SCORELESS STALLINGS: Right-hander Garrett Stallings made two starts last week against Charlotte. He bounced back from allowing six earned on seven hits over 2.2 IP in Tuesday's start to work six scoreless innings and a pair of hits in Sunday's series finale. It was his fourth quality start of the season and he matched his season-high with seven strikeouts and ended his outing on Sunday by retiring 12 straight. It was the 17th quality start of his professional career and the fourth start of 6+ IP without a run allowed. The last time he worked 6+ scoreless prior to Sunday was April 16, 2023, when he was with Double-A Bowie in the Orioles organization.

EASTON AS 1,2,3: Easton McGee was great out of the bullpen once again for the Sounds on Friday night, striking out four over 2.2 scoreless innings. McGee lowered his Nashville ERA to 3.27 in his 29th appearance with the club this season. He currently has the longest streak on the team of innings and games without allowing an earned run. The right-hander sits at 15.1 consecutive scoreless frames and eight consecutive games without giving up an earned run. Over this span, McGee has allowed five hits, a run, five walks, and has 16 strikeouts. This includes two games with his highest strikeout totals of the season with a four punch out game on Friday against the Tides and a season-high five strikeout appearance on August 8 against the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp.

SEVEN BRICK ROAD: Freddy Zamora extended his on-base streak to seven games with a base hit and a walk on Friday against Norfolk. This streak for Zamora began with a 1-for-4 game on August 27 against the Charlotte Knights. Over this stretch of play, Zamora is 5-for-22 (.227) with five runs and seven walks. Zamora has reached base with a walk in seven of his last nine games. Nashville's shortstop has hit the ball better on the road this season, combining to go 2-for-8 this week while batting .270 overall during 40 away games. At First Horizon Park, Zamora is hitting .224 over 47 games. This year, he is up to a .347 on-base percentage to go along with 46 walks.

BALL MART: Ernesto Martinez Jr. saw his run of multi-hit games come to an end at five, but did manage to go 1-for-3 with a double and the lone Nashville run scored Thursday afternoon. He owns a six-game hitting streak, the longest on the team currently and has an extra-base hit in three straight games dating back to the series finale against Charlotte on Sunday.

SEE YA LATER: Despite allowing six hits over 3.2 innings, Chad Patrick managed to strike out seven of the 17 Tides batters he faced on Thursday. Since returning to Nashville from Milwaukee, Patrick has totaled 12 strikeouts over 9.2 innings of work and has collected 20 strikeouts over his last three starts with the Sounds, the most in a three-game span in Triple-A this year for Patrick. It is tied for the second most notched in a three-game stint overall this season, as the right-hander was able to earn 22 strikeouts over three starts with the Brewers from June 17-29. During that stretch he picked up a season-high nine strikeouts in an outing against the Pittsburgh Pirates on June 23.

MERRY CHRISTMAS: Veteran reliever Julian Merryweather tossed another scoreless outing from the bullpen on Thursday against Norfolk. This marks three-straight outings without allowing a run and the longest stretch he has put together since joining the Sounds. Since letting a run in each of his appearances on August 16 and 19, he has combined to strikeout three and allow just one hit over 3.0 frames. It's the first time Merryweather has gone three or more outings without letting up a run since doing it over four consecutive appearances from July 23 - August 13. Overall with the Sounds, Merryweather has made six outings and has a 2.84 ERA and holding opposing hitters to a .174 AVG.

TATER SKINS: Rhys Hoskins continued his Major League rehab assignment on Thursday afternoon, going 1-for-3 with a single and a walk. The 32-year-old has now played in 13 games for Nashville, smacking two homers with six RBI, seven walks, and a .351 on-base percentage. Since joining the team on August 19, Hoskins ranks fourth on the team in batting average (.271), tied for third in RBI (6), second in slugging percentage (.479), and second in total bases (23). Over his 13 games, he has managed to reach base in 11 of them, with three multi-hit performances.
