529 Plans Help Families Save For Higher Education

If you want to save for your child's college and career training after high school but aren't sure where to start, take a good look at Ohio 529 CollegeAdvantage. With its many tax advantages, a 529 allows your savings to grow tax-free. Plus, when used for qualified higher education expenses, the withdrawals won't be taxed either. In addition, funds saved in Ohio 529 can be used to pay for qualified higher education expenses nationwide.

Deduct Ohio 529 contributions from your Ohio taxable income of up to $4,000 per year, per beneficiary, with unlimited carry forward.

CollegeAdvantage is a 529 college savings plan offered and administered by the Ohio Tuition Trust Authority, a state agency. Before investing, please read the Offering Statement and all Supplements carefully and consider the risks, fees, your investment objectives, and other relevant factors before investing. If you are not a taxpayer in the State of Ohio, you should consider whether your home state offers any state tax or other benefits for investing in its 529 Plan. Other than the Fifth Third Investment Options (Banking Options), money contributed to an Account is not a bank deposit and is not insured by the FDIC or guaranteed in any way. Except for contributions invested in Banking Options, participants assume all investment risk related to the CollegeAdvantage Direct Plan, including the potential loss of Principal. Contributions invested in Banking Options are an obligation of Fifth Third Bank and are insured by the FDIC, subject to certain limitations.
