 5/13 with the first three legs, including an RBI triple in the tenth inning of a Bowie loss, and hit a solo home run of his first at bat of the following game on 5/15. // Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Crashed into the left field wall at Binghamton while making a game-ending catch. // Appeared in 106 games in 2021, good for ninth-most in the Orioles system, while his 13 home runs ranked 15th. 70 games in Bowie, 36 in Aberdeen. // Split his defensive time evenly on both corners of the infield, with 41 games at both bases. Also played 13 games in the outfield. // A native of western Pennsylvania, Welk did not fully anticipate to play baseball at a high professional level, choosing Penn State-Berks for their engineering program, but was drafted after hitting 34 career home runs, collecting a .433 batting average, and only striking out only 31 times. // Named the D3baseball.com National Player of the Year in 2019. // Was the first player ever drafted out of Penn State-Berks. // Just after his call-up to Bowie, he stopped sitting on pitch types, and started looking for pitches in specific locations to swing at. The change in approach helped him hit 11 home runs in 70 games.

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.
